Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed.—For sale by W. W. Keeling.

Justin E. Long has rented the Wm. Andersoh farm north of the Champion school house, and will move thereon about the first of March. Eugene Kerst, who has been on this farm, will move on Marshall Webb's farm.

Seymour Howe's condition remains about the same, there being little change. He is very weak and on account of the condition of his stomach is able to take but very little nourishment. His leg is healing slowly.

V. P. Peabody says if the Nemaha citizens would put in the time spent in arguing the sidewalk question in hard work, enough could be earned to build sidewalks all over town. And he finds no one to dispute this assertion.
