

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME XLVII

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1903

NUMBER 40

Local News

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Nice fresh oranges one penny each at Battles'.

Try the Devoe paint. Sold by J. W. Kerns, Auburn.

Mrs. Theo. Hill returned from Chicago Friday night.

Bring your Poultry to Battles, who pays the very highest prices.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Mrs. Miles Knapp drove to Stella Thursday to visit until Sunday.

Buy your garden seed at the old reliable seed house. P. Kerker.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Curtright are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter.

Oils and paints at the right prices at the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Miss Daisy Frazier went to Stella Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Swan.

Estimates furnished on all kinds of building by Joe Bunker contractor and builder.

G. N. Titus went to Falls City Friday, on business, returning Saturday morning.

Remember, we will take corn, oats, wheat, hay, or wood on subscription at market price.

Just received, a car load of Wire Fence at the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. Call and get prices.

Joe Titus, who has been rusticated in Wyoming for a month or so, returned home Thursday morning.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris, prop'r.

Nat Titus, the Nemaha nurseryman, was in town Tuesday, and while here he completed arrangements with Al Nace for getting out 245,000 seedlings, work on which will begin last of the week.—Brownville Biograph.

Mrs. W. E. Wheeldon went to Geneva, Neb., Thursday of last week to visit relatives.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

D. H. Clark, Harry Hoover, E. J. Maxwell and Herbert Aynes went to St. Joe Wednesday.

We had a heavy fall of snow last Sunday. The snow was very wet therefore it did not drift.

If you are intending to build have Joe Bunker figure on your contract. He is a first class carpenter.

Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. are headquarters for everything in hardware. Our stock is complete.

All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle at once. W. H. Barker.

For Sale—Good span of mules—weight 1000 lbs. each. R. I. BROWN & SON.

We take poultry every day but would rather not have them Saturday. L. H. BATTLES.

J. H. Seid and Geo. Fisher shipped a car load of cattle to Kansas City Monday night, going through with them.

For Sale—A 260 egg incubator in good working order. Inquire of J. A. Anderson, one mile south of Brownville.

Class number 4 of the M. E. Sunday school are practicing for an entertainment to be given soon. It will be a good one.

Trains got through to Nebraska City Friday evening of last week for the first time since the wreck on Tuesday before. A slide on the track between the wreck and the city delayed matters several hours.

We have received the program of the graduating exercises of the Western Business College of Shenandoah, Iowa, which takes place today. Walter S. Thompson and E. Clyde Roberts are two of the graduates from the commercial class.

WALL PAPER Season is Here

SO ARE WE

with a large and complete line, And So Cheap

Cheaper than old newspapers.

Paints, too—all Kinds

Yours for a clean house,

M. T. HILL

Mrs. W. F. Keeling, who has been visiting at Staunberry, Mo., returned home Friday forenoon.

D. H. Clark had a horse badly cut by getting in the barb wire Wednesday. John Flack sewed up the cut, which was on the leg.

George Yackley sprained his ankle Monday and had to hobble along with a cane for two or three days. It is now much better.

Mrs. Brooks, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earle Gilbert, for a few weeks, started for her home in Oklahoma Tuesday.

We carry a good supply of well made harness and harness supplies, robes, whips, halters, etc. Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Nelson Hadlock, who has been sick for several days, was pronounced a smallpox patient by Dr. H. S. Gaither last Friday and the house quarantined.

Those seeds I will sell are certainly good. CYRUS MILAM, Market Gardener, South Auburn Nebr.

Charley Burns started for Iowa City, Iowa, Monday afternoon, where he will go to work for the Iowa City Nursery Co., an old established company.

John M. Clark has sold his half interest in the meat market, building, etc., to his partner, E. L. Paris, who will continue the business. The transfer was made Thursday.

Cyrus Miniek delivered the mail on the rural route Thursday. Mr. Rumbaugh went to Auburn. This is the first trip Mr. Rumbaugh has missed since the route was established.

The Kerkhoff-Locke Dramatic Co. comes to the Grand Opera House, Brownville, Neb. for three nights commencing March, 30. Admission 15, 25 and 35, Season tickets 80 cents.

Monday afternoon there was every indication of a blizzard for a short time. A hard wind was blowing and the air was full of snow, but the storm only lasted a few minutes.

H. W. Titus has sold his property in the west part of town to Mrs. Josephine Lindsey, mother of Charlie Lindsey. Charlie is going to move back to Nemaha and engage in blacksmithing again.

SEED POTATOES FOR SALE

About 100 bushels—pure seed—Early Triumph, Early Ohio and White Ohio—50 cents per bushel.

R. I. BROWN.

Yes, I have raised garden truck for ten years. I am selling some choice seeds. Make out your list and send it to me.

CYRUS MILAM, Market Gardener, South Auburn, Neb.

Grand Semi-Annual MILLINERY OPENING of my up-to-date line of PATTERN HATS Friday & Saturday, April 3 & 4 MRS. THEO. HILL

The meetings at the Christian church closed Sunday night. The meetings lasted four weeks. There were forty additions to the church—thirty-one by baptism and nine by letter and reinstatement.

Persons who saw the Kerkhoff-Locke Co. at Brownville last season, all join in wishing them largely increased business. These people are all ladies and gentlemen who stand high in their profession and are truly "the people's favorites."

F. L. Woodward tried to hire some one to bale hay, but could not find one who would do it, so he has bought a baler. He has had a little misfortune right at the start, as a large casting broke, but he has a new one and is ready for work again.

Mrs. T. L. Thompson visited her brother, Nate Sedoras, from Thursday until Saturday of last week, when she went to Shubert and visited relatives until Monday, when she returned to Nemaha, then to Brownville. She started for her home in Oklahoma this week.

Wait until you see Milam before you buy your garden seeds. He will surely call on you.

Call for Settlement

All parties owing me are hereby notified to call at once and settle by cash or note. L. H. BATTLES.

We Need Money

And need it bad. If you are owing us please call and settle at once. If you haven't the money but have corn or wood it will answer the same purpose. Don't wait for statements but call and settle at once.

The Titus Nursery, about a year ago put in a phone from the Nursery to the depot, but for some reason it did not work. A few days ago new instruments were put in and it now works all right. It saves the Nursery many trips to the depot.

Fred Seabury's family, who have been quarantined for smallpox for the past four weeks, were released from quarantine Thursday morning. Nelson Hadlock is now the only one in Nemaha who has the disease and he has it in a very light form.

Dr. H. S. Gaither, was 40 years old Sunday and his friends in the country decided to give him a surprise. They gathered at his home about noon, bringing baskets filled with good things to eat. The storm kept many away, but about 30 were present. The dinner served was a feast and was heartily enjoyed by all. The afternoon was spent in conversation, music, etc.

WANTED

I will pay more than any body for all kinds of furs, racoon, skunk, civit, opossum, musk rats, minks, fox, wolf, beaver, otter and all kinds of furs. Want them in the next 30 or 60 days. Bring in your furs. P. KERKER.

Better Than a Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side and chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular, and rheumatic pains. For sale by W. W. Keeling Druggist.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney, prop.

L. H. BATTLES

Well, we are tired of telling you about these shoes, and suppose you are tired of hearing about them. We don't object to soup for fifty or sixty meals but for a steady dish we don't like it.

We have just one confession to make and that is this:

We would like to sell you all a pair of Shoes.

Come and see them.

Cilbert & McCandless