Dr. Kay came in the postoffice shivering after the election and said he felt like he had been snowed under. As the doctor was the democratic candidate for county coroner, the feeling was very natural.

The members of the W. O. W. are hereby notified that Rev. G. H. Schleh of Omaha will deliver a lecture at the Masonic hall next Wednesday night. All members are requested to be present. C. P. SCOVILL, Sec'y.

If any one undertakes to get up a neway paper a few days after election they will appreciate the difficulties of the task that has confronted all editors of local papers this week. Nobody talks of anything but politics and by the time the paper is out all know all there is to be told about the result of election and how it happened and don't care about reading about it.

Lucian Edgar Follensbee gave a fine lecture at the opera house last Friday night. His subject was "Tom and Mary" and was not only entertaining but very instructive. There was enough humor to make the lecture pleasing to all but he did not fail to make a point with all his humorous sayings. Those present without a single exception were delighted with the evening's entertainment and hope Prof. Follensbee will be with us next season.

Died—At her home in Humboldt, Neb., at 10 o'clock a. m. Nov. 1, 1903, of puerperal fever, Mrs. Mary L. Morris, wife of Lloyd R. Morris. Mrs. Morris was born in Nemaha county Sept. 22, 1860, and lived here until her marriage. She was the daughter of John and Letitia Strain. She leaves a husband, mother and six children to mourn the loss of a loving mother, wife and daughter.

The funeral services were held at the M. E. church in Nemaha at 11 o'clock Tuesday, the sermon being preached by Rev. M. S. Futch. The body was laid to rest in the Nemaha cemetery.

Traveling is Dangerous
Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure. —M T Hill.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days
For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets. —Holley Bros. Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by W. W. Keeling.
