

MEN AND AFFAIRS.

Alfred Harmsworth, of the London Daily Mail; William Hill, of the Westminster Gazette, and Maurice Ernst, of the Vienna Tageblatt, are announced as editors of a new international encyclopedia of journalism, to be published in London and in the English language, but to deal with the history of the newspaper in all days and its present development. Biographical sketches of famous journalists are to be included.

Chain Tin Sin, of San Francisco, who returned to China with his family, was one of San Francisco's interesting characters. He landed before the days of the exclusion act, a big raw-boned cooly. He leaves now with his white wife and half caste boy, with $1,000,000 in American gold and securities. He has been a miner, cook, gambler and merchant, and was successful in everything he undertook.

"I have seen a good many men in my time," says Justin McCarthy. "I have been acquainted with Gladstone and with Cardinal Newman; I can recall to memory the presence of Emperor Nicholas of Russia, and I knew Charles Sumner, and have seen and heard M. Berryer, and the late prince consort. But no picture has impressed me more than that of Pope Leo XIII. I always think of him as one of those figures which must have been often seen in the days when saints walked the earth."

The following incident furnishes one of the reasons why the men in the employ of Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph company, swear by him: Mr. Mackay was coming down in an elevator of the Postal building in New York the other day and noticed the operator perspiring in his heavy gray uniform. "Why don't you wear a lighter coat?" he asked. "I haven't any," was the answer, "and they wouldn't let me wear it if I had." That afternoon Mr. Mackay issued an order. The elevator men in summer were to wear black alpaca coats and the coats were to be provided by the company.

Prince Victor Naekachidze, the Russian anarchist, who with his wife has been expelled from France, was compromised in the great nihilist conspiracy of 1887 in Russia and was condemned to death. This sentence was commuted to imprisonment in Siberia, but aided by his fiancée, who followed him, he escaped and sought refuge in Paris. He has been in trouble with the French police several times because of his connection with anarchist plots. The prince is a man of great refinement and education and belongs to one of the most illustrious families in Russia. His wife, by birth a baroness, is a very clever woman, holding a diploma as a physician.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haule, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in my back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. MAY HAULE, Edgerton, Wis., President Household Economics Club. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Women should remember there is one tried and true remedy for all female ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Refuse to buy any other medicine, you need the best.

No Free Advice.

"I'm afraid my hay fever is coming on," said Kloseman, trying to get some medical advice free of charge. "Every once in a while I feel itching in my nose and then I sneeze. What would you do in a case like that doctor?"

"I feel pretty sure," replied Dr. Sharpe, "that I would sneeze, too."—Philadelphia Press.

Good Woman—Why, no, sir. I heard the horn and thought it was the fish peddler.—Philadelphia Record.

What Was It?

Frairpoint, Miss., Aug. 3rd.—One of the strangest cases ever reported occurred here recently. The son of Mr. G. L. Butler was very ill. The doctor said he had some disease of the spinal cord, and treated him for two months, but he grew worse all the time, and finally the doctor told Mr. Butler that he did not know what was the trouble.

The boy would wake up in the night and say that he was dying. He would be nervous and trembling and want to run out of the house, saying he saw ugly things which frightened him.

His father was very much discouraged till one day he saw a new remedy called Dodd's Kidney Pills advertised, and he at once bought some and began to give them to his boy.

He used altogether eight boxes before he was entirely cured. He has not been troubled since. Mr. Butler says:

"I feel it my duty to tell what Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for my boy. All this remedy needs is a fair chance and it will speak for itself."

SUCH A MISUNDERSTANDING!

The Man Who "Rubbed" Was Not Familiar with Talk of the Railway.

"When I saw that she was almost beyond my control," said the railway engineer, "I threw her over—"

"Brute!" ejaculated a gentleman wearing eye glasses and graying whiskers, who was unintentionally straining his ears to overhear the conversation, relates Judge.

"It didn't do any good," continued the engineer, "so I shut her off; but still she was jumping pretty hard and sliding around—"

"Infamous!" said the graying-whiskered man.

"Sliding around; so I give her air—"

"Ah, then you have some little instinct of kindness," growled the incensed listener.

"But it wasn't any use, and so I jumped and got away just when she began to smash things."

"And I don't blame her one bit!" asserted the man with the eye glasses and the graying beard. "It's a pity she didn't smash you, so you couldn't come here and boast of your cruelty. I am not surprised at the number of divorces nowadays."

much pain in my back; as time went on I could hardly endure it; I could not stand except for a few moments at a time; I grew weak and exhausted; I could not even do light housework; I could not stoop or bend; my head ached severely; I was in pain from my head down to my heels; entering in the kidneys it was a heavy, steady, sickening ache; I could not rest nights, and got up mornings weak and tired.
