Miss Ida M. Snyder,
Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for."
"In consulting with my druggist he advised McEree's Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Delineator for September

The first installment of Mrs. Barr's new love story, Thyra Varrick, appears in The Delineator for September, and judging from this first chapter it will hold the reader's attention to the end by its fine characterizations, beauty of thought and language and spirited action; it is superbly illustrated. The second section of The House that Jack and Jill Built tells about the old-fashioned garden and how it was made, and the pictures are delightful. The influence of the noble Vittoria Colonna on the life of Michael Angelo furnishes material for a notable addition to the series of Authors' Loves by Clara E. Laughlin. An interesting paper on Julia Ward Howe, lovingly called the grand old woman of America, also appears in this number. There are two spirited short stories by well-known writers, innumerable articles on fancy work and domestic interests; stories and pastimes for children, window gardening, home entertainment, etc.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and can safely be given to children. For sale by M. T. Hill.
