Robert M. Crichton and Miss Sadie Scott both of Auburn, were married at the home of the bride's father, M. Scott, at high noon Wednesday of last week by Rev. S. W. Pringle. The groom is a son of Prof. Crichton and has many friends in Nemaha. He has for some time held a responsible position with the Carson National bank.

A very pretty lawn wedding occurred at the beautiful farm home of Casner Barnes and wife, southeast of this city, last Wednesday evening, when their eldest daughter, Miss Katie Barnes, was united in marriage to Dr. Wm. H. Linn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. W. Pringle of the Presbyterian church.

Promptly at eight o'clock the wedding march was played by Miss Clara Brock, who presided at the organ. The ribbon young ladies passed out of the house in the following order: Lydia Barnes and Leta Linn, Mabel Majors and Mabel Bridges, Bertie Conner and Bessie Anderson, Julia McIninch and Nina Skeen. Between the aisle formed by the lines of ribbon came the bride party, Miss Mattie Barnes and the best man, Mr. Carl Cartney of DeWeese, Nebr., followed by the bride and groom, who took their places in front of a tastefully arranged bank of flowers and evergreens. In a short, impressive ceremony Rev. Pringle pronounced the words that united the lives of the young couple.

About 130 invited guests, relatives and friends of the contracting parties, were present. After congratulations lunch was served.

The Easy Pill

Dewitt's Little Early Risers do not gripe nor weaken the system. They cure biliousness, jaundice, constipation, and inactive liver, by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach, liver and bowels that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely. These famous little pills exert a decided tonic effect upon the organs involved and if their use is continued for a few days there will be no return of the trouble.—W. W. Keeling.
