

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME XLVII

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1903

NUMBER 41

TO THE PUBLIC

Last Saturday being rainy, I failed to move as many shoes as I wished to, so will make

Special Prices on Shoes Saturday of this week

I have just received a crate of

New Queensware

of the best quality, on which I will make special prices on Saturday, April 25.

Dress Goods Department

You must not forget this. Will make prices to suit all.

Our Grocery stock

is complete and will make the lowest possible prices.

Bring in your Eggs and Butter

Will pay the highest market price.

Come one and all and we will do you good.

J. H. VANDERSLICE

WALL PAPER Season is Here

SO ARE WE

with a large and complete line,

And So Cheap

Cheaper than old newspapers.

Paints, too—all Kinds

Yours for a clean house,

M. T. HILL

Mrs. John E. Crother went to Brownville Friday afternoon and visited her sister, Mrs. J. D. Rainey, until the next morning. She saw the burning of the Marsh block and other buildings.

We had some hail Saturday evening, but they were small and no damage was done. It rained a slow drizzling rain that night and at intervals Sunday afternoon and night and almost all Monday forenoon.

Miss Elizabeth Melvin of Guthrie, Oklahoma, is the guest of Miss Lillian Minick, coming Monday of this week. Miss Melvin is attending the Creighton Medical college at Omaha and stops here to visit friends before going home.

The Titus Nursery shipped a lot of forest trees to Talmage Wednesday. That village is following a good example by setting out a park in trees on Arbor day. In a few years they will be enabled to rejoice in the beautiful shade.

Rev. J. T. Smith has resigned as pastor of the Christian church at Nemaha, and Rev. J. W. Sapp of Brownville has been engaged to complete the year for which Rev. Smith was engaged. He has also resigned as pastor of the church at Shubert.

Glen Rider, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rider of Howe, died Wednesday, April 21, 1903, aged 8 months and 15 days. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. M. S. Foutch, were held at the Methodist church at Nemaha Thursday. The parents have our sympathy in their grief.

F. L. Woodward was called to Kansas City last Saturday by the sad news of the death of his mother. He returned home Monday. Mrs. Woodward went to Atchison Sunday to attend the funeral which was held at that place. She went from there to Kansas City to see a sister-in-law who is very sick.

FOR SALE

A good residence, orchard and 12 acres of land with it, for sale—adjoining the townsite of Nemaha. Call on or write F. G. HAWXBY, South Auburn, Nebr.

A New Invention

Minick's Field Corn Husking Machine husks the corn from the stalk, leaving stalks standing in the field. Exclusive state and manufacturer's right for sale by the inventor and patentee. Correspondence solicited. Address 44 H. T. MINICK, Nemaha, Neb.

What Thin Folks Need

Is a greater power of digesting and assimilating food. For them Dr. King's New Life Pills work wonders. They tone and regulate the digestive organs, gently expel all poison from the system, enrich the blood, improve appetite make healthy flesh. Only 25c at Keeling's.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle at once, as I need the money.

MRS. THEO. HILL

Last Call for Settlement

Parties owing us will avoid costs by calling and settling by cash or note on or before April 25. We are going to leave and must have a settlement.

Do not delay.

L. H. BATTLES

Local News

Old papers for sale at this office.

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Try the Devco paint. Sold by J. W. Kerns, Auburn.

S. H. Avey of Auburn was in Nemaha Wednesday.

Postmaster M. H. Taylor was up from Shubert Tuesday.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. are headquarters for screen doors.

Mrs. Alice A. Minick of Brownville visited Nemaha friends last Sunday.

There was a heavy frost Tuesday night. There was some frost Monday night.

Mrs. A. N. Sedoras went to Pern Monday to visit relatives, returning Thursday.

Call on Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. for furniture. A car load just received.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

D. D. Davis of Aspinwall precinct gave us a pleasant call Wednesday and paid his subscription a year ahead.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Colerick, on Friday, April 24, 1903, a fine son. The young man has been named John Stephen, after his father.

C. J. Lindsey has leased a lot north of where W. E. Wheelon is living and is building a blacksmith shop thereon.

CANE SEED FOR SALE.

10,000 pounds at $1.50 per 100 lbs. Early Ohio potatoes, 30 cents per bushel. At farm.—N. C. Jarvis, Nemaha, Neb.

Car Load of Furniture

Just received by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. Call and see if you need anything in that line.

For the best paint on the market go to Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Remember, we will take corn, oats, wheat, hay, or wood on subscription at market price.

If you are contemplating a change of location and want land cheap, call at this office. We can interest you.

Any farmer having two or three cows can make money by buying a separator from Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Rev. M. S. Foutch baptized seven persons by immersion last Sunday afternoon, in the creek in the west part of town.

Mrs. Florence Skeen, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Asnes, returned to her home near Ord Monday.

John I. Dressler, V. P. Peabody and Ben D. Baldwin are attending district court at Auburn this week, in the capacity of jurors.

Fay E. Gaither came down from Omaha Saturday. He has been attending Creighton medical college and is home on vacation.

Just received a carload of flour and feed from the Aurora mills. Lovers of good bread should try a sack of our flour. E. L. Paris

L. H. Battles will have a public sale at his home Saturday of this week, selling a horse, cow and calf, heifer, ten shoats, and some household goods. Sale will begin at 1:30 p. m.

C. J. Lindsey wishes to announce to the public that he has again located in Nemaha, and in a few days will be prepared to do all kinds of blacksmithing. Shop east of Burl Hoover's residence.

R. I. Brown and D. H. Clark attended the thoroughbred shorthorn cattle sale at Tecumseh last Friday, and each bought a fine pedigreed male paying $85 each for them. They shipped them that night and got them home the next forenoon. They are both fine animals.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney, prop.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris, prop'r.

The Nebraska Mercantile Mutual Insurance company of Lincoln, Nebraska, has over $6,000,000 insurance in force with the leading business men of the state. Ask to see a list of them, Cementico—the best wall finish made—far better than calamine or alabastine—for sale by Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Better Than a Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side and chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular, and rheumatic pains. For sale by W. W. Keeling Druggist.

You Save One-Fifth.

Most pastry recipes, in cook books, are made for flours containing much less gluten than does Pillsbury's Best.

Use one-fifth less of Pillsbury's Best Flour than such recipes call for.

WANTED

200 good looking ladies to buy themselves each a pair of our Oxfords, just to get the sales started. They are the latest styles out.

Gilbert & McCandless