Hard Work for Physicians.

Fred Hertz, 19 years old, of Lincoln, for four hours apparently took a trip to the golden shore and is still on earth and doing well. It was during an operation on the young man for appendicitis at a Lincoln hospital when he ceased to breathe. Not a sign of respiration was discernible, but the doctors found that his pulse was beating, showing that the heart action had not been suspended. Outside of the fact that the pulse continued its throbbing the young man was as one dead. Artificial respiration was at once applied and for four hours and twenty minutes, during which time the patient sustained not one natural respiration, the four physicians worked sturdily to restore the lost breath. The physical exertion necessary to keep this up for so long a time was a severe strain upon the fortitude of the professional quartette, and just as the four surgeons were exhausted natural respiration was resumed and in a short time the young man was on the road to recovery.

Carnegie Remembers Old Friend.

When Andrew Carnegie first came to the United States there was on the same ship Samuel Nicholls, now of Kenesaw, Neb. Between the two young men a warm friendship sprang up, which was maintained for some time after their arrival. Mr. Nicholls finally drifted into the coal mines and from there west and did not for years think of his former friend, the now great millionaire. Finally in adversity he appealed to Mr. Carnegie for help, but that was several years ago, and as no answer came, his surprise may be imagined when a few days ago he received the following letter from the private secretary of Mr. Carnegie: "Enclosed find draft for $500. Also, it is my pleasure to inform you that your name has been put upon the annuity list of Mr. Carnegie, and hereafter you are to receive from him $500 annually, payable in monthly installments of $42."

Hemmingford Man Poisoned.

Otto L. Gibson, of Hemmingford, met an accidental death by poisoning near Blackfoot, Ida. Gibson ate from a raisin stew cooked in a galvanized iron kettle. Some of the galvanizing had worn off, leaving the iron exposed. Some chemical change took place which resulted in poisoning. Being alone on a sheep ranch he wrote the details on a piece of paper, which was found near the body.

Want More for Grain.

The farmers about Dorchester believe that they have been unjustly discriminated against for a number of years in the price for grain paid by the local elevators. They have decided to take the matter into their own hands and are forming a stock company, composed exclusively of farmers, with a capital stock of $10,000, with which they propose to erect an elevator.

Farmers Complete Organization.

The Nebraska Farmers' Grain and Live Stock association has completed its organization. The object of the organization is to protect the members against indiscriminate charges by the railroads and corporations, and to furnish reports of crops and market conditions and to procure the best possible market and transportation for products.

Record Price for a Hog.

At a public sale of Duroc-Jersey brood sows at Lyons from the herd of Manley & Co., the world's record of prices of this breed was broken. Fifty head were sold at an average of $76.80 per head. The highest price for any one animal was $300. E. H. Gifford, of Leviston, Neb., paid that figure for the three-year-old sow, Roberts' Profit.

Reducing the Cost.

The house concurred in the senate's amendment reducing the appropriation for legislators' expenses from $48,000 to $28,000. It was shown by a report by the house deficiency committee that the reduction was warranted, as last session thousands of dollars were spent for furnishings and decorations, which are not required this year.

Surveying for New Railroad.

J. E. House, civil engineer, was in Beatrice and in company with the local officers of the Kansas City, Beatrice & Western Railroad company started across the country for Virginia to begin preliminary examination and survey for the permanent location of the line between Virginia and Beatrice.

Eloped With Wife's Sister.

Gilead Reynolds, husband of Mrs. Myrtle Reynolds, eloped from Beatrice with his sister-in-law, Miss Nora Stanley, who has been living with the Reynolds family for some time. Mrs. Reynolds is heartbroken over the affair, and offers a reward of $75 for the arrest of the elopers.

Almost the Last of His Type.

Seneca Hager, one of the first settlers in Nebraska and pioneer freighter across the plains, died at his home 12 miles northwest of Fremont. He was born in Hartford, Vt. In 1855 he came to Nebraska with his parents and brothers and settled west of Ames. That winter his father was frozen to death while trying to reach his nearest neighbor, seven miles distant at North Bend. Seneca then secured employment as a teamster, driving ox teams from the Missouri river to Denver and the mountains, and a few years later went into the freighting business himself. When that business ended with the completion of the Union Pacific railroad, he bought some land north of Jamestown and built a commodious log house on it, in which he resided to the time of his death, the last of the original log houses in the county to be used as a dwelling.

Get Money for Nebraska.

Congressman Burkett secured the insertion in the government appropriation for public buildings a paragraph which authorized the sale of the present, or old, federal building at Lincoln for the sum of not less than $50,000, the proceeds of such sale to be placed to the credit of the fund for the erection of a new federal building in the capital city of Nebraska. This will in effect give an appropriation of $350,000 to be expended in building a new public building at Lincoln. Mr. Burkett also, with the aid of Senator Dietrich, induced the committee to insert provisions for the purchase of sites for new public buildings at York and Grand Island. Each of the cities is to secure $10,000 for the purpose of obtaining a suitable site for the public building.

Meeting of Royal Neighbors.

The annual state convention of Royal Neighbors was held at Lincoln, 150 delegates being present. Resolutions were adopted favoring the reelection of Mrs. E. D. Watt as supreme oracle. Mrs. E. H. Wilbur was endorsed for the position of supreme receiver and Mrs. Nellie Yoho for member of the supreme board of managers. The state camp officers elected were: Mrs. Kate Remington, Omaha, state oracle; Mrs. Mary F. Kelley, North Bend, state recorder; Miss Anna Tobin, Lincoln, state vice oracle.

Baby Born in Baggage Car.

While a train of the Union Pacific was pulling along at the rate of 40 miles an hour in the vicinity of Lexington, in the baggage car there was born to the happy parents, passengers from the west to Fairfield, Cornish by name, a bright, bouncing baby. Orders were telegraphed to Grand Island for a cot. When the train pulled in the railroad company's physician was at the depot, but his services were not needed, as all in the party were reported doing nicely.

Three Bills Passed House.

The house passed house roll 99, by Gregg, of Wayne, requiring notices of district school board meetings to be served on all members. No. 100, by Hanna, of Cherry, providing for the establishment of not less than three or more than five junior normal schools in western Nebraska; No. 101, by Kittle, of Sherman, raising the tax levy in townships for road purposes from two to five mills.

Runaway Starts Flood.

At Fremont, a heavy team attached to a farm wagon ran away and in turning the corner of a street collided with a hydrant, breaking off the cap, before the water could be turned off a big stream was running down the street, which soon became a lake. Next morning it was a first-class skating rink.

Locates Son in Hospital.

Seth Bailey, a wealthy farmer of Charles City, Ia., located his 17-year-old son, Henry, who has been missing for two years, in the Fremont hospital and as soon as the boy recovers he will be taken home. Young Bailey left his home about two years ago and has tramped all through the west.

Affects Saloonkeepers.

Koetter, of Douglas, introduced a bill to prohibit any saloonkeeper from selling intoxicating liquor to an habitual drunkard, and compelling any violator of the act to remunerate the wife and children of such drunkard for any lack of support caused by the husband's and father's inebriation.

THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS FOR WESTERN CANADA.

"There will be thousands of Americans coming up here in the Spring," was the remark made by a farmer from the vicinity of Langdon, North Dakota, when he arrived in Winnipeg, Manitoba, the capital of Western Canada, a few days since. He was the advance guard of a large body who are following him, and he has already invested in several farming sections for himself and others and purposes to take up his permanent abode in this country. He went on to say: "Hundreds are coming from my district alone. I know this to be a fact, for many of them are neighbors of mine. The chief topic of conversation with the farmers is the coming immigration in the spring."

"The impression general in the part of Dakota where I live that farmers can get from 10 to 15 cents more a bushel for wheat on the American side of the line than on the Canadian, has not prevented people from turning their eyes to Canada as a place to live in. They know they can get land in this country which is every bit as fertile as that in Dakota at about one-quarter the price. It is safe to say that the exodus from Dakota into Canada this year will exceed the expectations of all Canadians."

Happy Homes

One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and carminative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use and which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.
