

State Historical Society

Local News

Still it rains.

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Try the Devos paint. Sold by J. W. Kerns, Auburn.

Pure linseed oil 50 cents per gallon at Hill's drug store.

Fine line of Wall Paper just received at Keeling's drug store.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

A high grade barn paint for 65 cents per gallon at Hill's drug store.

W. T. Hall is acting as B. & M. agent during W. E. Wheelton's absence.

Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. are headquarters for screen doors.

Southern strictly pure white lead 6 1/4 cents per pound at Hill's drug store.

For the best paint on the market go to Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Wm. Smiley has moved into his new house. He has a nice little home.

Walter Curtright has been very sick with typhoid fever. He is now a little better.

Elder Self of Nebraska City will preach at the Christian church next Sunday.

Call on Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. for furniture. A car load just received.

J. H. Littrell has had a new stairway put in on the south side of his brick building.

Rev. M. S. Foutch preached an excellent memorial sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Stroble of Brownville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh last Sunday.

Clarence Peabody, who is on the B. & M. bridge gang, came home last Friday, returning to work Monday.

Miss Nellie Sanders returned home Monday from Auburn, where she had been visiting friends for a week.

Ellis Young has bought a forty acre farm on the Missouri bottom northeast of Nemaha, where he is now living.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bunger, sr., returned to Nemaha Tuesday after a few days' visit with friends at Brownville.

CANE SEED FOR SALE
5,000 pounds at $1.50 per 100 pounds. At farm. N. C. Jarvis, Nemaha, Neb.

Many caves and cellars in Nemaha were flooded by the heavy rains this week—the editor's being among the number.

Any farmer having two or three cows can make money by buying a separator from Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Frank Smith, a Peru normal student, visited Emery Howe from Friday until Monday, when he went to Johnson, where he will work this summer.

W. H. Linn, the dentist, will be at the Park hotel, Nemaha, next Monday, prepared to do all kinds of dental work. Beginning with July he will be here the first Tuesday of each month instead of the first Monday.

W. W. Sanders has been elected lay delegate from the Brownville and Nemaha circuit to the Nebraska annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. O. E. Houck returned from Verden Thursday of last week. Her sister, Miss Ethel Sherwood, came with her and will make her home in Nemaha.

Parties wanting ice will be accommodated on Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday of each week, from 7 to 9 o'clock in the morning.
E. L. PARIS.

John Minick was walking with a crutch Saturday on account of a badly bruised leg. One of his horses got down and as he was helping it up he got kicked.

M. T. Hill had another large glass put in one of his store windows Tuesday to replace the broken one. He has had iron rods put across the windows to protect them.

Charley Colerick, who has been in Oklahoma for some time, visited Nemaha friends several days this week. He is going to work at his trade as a barber in Lincoln.

James A. Stephenson, Rufus Rowen, Marshall Webb and David Brimble went over to the Nishna fishing last week. They caught a good many fish and had a good time.

The recent heavy rains have washed out a lot of dirt underneath one of the approaches to the bridge east of J. W. Webber's farm residence until it is in a very dangerous condition for crossing.

The Rebecka lodge initiated four new members Wednesday night—Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McCandless and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Gilbert. Ice cream and cake were served after the lodge adjourned.

W. W. Sanders, editor of The Advertiser, has been appointed postmaster of Nemaha, in place of Miss Lillian M. Minick, who sent in her resignation about two weeks ago. It will probably be three or four weeks before the change takes place.

Cards are out for the marriage of Elmer E. Allen, cashier of the Bank of Nemaha, and Miss Lillian M. Minick, the present postmistress of Nemaha, which event will take place at the home of the bride's mother Wednesday evening, June 10th.

A new firm has opened business in Nemaha. It is Littrell & Jarvis, whitewashers and general rustlers. Charley Littrell and Claud Jarvis are the members of the firm. They are ready to do whitewashing, clean yards and cellars and anything in this line.

There was an active demand for fish gigs this week. The blacksmiths were kept busy two or three days making gigs, and the hardware merchants sold all the loose rake and hoe handles they had in stock and then took off the rakes and hoes and sold the handles. A good many fish were caught.

Will serve ice cream in the rear room of the "New Model Meat Market" on Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday afternoon and evening of each week. You can have a dish of ice cream, a ring of bologna or a hunk dried beef if you want to mix it that way. Come in and see our place—see how we serve you. Yours for square business,
E. L. PARIS.

Another large invoice of Hats, Laces, Veilings, Flowers
just received by
MRS THEO HILL,

We Point with Pride TO THE FACT

That we have the largest and most complete line of Drugs and Medicines, Druggists' Sundries, Paints, Oils, etc., etc., ever in Nemaha. Wall Paper, too—we carry a big stock. If you will let us figure on that Paint Bill you will save money.

Respectfully,

M T HILL

FOR SALE

A good residence, orchard and 12 acres of land with it, for sale—adjoining the town-site of Nemaha. Call on or write
F. G. HAWKBY,
South Auburn, Nebr.

In response to the call published in The Advertiser, a few persons who are interested in the Nemaha cemetery met at the Methodist church last Saturday afternoon. F. L. Woodward and John I. Dressler were appointed a committee to see about opening a road to the cemetery, and also to see about securing more land. John I. Dressler and W. W. Sanders were elected members of the board of trustees to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Mart May and the resignation of Mrs. Rose Gilbert. The board was reorganized by the election of Seymour Howe president and John I. Dressler secretary and treasurer.

Hon. Church Howe came in from Auburn Wednesday evening and visited Nemaha friends until 11 o'clock the next day. Church is looking well and says he feels ten years younger than he did six years ago. He says he is not a candidate for United States senator or for any other office, as he has positively and finally retired from politics. His position as consul at Sheffield, England, is a very agreeable one and he is enjoying life. He expects to start east next Monday, where he will visit for a month, leaving for England July 1st.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Not from any or all hard Spring wheat is Pillsbury's Best Flour
made, but from such only as stands
the Pillsbury tests.

Just received, a car load of Salt.

Gilbert & McCandless