Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits.

Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

At a meeting of the school board held Monday evening the following teachers were elected for the ensuing year: W. P. Barrett, principal; Miss Maggie McKinney, assistant; Miss Clare Diltz, intermediate; Miss Vinnie Fritz, primary. S. P. Moore will be janitor.—Brownville Biograph.

The editorial board of Christendom, the new American weekly, is as follows:

Dr. Wm. Rainey Harper, Chairman. Prof. Shailer Mathews, Editor. Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus, Dr. Wm. Douglas Mackenzie, Dr. Charles M. Stuart, Mr. J. R. Slater. Dr. J. M. Campbell, Associate Editors.

Clarence Williams, living west of town, had rather a serious experience last Friday. He was breaking a colt when the team became frightened and ran, away killing one of the horses. Mr. Williams received a severe scalp wound necessitating seven stitches in dressing but he was not otherwise seriously injured.—Brownville Biograph.

John Kauffman, youngest son of W. M. Kauffman of this city, departed Monday evening for Omaha to fill a position which he had accepted in the Union National bank there. John is one of Brownville's most popular young men and the offer, coming as it did unsolicited, was a highly complimentary one. His departure was a surprise to all. The Biograph joins his many friends in wishing him unbounded success.—Brownville Biograph.

Stella, a Neb., Mar. 21, 1903.—A fire which was discovered about half past four this morning in the basement of the old opera house, situated on the southeast corner of Main street burned everything in that block as far north as the postoffice which is of brick and intercepted the flames at that point. All of the buildings burned were frame.

The buildings burned were the opera house, occupied by Umler as a feed store, Umler's residence, Mrs. Umler's millinery, store Hoagland's restaurant, Bates harness shop, two vacant buildings and another feed store. All of the plate glass in the elegant brick blocks across the street was broken.

The loss is estimated at $6,000, with only $4,000 insurance. Stella has no fire protection and the bucket brigade could offer no adequate resistance to the progress by the flames, the fire continuing to spread on account of the strong south wind blowing at the time. So far as learned no one suffered personal injuries and the disaster was limited to the destruction of the property named above.

The Christendom company, Chicago, will send Christendom, the new American weekly, to you on trial for two months for fifty cents.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry Editor of the Enterprise, Shortville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times keep from coughing myself to pieces by taking one teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bade me adieu." For sale by Keeling.

The editors and promoters of the new American weekly, Christendom, have the resources at command to make the journal the best and greatest of its kind, and one that should be in every home of refinement.

"A Lily Maid" by Martha McColloch Williams, "An Afternoon with the Doctor" by Bertha B. Green, and "Andiel and the Reindeer" by Vincent Van Marter Beede supply the fiction and charming springtime poems are contributed by Theodosia Garrison, Harvey Peake, Blanch Allyn Bane, and B. A. Hitchcock. "Lace and embroidery" is the department which will most interest the fancy worker while those in search for appropriate entertainments for the season will avail themselves of "Easter Egg Parties" by Mary Dawson, and "An April Fool" by Mary D. Buzzelle. "Fashions and Fabrics" describes and illustrates the newest fabrics, trimmings and toilet novelties. "Points on dressmaking and "Lessons in Millinery" occupy their usual place.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. K. H. Seitz of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels."

There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by W. W. Keeling, druggist. Every box warranted.

Christendom is a new weekly published in Chicago. It is the practical embodiment of what has long been felt by the prominent leaders in the political, social and educational progress, viz, that there is imperative need of a journal which should discuss, week by week, in the spirit of enlightened Christianity, not only the world's most important news developments along all lines, but also the pressing problems of politics, religion, education and sociology, which are engrossing the minds of the intelligent, broad-minded men and women of today.

Christendom, the new American weekly, will be the organ of any institution, of any man, or any party. As the name implies its scope will not be limited to any section, or to any country.

Beyond All Comparison

One of the many factors contributing to the remarkably rapid and solid growth of St. Louis is the marvelous development of the Southwest and other territory tributary to that city in all lines of trade. In 1904 there will be held the greatest World's Fair in the world. The presidential campaign will also take place. To keep informed with the whole world you should at once subscribe for the peer of newspapers, The Twice-a-week St. Louis Republic. It is indispensable to the farmer, merchant, or professional man. Its telegraphic and cable service excels that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world wide facts. It is democratic in politics, but distinctly a national newspaper and family journal. The subscription price of $1.00 gives you two papers each week, 104 papers a year.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Theford's Black-Draught should be used.
