Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Mrs. Fred Unrath,
President Country Club, Benton
Harbor, Mich.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.

The Nebraska Advertiser

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1903.

Wm. French of London precinct was in the city Tuesday and let a contract to Z. E. Moore for the erection of an addition to his residence and the erection of a large commodious barn. —Post.

A stock company has been formed at Shubert for the purpose of buying the latest machinery for brickmaking. W. H. West will use the machinery in his yard just south of Shubert, and that town expects a building boom as the result. —Stella Press.

The largest alfalfa field in the world is in Nebraska. It comprises over 5,000 acres: The largest cattle barn in the United States is in Dodge county, the largest county in any state is in Nebraska, and no other state has as many miles of any one river as we have in the Platte.

"Don't attempt to ask the editor to write up and rebuke every evil in the town and community," says an exchange. "But when convinced that such duties best attending to, write an article for your paper and sign your name for publication. The man who is to big a coward to thus express an opinion is the man who will stand on the street corner and talk about the cowardice of the editor."

Thirteen years ago L. L. Jones of Shubert purchased twenty acres of land near Galveston, Texas. He has not an oil well on it yet, but the oil region has proved itself to be within ten miles of his holdings, and as the oil capitalists are buying up all the land they can get hold of in that section. Mr. Jones' holdings will undoubtedly be very valuable in the near future. —Stella Press.

First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne has issued the following order: "Special delivery mail addressed to bona fide patron of the rural routes will be delivered without regard to the distances from the routes. A bona fide patron of the rural service is one who has properly erected a rural route mailbox which has received the approval of the Postoffice department for use on such routes."

The steamer, W. M. Towle, enroute from Louisville, Ky. to Sioux City, Ia. arrived here Saturday and passed up the river. Some twenty miles above here the river was found to be so low that the boat could not get over the bars or find any channel to pass through, so the captain turned about and came to this city, where the boat was tied up, the crew discharged and will wait for the June rise to enable them to get to their destination. —Nebr. City News.

An editor died and slowly wended his way down to where he supposed a warm reception awaited him. The devil met him and said: "For many years thou hast borne the blame for the bad spelling the printer has got off in the paper. The paper has gone for one dollar, and alas! the dollar has failed to come in. The printer has bedeviled thee for wages when thou hadn't a farthing to thy name. People have taken thy paper without paying for it and cursed thee for not getting out a better sheet. Thou hast been called a deadbeat by the railroad conductors when thou hast shown thy annual pass to their envious gaze. All these things thou hast borne in silence. Thou shalt not enter here." And as the editor turns and walks away, Satan mutters: "Heaven is his home, and besides if I let him in here he would be dunning his delinquent subscribers and thus create discord in my kingdom." —Ex.

COL. MAJORS SURPRISED.

A very pleasant, social evening was spent at the home of Hon. T. J. Majors on Tuesday evening; the occasion being the presentation of a fine roll top desk, a book case and a leather covered couch. These articles were to furnish his private room in his new house and were given by a few personal friends and citizens, in appreciation of his public spirit and personal labor for the up-building of our little village, as well as, the State at large, increased capacity for usefulness of the Nebraska State Normal School located at this place.

Mr. Majors was spirited away in the afternoon and a few men took these articles to his house and set them in place. About 8 o'clock in the evening the company gathered at the store of Mr. D. Jack and then marched in a body to the house of the colonel, arriving about the same time that he returned from the country. They filed in and took possession of the colonels house. After the company had been seated, Rev. Gates made the presentation, saying in substance—When I came to the State of Nebr. to make my home I soon learned of the long residence of our friend in this state and also how closely he had been identified with its developments since its organization as a state having represented the people in both branches of the legislature and also as Lieutenant Governor, presiding over the Senate. Thus being placed in a position to shape many of the policies of the State, among which we deem the location and maintenance of the State Normal School, due in a large measure to your efforts. The whole State has and is now feeling the influence of the noble young men and women who go out from our midst to make better citizens of our boys and girls by giving them better and more thorough instruction. In view of these and other facts we wish to present you with these little tokens of our appreciation of your self-sacrificing, and noble spirit for the advancement of the common good of this community and state at large. Mr. Majors replied in a few feeling remarks in which he minimized his own part and said he had always had a great love for and interest in the grand good state of Nebraska, with which he cast his lot in 1859 and in which he had since resided and that his love for the state should last as long as life with him should last.

The company then broke up into an informal gathering, examined the presents, played games, engaged in conversation and had a general good time, about half past ten refreshments were served by the company after which the merriment continued till a late hour when the company left for their homes, all feeling that a very pleasant evening had been spent. —Peru Pointer.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry Editor of the Enterprise, Shortville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times keep from coughing myself to pieces by taking one teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bade me adieu." For sale by Keeling.
