All our farmer readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes with this paper The Iowa Homestead, its Special Farmers' Institute editions, and The Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add for local, county and general news our own paper and make the price for the four for one year $1.35. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The papers named which we club with our own are well known throughout the west and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention upon mere mention. The Homestead is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the west. The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer published in the country, and the Special Farmers' Institute editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published. Take advantage of this great offer.

The Nebraska Advertiser
W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1903.

Alf. B. Kinton is having his house painted. Messrs. Murphy and Schmeizel of Humboldt are doing the work.

Chas. P. Scovill has built a house on Jim Shiveley's farm in Aspinwall precinct, and will move into it as soon as his wife returns and work for Jim.

The village board of trustees met at the Advertiser office Monday evening and organized by electing John I. Dressler chairman and H. M. Tollinger clerk.

Lost—Friday night, May 1, probably in Nemaha, two $5 bills and one $10 bill. Bills were in a half of an envelope. Finder please return to C. P. Scovill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollenberger of Bostwick, Nebr., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wheeler on Saturday evening until Monday forenoon. Mr. Hollenberger is B. & M. agent at Bostwick.

L. H. Battles is loading his household goods preparatory to leaving Nemaha. We understand he is going to locate in Colorado or Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Battles have made many friends here, who hate to see them leave, but wish them all good fortune in their new home.

Mr. Wm. Ludwig, living in the southeast corner of the county, was married Thursday of last week to Miss Anna John. Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig gave this office a call Thursday, in company with their mother, Mrs. Dora Ludwig. They were transacting some business with F. L. Woodward.

Grandpa Frazier was 79 years of age Tuesday, and many of his friends gathered at the home of his son, David Frazier, and gave him a pleasant surprise. Mr. Frazier was baptized by Rev. J. W. Sapp, pastor of the Christian church. He united with the church during the protracted meeting recently, but waited until his birthday to be baptized.

Col. Joe Harper of Shubert and J. Mitchell of Falls City gave the Advertiser a plea ant call Wednesday. Mr. Mitchell represents J. C. Gibson of Atchison, Kansas, dealer in monuments, and was here to put up a monument at the grave of Mrs. S. W. Hodges. It is a nice one. He recently put up a fine monument at the grave of John Maxwell.

T. J. Crummel has the contract for repairing the bridge across the Nemaha at the Bennett mill, which has been in a bad condition for some time. He will put in steel tubing filled with concrete in place of the stone abutments, and will put in steel beams in place of the wooden ones. A new floor will be laid and practically a new bridge will be put in. It will take about two weeks to do the work, and meanwhile the public will be compelled to use other bridges, as this one will be impassable. Tom also has the contract for putting in a 40 foot steel bridge across the creek near J. H. Seid's farm, and also for putting in steel tubing and repairing the bridge across the Nemaha south of town, but it will be a month or more before he gets at this work.

Better Than a Plaster.
A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side and chest. Cures When Doctors Fail
Mrs. Frank Chasson, Patterson, Ia., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in a very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return, I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then I bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel very grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering with malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Hill's.

An exchange says the biggest trust on earth has been discovered at last. It is the country newspaper trust. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrust for cussing, and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting.

Thrice blessed is the individual who does his best all the time, and if things do not come his way to the extent that he hoped, repine not but keeps right on sawing wood. If he never gets his heart's desire the pleasure of a life not given to worry will be his.—Clay Center Sun.

A man told us the other day that we did not print all the things that happened. We should say we didn't. If we published all that happened we would soon be with the angels. In order to please the people we must print only nice things about them and leave the rest to gossips. Yes, it is a fact, we don't print all the news. If we did wouldn't it be spley reading? But it would be for one week only. The next week you would read our obituary and there would be another editor in heaven.—Ex.

Surely it is to be hoped that Governor Mickey has established a precedent in the firm stand he took against Sunday legislature jamborees which will be followed by future governors. While some contend he is taking his Methodism into office too freely the Republican believes instead, he is directed by a high sense of high moral conscience and thereby is setting a good example for the thoughtless. Circumstances and conditions indicate it is time someone had backbone enough to stem the tide of disregard for Sunday observance.—Valentine Republican.

A Weak Stomach
Causes a weak body and invites disease. Kodol dyspepsia cure cures and strengthens the stomach and wards off and overcomes disease. J. R. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chriesman, Texas, says, "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and run down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health.—W. W. Keeling.

George Cornell writes from Cordell, Oklahoma, to have the Granger apprise the people that another son has been added to his family, and that they had named it Oklahoma T. Cornell. This makes eleven children born to Mr. and Mrs. Cornell, but as the others were born in Nebraska George didn't have to pay $1 each for the publication of birth notices, hence he has been quite lucky until the present time.—Granger.

Last Thursday evening the Steckelberg-Hoover concert company appeared at the opera house under the auspices of the ladies of the Episcopal church. The company rendered a very interesting program to a large and appreciative audience. Miss Marie Hoover, the pianist, is the daughter of the late W. H. Hoover, former clerk of the district court of this county. Miss Lasalle Fiske, contralto, of Beatrice is also with the company. They were entertained by Mrs. H. R. Howe.—Post.

A Lesson in Health.—Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure cures sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. For sale by M T Hill.

World-Wide Reputation
White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it neutralizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves the digestion and assimilation of food, strenghtens the nervous system and restores them to the health vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at Hill's.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. K. H. Seitz of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by W W Keeling, druggist Every box warranted.

The difference between the last legislature and its predecessors is that the legislature of 1903 did things. On the surface it would appear that no legislative body that had convened in this state for many years accomplished as much. Of course it is impossible at present to form anything like an accurate estimate of the legislation just enacted. The exact effect of a statute cannot always be foretold. Some of the enactments which now appear most valuable may prove defective in some essential detail in a manner that will render them entirely nugatory. This has been true of many popular measures of which at first high hopes were entertained. There are never enough lawyers to prevent the passage of statutes afterwards found to be unconstitutional. On the whole, it will appear that the legislature of 1903 will go down in history as one of more than average achievements—Ohioan.
