

News from Over the State

Put Away Your Fishline.

"It will be unhealthy for the man who goes forth after this day with his rod and line to tempt the finny denizens of the deep," said Chief Deputy Game Warden Simpkins October 31. "From midnight of this day until April 1 next it will be unlawful for any man to catch fish in any manner, shape or form, as the Nebraska law absolutely prohibits it." Every deputy in the state has been notified to be vigilant in endeavors to prevent the violation of the law. During the last summer hundreds of thousands of fish have been planted in Nebraska streams and care will be exercised to protect them for several months. It is promised around the chief game warden's office that any persons caught violating the law will be dealt with as severely as the law justifies. On and after November 1 it will be unlawful for anyone in Nebraska to have in his possession, for sale or for the use of himself and family, any fresh fish, and any hotelkeeper or keeper of public refreshments who has fish enumerated among the viands offered on his bill of fare is liable to severe penalty upon conviction.

Fined for Violating Game Law.

Deputy Game Warden Simpkins has received letters from George L. Carter, traveling deputy of the game and fish commission, to the effect that he recently secured the arrest of Charles Porter, of Box Butte county, for having shot antelope in Cheyenne county without a license. He was fined $2 and costs. Under the game law of the state one may hunt game in the open season in his own county without a license, but if he hunts beyond the limits of his county he must first supply himself with a license, which may be obtained of any county clerk and which entitles the holder to hunt in any county in the state.

A Venerable Voter.

James Gow, of Bellevue, Sarpy county, is a venerable father whose first vote was cast for Henry Clay and only missed voting for two candidates since by reason of the fact that he came to Nebraska in 1854 and as a resident of a territory he had no vote for president. He came to Omaha in 1854, but removed to Bellevue the next year. From 1859 to 1862 he was a hotel keeper at Bellevue. Five terms he served as judge of Sarpy county and one term in the legislature. He is 90 years old.

All for the Love of a Girl.

After an acquaintance of four days, Joab Jones committed suicide at Lincoln for love of Mattie Gross. Jones was an itinerant vender of stove polish, and Mattie is a chambermaid. They met first last Sunday, and the girl Wednesday passed him up for drunkenness. Thursday he took carbolic acid in a rooming house at 122 South Tenth street and was dead before medical aid could reach him.

Miss Van Wyck Married.

An announcement from New York says that Miss Happy Theodora Van Wyck, daughter of the late United States Senator Charles H. Van Wyck, of Nebraska, was married to a real estate dealer in Brooklyn. Recently Miss Van Wyck created a sensation in Washington city by refusing to marry a young man after she had approached the altar.

Easily Separated from His Cash.

Carl Buchman, who lives at Pool Siding, near Ravenna, was done up for $20 at Lincoln by a confidence man, whose only description is that he had fuzzy whiskers. It was the some old game of no money and plenty of luggage. Buchman loaned the money on the display by the con man of a $1,000 bill that he could not get changed.

Company Confessed Judgment.

Caroline Huber, whose husband, William R. Huber, a freight conductor on the Burlington, was killed on September 19 at Curtis, filed suit against the railroad company, asking $1,500 damages. The company filed a confession of judgment, that sum being fixed upon by the parties by agreement.

Stranger Roughly Treated.

John Gosset, of Harrington, upon arriving at Blair the other night to pay a visit to his uncle, Steven Phillips, was slugged when about two blocks east of the depot, robbed of his pocketbook containing $20 and left unconscious by the side of the railroad.

Robbers Take Nothing But Cash.

Someone broke into the drug store of William Boyer at York and stole about $40 in cash. Nothing else was taken. They entered the store through a cellar window and took the money out of a drawer in the prescription case.

Great Are Nebraska's Crops.

Five years ago Nebraska made a bid for admission into the list of states wherein wheat is raised in such quantities as to be considered a factor in the markets of the world. This presumption was met by some evidences of skepticism on the part of those who pretend to fix the lines in this regard, and Nebraska was told to make a reputation. In 1897 the wheat crop of the state was in the neighborhood of 30,000,000 bushels. In two years it had increased by about 10,000,000 bushels. Now, in five years after the proposition was made, the total crop is more than doubled, reaching to over 60,000,000 bushels. In 1900, which was in many respects Nebraska's record year for corn, 79 counties returned an acreage of 7,721,209, with a total yield of 241,935,527. In 1902 84 counties return an acreage of corn amounting to 5,773,170, with a total yield of 224,201,950 bushels. In 1900 the acreage returned for oats was 1,789,170, with a total yield of 48,785,422 bushels. For 1902 the acreage is 1,669,208, and the yield 58,503,007.

Witnesses Skip Out.

Gov. Savage's complaint against Harry Harris, a Lincoln carpenter, charged with smuggling opium into the state penitentiary, is likely to go by the board, because two of the witnesses necessary to complete the chain of evidence have disappeared. The missing men are ex-convicts, short-term men, whose time has expired since the case was first brought and who have promptly disappeared. They called on Harris' attorney and hinted that some transportation and money would place them far, far away.

Nebraska Scalded the Indians.

The fair escutcheon of the University of Nebraska for the football season of 1902 is still unsullied by defeat. Before an assemblage of 4,000 noisy enthusiasts at Lincoln the Cornhuskers achieved a crushing triumph over the redoubtable Haskell Indians, the final score standing 28 to 0. The red men were all who dared dispute Nebraska's claim to supremacy in the Missouri valley and the result clinches beyond question or quibble the Cornhuskers' right to the title.

New Supreme Justice.

Charles S. Lobingier, of Omaha, recently appointed a member of the supreme court commission, was born in Illinois, although since 12 years old he has lived in Nebraska. He was educated in Nebraska with the exception of his law course at Harvard. He was reporter and editor of the supreme court's decisions and librarian of the state from 1888 to 1892, being appointed just after being graduated from the University of Nebraska.

The Technicality Didn't Work.

The supreme court affirmed the decision of the district court of Rock county finding George Weigrefe guilty of cattle stealing. The defense was largely technical. A helper was the property stolen and it was asserted that the nonconsent of one of the owners was not proven. The animal was owned by two men and the state put but one of them on the stand to prove that the taking was without consent.

Examination of Teachers.

An examination for professional state certificates to teach will be held in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction on Monday and Tuesday, December 29 and 30. Examinations will also be held June 11, 12 and 13 at the same place and on the same dates at Grand Island, Norfolk, North Platte and all places where union normal institutes are in session.

Clothing Torn from His Back.

James Crist, an employe of the York roller mills, had a thrilling experience and a miraculous escape from instant death. He was climbing a ladder to adjust the machinery and a shafting caught his clothing. He held onto the ladder, but before the machinery was stopped nearly every stitch of clothing was torn from his body.

Death for Nierenfind.

Gottlieb Nierenfind, who shot and killed his divorced wife and her father near Pierce, dangerously wounded his mother-in-law and then made a criminal assault on his sister-in-law, was convicted of first-degree murder and sentenced to hang.

Runs Pitchfork in Eye.

While thrashing near Ellis, Chris Knoche, a prominent German farmer, had the misfortune to run the tine of a pitchfork in his right eye.

Fire School Building Destroyed.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the high school building at Arapahoe, one of the finest in southwestern Nebraska. The loss is $20,000.

CASE NO. 34,520.—Mr. Walter McLaughlin, of 3022 Jacob street, Wheeling, W. Va., a machine hand working at J. A. Holiday & Son's planing mill, says: "I firmly believe had I not used Doan's Kidney Pills when I did I would not be alive now. I was in a terrible condition, and although I took quarts of medicine, and was attended by doctors, I got no better, but worse. Friends spoke of my bad appearance, and thousands knew about it. I could hardly get around and felt and looked like a dead man rather than a living one. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Logan Drug Co.'s store, were a blessing to me; half a box relieved me; three boxes entirely cured me."

Douglas continues to own one-half of the business, and is to remain the active head of the concern.

This business is not an undeveloped prospect. It is a demonstrated dividend payer. This is the largest business in the world producing Men's shoes year-round (hand sewed process) shoes, and has always been immensely profitable. The business is safe against fierce competition of panic, making it a better investment than any other industrial stock. The annual business now is $5,000,000. It is increasing very rapidly, and will equal $7,000,000 for the year 1903. The factory is now turning out 750,000 pairs of shoes per day, and an addition to the plant is being built which will increase the capacity to 1,000,000 pairs per day. SURE OF APPLAUSE.

Sarah Had a Nasal Twang, But She Was Going to Receive One Good Hand.

That the theatrical claque is not confined to playhouses was demonstrated beyond all shadow of doubt to the teacher who was drilling the pupils for the exercises in one of the public schools, relates the New York Times.

The unresponsive bit of femininity over whom the amateur "coach" worked rejoiced in the name of Sarah.

When Sarah began to talk all her vocal organs took joyful holiday and retired in favor of her nose. In vain the teacher begged and implored. Sarah still clung to her monotone. Then the teacher threatened.

"Sarah," she said, "if you don't try to do better you will fail utterly and then how will you feel?"

"Oh, they'll applaud me, Miss Brown," returned Sarah, easily. "My mother is going to give my little brother Andy ten cents, and if he don't begin clapping the minute I sit down he's goin' to be strapped within an inch of his life."

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds, too, down to the very verge of consumption.

The footsteps of our forefathers have been followed in so much, and by such crude, sloppy statesmen, that it is not always easy to decide which way they point, any more.—Puck.

"Dr. August Koenig's Hamburg Breast Tea," writes Mr. F. Batsch, of Horicon, Wis., "enabled me to get rid of an obstinate cough; we feel very grateful to the discoverer of this medicine."

"Dar's no good in kickin' case every rose hab its thorn," said Uncle Eben. "Ef dar was only jes' thorns wifout no roses, it 'ud be sumpin' sho' nough to complain about."

BACKACHE.

Backache is a forerunner and one of the most common symptoms of kidney trouble and womb displacement.

READ MISS BOLLMAN'S EXPERIENCE.

"Some time ago I was in a very weak condition, my work made me nervous and my back ached frightfully all the time, and I had terrible headaches.

"My mother got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and it seemed to strengthen my back and help me at once, and I did not get so tired as before. I continued to take it, and it brought health and strength to me, and I want to thank you for the good it has done me."

—Miss KATH BOLLMAN, 142nd St. & Wales Ave., New York City. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures because it is the greatest known remedy for kidney and womb troubles.

Every woman who is puzzled about her condition should write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her all.
