Rural Route No. 2.

Postmaster Sanders received notice last Friday that the postoffice department had ordered a second rural free delivery route established at Nemaha to commence Tuesday, Sept. 15, 1903. The route runs southeast, going to the county line and taking in St. Deroin and Aspinwall. The postoffices at these places will be discontinued. The following is the route as established:

Beginning at the postoffice in Nemaha, running south to the southwest corner of section 30 (the southwest corner of N. B. Catlin's farm), a distance of 4 1/4 miles, thence east one mile to the McCandless school house thence north one mile, thence east one mile, thence south one-half mile thence east one mile, thence south one-half mile thence east one mile, thence southeast in a zig zag course one and one-half miles to the county line, thence northeast along main traveled road to St. Deroin, two and one-half miles, thence northwesterly, following the main traveled road, passing Aspinwall to Nemaha postoffice, a distance of nine miles. Length of route, 23 1/2 miles.

The Chautauqua will begin at Auburn on Saturday evening with a comic debate on the money question, the debaters being Charles Hayne, Julius Gilbert, Wymer Dressler and E. Marcellus. This entertainment will be free to all.

At eleven o'clock on Sunday the Sabbath school will be conducted by Superintendent Thomas of the Baptist church of this city, and all Sunday school scholars and teachers will be admitted free by applying to the manager and securing tickets.

At two o'clock Rev. W. Dieffenbach will preach and conduct union services. At four o'clock Mrs. Venice Bigelow Jackson of Chicago will give an appropriate program for the occasion, consisting of recitations and singing, and in the evening, after a half hour of band concert, Rev. Burton of Des Moines will deliver his celebrated lecture "In the Corridors of Antiquity."

The program for Monday will be carried out as given in the catalogs, and besides the music prepared for the occasion, the Slayton Colored Quartet that is the leading attraction in that line at the several assemblies of the state, will appear and remain for three days.

The circular swing will be run free for children from twelve to two each week day.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kedol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by W. W. Keeling.

Reveals a Great Secret

It is often asked how such startling cures, that puzzle the best physicians are effected by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Here's the secret.
