JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 4 BROWNVILLE, NEBR.

Another car load of flour from the Aurora mills just unloaded at the Paris building—the flour that pleases everybody in quality and price. Bran, shorts, chop feed, Graham and corn meal always on hand. Crother, the harness man, will wait on you.
 E. L. PARIS.

The rural carriers request their patrons to buy stamps so they can put them on letters when possible, as it is considerable trouble in cold weather for the carriers to do this. The carriers always carry a supply of stamps, stamped envelopes, postal cards, etc., with them.

D. T. Smiley had a good 4-foot side-walk laid in front of his property this week.

The meetings at the Methodist church will probably close Sunday night.

Tom Crummel of Auburn, the bridge contractor, gave us a call Wednesday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Elza Washburn, Friday, December 11, 1903, a fine son.

It is thought the bridge south of town will be ready for crossing tomorrow.

Miss Mae Phillips, the evangelist, held a meeting for men only Monday night, at the Methodist church. It was well attended.

Mrs. J. B. Hoover, who has been quite sick, was feeling well enough to go to Brownville Wednesday, to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Rainey.

Henry Lund has bought a lot south of the Methodist church and will begin the erection of a dwelling house at once. He has a good location.
