

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME XLVII

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1903

NUMBER 45

Local News

Still there is plenty of rain.

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Miss Ivy Catlin went to Peru Monday.

We had a soaking rain Wednesday night.

Try the Devoe paint. Sold by J. W. Kerns, Auburn.

Mrs. Ed Littrell returned from Peru Thursday forenoon.

Pure linseed oil 50 cents per gallon at Hill's drug store.

Fine line of Wall Paper just received at Keeling's drug store.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

A high grade barn paint for 65 cents per gallon at Hill's drug store.

I. H. Kuper of Benton precinct gave this office a short call Monday.

Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. are headquarters for screen doors.

Southern strictly pure white lead 6 1/2 cents per pound at Hill's drug store.

For the best paint on the market go to Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mr. Hopson, the restaurant man of Brownville, was in Nemaha Tuesday.

Dan Perdue of Auburn was in Nemaha Tuesday, cleaning out some cisterns.

Mrs. O. E. Houtz went to Verdon Monday evening to visit friends for a few days.

Call on Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. for furniture. A car load just received.

E. L. Paris has fitted up the back room of his store building for an ice cream parlor.

We had some hail with the rain Wednesday afternoon but not enough to do any damage.

The members of the graduating class went to Auburn Monday and had their photographs taken.

Mrs. Rosina Wheeler went to Edgar, Nebr., last Saturday and is visiting friends near that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Rank McMullen of Stella were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crother last Saturday.

F. L. Woodward went to Beatrice and Wymore Wednesday and expected to go to Lincoln Thursday.

Mrs. Margaret Snow of Auburn visited her daughter, Mrs. James M. Burns, from Friday until Monday.

W. V. Steuteville is assisting Gilbert & McCandless in the store. He will clerk for them during the vacation.

John E. Crother has moved into the house he recently bought of Geo. N. Sanders, south of the editor's home.

Thursday night of last week seven more candidates were initiated into the local lodge of the Royal Archites.

Mrs. Henry Carse and Avis went to Thurman, Iowa, Thursday, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McCandless.

Dr. W. W. Keeling went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend a medical convention. He returned home Wednesday evening.

Any farmer having two or three cows can make money by buying a separator from Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

John Vanderslice arrived in Nemaha Wednesday morning from Holtón, Kansas. He will assist his father, J. H. Vanderslice, in the store,

There was an inch and three-quarters of rainfall Thursday afternoon and night. Much corn has been washed out.

Rev. DeForest Austin, pastor of the Christian church about eight miles southeast of Nemaha, gave this office a pleasant call Friday afternoon.

Unintentionally we neglected to mention the fact that David Frazier had had his house repainted. It adds greatly to the good appearance of the home.

John H. Dundas, editor of the Granger, was in Nemaha Wednesday and Thursday, soliciting advertising for the catalogue of the Auburn chautauqua.

Miss Vance V. Fee, teacher of the intermediate department for the past year, left for her home in Red Cloud, Nebr., Sunday morning, driving out to Auburn.

Parties wanting ice will be accommodated on Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday of each week, from 7 to 9 o'clock in the morning.

E. L. PARIS.

W. H. Barker went to St. Joe Saturday evening with his niece, Miss Maud Kethley, who had an operation performed the first of this week for a tumor on eyelid and granulated eyelids. They returned home Wednesday morning.

MAIL BOXES

The Advertiser can furnish a good galvanized steel mail box free with the daily Lincoln News one year for $3 or with the daily State Journal one year for $4. Call at this office and see sample box.

Homer Johnson died at his home in Lincoln Thursday morning of last week. Mr. Johnson was for many years a prominent merchant of Brownville in the early days. He has been a resident of Lincoln for about twenty years. He was the father of F. E. Johnson.

Fay E. Gaither is now the B. & M. night operator at Bridgeport, Cheyenne county, Nebr. Bridgeport is the junction of the Burlington's Alliance-Guernsey and the Bridgeport-Brush extension and the Bridgeport Blade claims it to be "the future metropolis of the North Platte valley."

The annual teachers' examination for 1903 will be held at Auburn June 2 and 3. All those who contemplate teaching in Nemaha county during the coming year are expected to take the examination at this time.

W. C. PARRIOTT, County Superintendent.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson died early Tuesday morning. The little fellow, who was about two years old, was taken sick the first of last week, with pneumonia, and though the best of medical treatment and nursing was given him, it was without avail. The sympathy of the neighborhood and their wide circle of friends is extended to them in their bereavement.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. Dieffenbach, were held at the home at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and the body laid at rest in the Nemaha cemetery.

Car Load of Furniture

Just received by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. Call and see it if you need anything in that line.

$25.00 to Portland, Tacoma, Seattle.

$25.00 to San Francisco and Los Angeles.

$22.50 to Spokane.

$20.00 to Salt Lake City, Butte, and Helena.

Proportionately low rates to hundreds of other points, including Big Horn Basin, Wyo., Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, British Columbia, California, etc.

We Point with Pride TO THE FACT

That we have the largest and most complete line of Drugs and Medicines, Druggists' Sundries, Paints, Oils, etc., etc., ever in Nemaha. Wall Paper, too—we carry a big stock. If you will let us figure on that Paint Bill you will save money.

Respectfully,

M T HILL

We understand Prof. W. V. Steuteville has accepted a position as principal of the school at Gering, Nebraska. He gets $75 per month. Mr. Steuteville has been principal of the Nemaha school for the past three years and has done excellent work. He was offered the school for another year but on account of the increased salary at Gering decided to accept that place.

Will serve ice cream in the rear room of the "New Model Meat Market" on Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday afternoon and evening of each week. You can have a dish of ice cream, a ring of bologna or a hunk dried beef if you want to mix it that way. Come in and see our place—see how we serve you. Yours for square business, E. L. PARIS.

A correspondent from Manila, writing to the Lincoln Journal concerning the colony of Nebraskans in the Philippine islands, speaks of several former Nemaha county people. Mrs. Schell is a sister of D. H. Clark:

"Of those Nebraskans who came on McClellan about one year ago, as far as your correspondent can learn, nearly all are well pleased with the islands and their work. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Schell, from Falls City, are located at Gapan, province of Nueva Ecija, on the island of Luzon. They are said to have a very pleasant station and are meeting with success in the school work. On Christmas day the Schells, Mr. Ozman of Beatrice, Mr. Belknap of Hastings, now of Cuyapo, this island, and your correspondent ate turkey together at the Hotel of the Four Nations in Manila.

"B. J. McGrew of Auburn, Nebr., is located at Lopez, Tayabas province, in Luzon."

Cementico—the best wall finish made—far better than calceimine or alabastine—for sale by Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

Remember, we will take corn, oats, wheat, hay, or wood on subscription at market price.

A New Invention

Minick's Field Corn Husking Machine husks the corn from the stalk, leaving stalks standing in the field. Exclusive state and manufacturer's right for sale by the inventor and patentee. Correspondence solicited. Address 44 H. T. MINICK, Nemaha, Neb.

What Thin Folks Need

Is a greater power of digesting and assimilating food. For them Dr. King's New Life Pills work wonders. They tone and regulate the digestive organs, gently expel all poison from the system, enrich the blood, improve appetite make healthy flesh. Only 25c at Keeling's.

Another large invoice of Hats, Laces, Veilings, Flowers just received by MRS THEO HILL

Chas. Thom, B. & M. agent at Nemaha about twelve years ago, has had a varied career since he left here. A short time ago he was arrested in Oklahoma, charged with being a bigamist, and confined in jail at Guthrie. It is said he has four wives. He now calls himself W. W. Montgomery. Thursday of last week he escaped from the county jail, killing the jailer, Jerry Emmerson, and was badly wounded by the Farmer Boy—Edwin G. Maxwell. Success from Failure—Ellen Shiveley. Woman in Civics—Blanche E. Lytle. Valedictory—Our Country, Debtor and Creditor—Minnie M. Speece.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney, prop.

If you are contemplating a change of location and want land cheap, call at this office. We can interest you.

FOR SALE

A good residence, orchard and 12 acres of land with it, for sale—adjoining the townsite of Nemaha. Call on or write F. G. HAWXBY, South Auburn, Nebr.

Holds Up a Congressman

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all of my organs were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c.—Guaranteed by Keeling.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT OF NEMAHA HIGH SCHOOL

The eleventh annual commencement of the Nemaha high school was held at Hoover's opera house last Friday night. There were seven graduates. The subjects of their orations were as follows: Salutatory—Commencement—Maude E. Kinton. Moral Heroes—Grace Burson. Nebraska's Greatest Resource—Edna Lytle. Education of the Farmer Boy—Edwin G. Maxwell. Success from Failure—Ellen Shiveley. Woman in Civics—Blanche E. Lytle. Valedictory—Our Country, Debtor and Creditor—Minnie M. Speece.

The orations were all well composed, reflecting credit on the authors, and were well delivered. Although the hall was crowded excellent order was kept.

The rest of the program as published was carried out. The address by Miss Mattie Cook Ellis of the state normal school at Peru was fine.

This class has done excellent work during the past year. It is one of the finest classes ever sent out from the Nemaha school.

J. H. Seld is getting a wide reputation as a breeder of Poland China hogs. He shipped a fine one Monday of this week to Briggs Flack of Germantown, California. Mr. Flack is a reader of The Advertiser and saw Mr. Seld's advertisement. That is a long distance to send for a hog but we feel sure Mr. Flack will get a good one. That is the only kind Mr. Seld sends out. Again we would remark that it pays to advertise.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris, prop'r.

Not from any or all hard Spring wheat is Pillsbury's Best Flour made, but from such only as stands the Pillsbury tests.

Just received, a car load of Salt.

Cilbert & McCandless