FRIDAY, SEPT. 11, 1903.

Ed Tucker says he has not sold out his business at Howe but is still in the ring.

Eddie Yackley returned home Sunday after a few days' visit with relatives at Kansas City, Mo.

The Auburn Post on its letter heads claims to be the only republican paper in the county, yet Stowell and the Post are fighting Babcock and Reavis.

John H. Kearnes has bought a half interest in the Auburn Herald. Bro. Kearnes is an accomplished newspaper man and will make the Herald better than ever. He is a rustler and a good writer.

Paul Jessen of Nebraska City, who was renominated for district judge of the Second judicial district, was endorsed by the democrats at their convention this week. His record as a judge is a fine one, and the democrats recognize his ability.

Mrs. Brooks of Pawnee county, Oklahoma, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earle Gilbert. She arrived in Nemaha Saturday from Douglas, Nebr., where she had been to bury her mother. Coy Rives, who has been visiting at Douglas, came here with her.

We had the pleasure on Tuesday of meeting an old friend Ed Wert, for several years a merchant of Auburn in the early days of that town. Ed was married Thursday of last week to Mrs. Alice A. Converse of Omaha. They will make their home at St. Louis.

Tom Daugherty, who has claimed to be a socialist, announces that he is a candidate for the nomination for county assessor on the democratic ticket. Has Tom changed his politics, or does he think the democratic party is socialist, or what? Rise up and explain, Tom.

Auburn republicans have a candidate for every office in the gift of the people in this county this fall except commissioner in the third district, and this officer has to come from the three west precincts or they would be after that. However, they will undertake to dictate the nomination for that office.

J. W. Wheeler, an old and highly respected citizen living near Shubert, died in Wyoming last Friday. Madge Wheeler, as he was usually called, was an old soldier, and was a member of the regiment that captured Jeff Davis, receiving part of the reward paid by the government for the capture. He was buried Monday at Shubert.

A Lesson in Health

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system.—M T Hill.

Just About Bedtime

take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membrane of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by W. W. Keeling.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry Editor of the Enterprise, Shortville N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times keep from coughing myself to pieces by taking one teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bademe adieu."
