See Keeling's new wall paper for prices and beauty. Milk Tickets for sale at this office; only 25 cents per 100. Call and see us for reduced rates on magazines and newspapers. See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods. Get your machine oil at the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. Geo. L. Kennedy of London precinct was a Nemaha visitor Monday. Don't forget that Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. carry the best mixed paints. Mrs. James Hiatt and daughter, Mrs. Starks, arrived in Nemaha Saturday morning. The rainfall Thursday and Thursday night of last week amounted to one and 72-100 inches.

Rev. J. S. W. Dean, D. D., presiding elder of the Nebraska City district of the M. E. church, was a welcome caller Monday.

Will Tidrow, who has been running a restaurant at Phelps, Mo., sold out a few days ago and on Tuesday moved to Nemaha.

Will F. Sanders is rustivating in London precinct this week, helping Carl E. Sanders build fence and doing other farm work.

Mrs. Bert Swan and sister, Miss Nellie Wheeler, of Auburn, visited their grandmother, Mrs. Rosina Wheeler, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The members of the Nemaha lodge, A. O. U. W., have voted to surrender the charter, and the members will be transferred to lodges in near-by towns.

Men and boys are in active demand this week to assist in stacking grain, threshing, shelling corn, making hay, etc. Any one who wanted work could get it.

M. A. Perkins has opened a jewelry store at Brownville. He announces that he is there to stay, and has bought residence property. See his advertisement in another column.

A. F. Walsh bought 150 Angora goats at Kansas City last week. They got to Nemaha Sunday morning and attracted much attention. They will be put on the land cleared of timber last winter, to keep down the sprouts and weeds.

FRED DELIVERY SEPTEMBER 1st Notice has been received by our postmistress that service on rural free delivery route No. 1 will be started from Nemaha September 1st. No information has yet been received as to who the carrier will be.

Fred Culp of Lincoln came to Nemaha Friday last and visited friends until Wednesday. Fred lived in Nemaha in his schoolboy days but has been living in Lincoln for several years. He is clerking in one of the large clothing stores of that city.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and croupiness. For sale by M T Hill.

W. W. Seid lost one of his big gray horses during the high water. It was tracked to the bank of the Nemaha and it is supposed got into the water and as the current was very swift was not able to get out and drowned.

Mrs. Rose Gilbert's house is now completed except papering and she has the nicest and most comfortable house in town. It has a parlor, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, store room with place for coal, wood, etc., closets, cellar, porches, etc. T. C. Daugherty of Auburn had the contract and the work is first class in every particular. Nothing was slighted. The material was good and everything done in good shape.

Lost Pocketbook

I lost my pocketbook last Saturday somewhere between the depot at Nemaha and John B. Stotts' farm in St. Deroin precinct. Pocketbook was a large folding one, considerably worn, and contained $140 in bills and about $1.50 in silver. A reward of $20 will be given for its return. Finder will please leave it at The Advertiser office and get reward. THOS. PHELPS.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

Whereas, The All-wise Creator has seen fit in His providence to remove from our midst our worthy brother John Maxwell, and thus deprived us of his companionship, his wife of an affectionate husband, and his children of a loving father; we, as his fraternal brothers of Victory lodge No. 195, I. O. O. F., Nemaha, Nebraska, most sorrowfully resolve:

- 1st, That we deeply sympathize with the sorrowing family in this sad bereavement, and will render them all the help we can to lighten their sorrow and loneliness.
2nd, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the wife of our deceased brother as a lasting testimony of our sorrow in her sad affliction.
3rd, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Nebraska Advertiser for publication.
4th, That these resolutions be a part of the records of our lodge.
P. KERKER,
D. H. CLARK,
W. F. KEELING,
Committee.

Constipated Bowels To have good health the body should be kept in a laxative condition and the bowels moved at least once a day so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr G L Edwards, 142 N Mainstreet, Wichita, Kansas, writes: I have used Herbine to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years and found it a reliable remedy. 50c at Hill's Foley's Honey and Tar for children, safe, sure. No opiates. For sale by M. T. Hill.

Early Riser Flour Anchor Diadem Have you used those brands? If not, try one sack and you will find that you never had any better bread on the table. Ask your merchant for this flour and if he says "the other brands are better" it is because he makes more money on the other brands. On the Early Riser, Anchor or Diadem he only makes a small per cent. Buy a box "Best of the Wheat." It is ahead of all oatmeal and will take the place of oatmeal and many other foods. It is cheap—only 10c a box or 3 for 25c. Ask your grocer for it and if he dont keep it send to the mill. German-American Milling Co. South Auburn, Neb.

Furniture Furniture Just received a car load. Call in and see it. The price will be right. Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. John Watson's house in Nemaha is about completed and is virtually a new house and a good one. The appearance of the house has been changed inside and out. T. C. Daugherty of Auburn had the contract for doing the work, which means that it was well done. Otis Higgins and family, Roll Hager and Miss Mabel Bleivins of Nebraska City visited Ben Colerick and family from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Higgins is a brother-in-law of Mr. Colerick. He will start for the state of Washington in a few days for the benefit of his health. Miss Bleivins is a niece of Mr. Colerick. THRO' YELLOWSTONE PARK The Burlington Route is organizing a personally conducted excursion to and through Yellowstone Park to leave Nebraska Tuesday, August 5.
