Spring Ailments

There is an aching and tired feeling, the liver, bowels, and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite no ambition for anything and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is, that during the winter, there has been an over accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure the secretions a right exit, and give strength in place of weakness. $6c at Hill's.

Why Pay More?

Southern White Lead six and one-fourth cents per pound.

Pure Linseed Oil, raw 45c per gallon, boiled 50c per gallon.

Crescent Cottage Mixed Paint guaranteed strictly pure and to cover 300 square feet, two coats, to the gallon. $1.50 per gallon. Try it.

Very respectfully,
M. T. HILL

Dr. Alf Crane of Brownville, who was in the city Tuesday, reported that word had been received at Brownville that Harvey McGee, an old settler of Brownville and a partner in the firm of McGee & Moore, merchants of old Calvert, had died at his home in Oberlin, Kans.—Auburn Post.

After a rest of seven years, the famous race horse Pat L., owned by Joe Lash, is again on the race track. On Saturday night he was shipped to St. Joe, where he will go against some speedy animals in the harness races. May the game old hero show up in his old-time form. Is the wish of all his admirers.—Auburn Herald.

W. M. Crichton is a member of the county bar, well versed in law, and in every way well fitted to fill the office of county judge. He has a judicial mind, and will not only try cases that come before him justly, but will see that the widow and orphans receive justice. No mistake will be made in electing Mr. Crichton county judge.

Geo. D. Carrington jr., the republican candidate for county superintendent, was born in Brownville and raised and educated in Nemaha county. He graduated from the Auburn high school in 1897, from the Fremont Normal, teachers' course, in 1900, and from the State Normal school at Peru in 1903. Mr. Carrington won the gold medal in oratorical contest in 1898, and the diamond medal in 1900. He has taught school for six years, and was principal of the Dorchester school in 1902, and is at present principal of the Athens school at South Auburn. Mr. Carrington is a life-long republican. His father, who was at early resident of Brownville, is an old soldier and also a life-long republican. Mr. Carrington will make a model county superintendent.

You never heard any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied.—M T Hill.

In the Interest of Humanity.

Chris Miller of Fremont Nebr. writes: "I suffered from dyspepsia for more than 10 years. I was under the care of a number of doctors, made three trips away, and still no relief. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure being recommended to me by several who had used it, and as the last straw, I concluded to try it. After the first two or three doses I began to improve and have taken several bottles and feel like a new man. I write you this in the interest of humanity, hoping it may fall into the hands of some sufferer, and my prayer is that they may secure the same benefit that I have." Sold by W. W. Keeling.

Republican Meeting

The candidates on the republican county ticket and other speakers will hold a meeting at the Champion school house on Friday night, October 9th. Good music will be furnished. Every body is invited.

James Clement Ambrose delivered his lecture on "The Fool in Politics" at the opera house Thursday night. The lecture was fine and was greatly enjoyed by those present. This is the first of the course of lectures to be given here this winter. We hope the attendance will be larger at the next one. We can heartily recommend Mr. Ambrose to those wishing to hear an able lecture in attractive form.

The republican primaries were held at The Advertiser office Saturday afternoon. The following delegates were elected: G. N. Titus, W. W. Sanders, F. L. Woodward, F. A. Hacker, Chas. Howe, W. S. Russell, and James A. Stephenson.

For supervisors, C. L. Russell was nominated for district 32, R. T. Devorss for district 33, and W. T. Russell for district 34.

Seymour Howe and W. S. Russell were recommended for judges and W. W. Sanders for clerk of election.

The democrats held their caucus in Dr. Keeling's office Thursday afternoon, and elected the following delegates to the county convention: Frank C. Jones, E. H. Knapp, A. V. Faron, sr., W. F. Keeling, J. H. Bungler, sr., R. C. Bucher, M. W. M. Swan, J. D. Drumm, C. H. Stanley.

The populists met in the room over the drug store and elected as delegates: R. I. Smith, Ray Anderson, C. W. Roberts, Wm. Moore, Ed Moore, and Wm. Hawxy.

The following precinct ticket was nominated:

R. I. Smith and N. B. Scrivener, justices of the peace.
E. H. Knapp and Ray Anderson, constables.

Frank C. Jones supervisor road district No. 32; C. W. Roberts, district 33; Floyd Anderson, district 34.

M. W. Knapp was recommended for judge of election and Wm. Moore for clerk.

A Lesson in Health

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system.—M T Hill.

Better Than a Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side and chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular, and rheumatic pains. For sale by W. W. Keeling, Druggist.

Call and see us for reduced rates on magazines and newspapers.

Holds Up a Congressman

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all of my organs were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over-worked run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c.—Guaranteed by Keeling.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

One Minute cough cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute cough cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of coughs, colds, and croup. One Minute cough cure is pleasant to take, harmless and good alike for young and old.—W. W. Keeling.

Traveling is Dangerous

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. Effhausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble until I used Foley's Kidney Cure.—M T Hill.
