Twelve thousand men and women, members of organized labor in Denver, were called out on a strike Tuesday. All restaurants are closed, and grocery clerks, bakers, butchers and employes of commission houses and some retail stores are out.

A surprise was given Mrs. Henry Field of Shenandoah, Iowa, last Sunday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson, three and one-half miles west of Nemaha. Mrs. Field was here on a visit and her friends decided to surprise her before she goes home. A large number of the neighbors, with a few friends from Nemaha, gathered with loaded baskets and proceeded to make themselves at home and have a good time. Mr. Thompson has a beautiful home. He claims to have the best 200 acre farm in the best county in Nebraska and we are not disposed to dispute his claim. The large and comfortably arranged house is situated on a knoll overlooking his farm yard, and everything about the house and yards is arranged very conveniently.

About 1 o'clock those present had one of the best dinners it had ever been our good fortune to sit down to.

After dinner Mr. Thompson showed the gentlemen his fat cattle, horses, etc. He has twenty head of fine fat cattle, ready for market. One steer weighed 1700 and another 1840. Others were almost as heavy. Mr. Thompson is a successful cattle feeder as well as a good farmer.

The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. It was a total surprise to Mrs. Field.

Holds Up a Congressman

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all of my organs were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c.—Guaranteed by Keeling.

The G. A. R. Post at Nemaha received four monuments recently to be placed at the head of graves of deceased comrades. The monuments are furnished by the government. It is the desire that no soldier's grave be left unmarked. V. P. Peabody was in town Thursday and put them in place.

Walter Curtright has been laid up for repairs for over a week on account of a fall. He was carrying slabs from W. W. Seid's saw mill and had carried a heavy one on top of a big pile, when he slipped and fell off the pile, hurting his left side and shoulder. Dr. Galtner says he ruptured the peritonium in several places.

There is now good prospects of a much larger crop of fruit of all kinds than was considered possible immediately after the late freeze. We will have a fair crop of peaches and apples. There will be a good many plums and cherries, a good crop of strawberries, raspberries, etc., and also a fair crop of grapes.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney, prop.
