Clarence Peabody, who is brakeman for the B. & M., with headquarters at Table Rock, came to Nemaha Saturday and visited until Monday evening.

SEE US BLUSH

W. W. Sanders, the handsome editor of the Nemaha Advertiser was in Auburn Friday rustivating around.—Granger.

M. T. Hill and family, with the exception of Theodore, drove to Stella last Saturday evening and visited Mrs. Hill's mother, Mrs. Noe, until Sunday afternoon.

Rev. J. W. Sapp began a protracted meeting at the Christian church Sunday night. The church is well filled every night. Services begin at 7 o'clock and close about 8.

J. I. Dressler, of Nemaha, the treasurer of the Farmer's Mutual Insurance Company, was in the city Saturday and made his financial report to the company.—Auburn Post.

THOUGHT HE NEEDED THEM

J. R. Cain, cashier of the bank at Stella, received thirty-nine pairs of socks as Christmas presents from admiring friends.—Granger.

Earle Gilbert has moved into the property he recently bought of J. B. Hoover. He had the house thoroughly repaired, new windows put in, and made many other changes. He has a fine home.

Fritz Wilkening, who is to take H. M. Tollinger's place as manager of Edwards & Bradford Co's lumber, hardware and furniture business at Nemaha, came down from Nebraska City Monday.

The latest from Cerdell, Oklahoma, gives but little reason to expect the recovery of Dr. Opperman. His trouble is pronounced cancer of the stomach and it is thought that he can not last long.—Auburn Granger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Deros, who have been visiting in Nemaha for two or three weeks, started for their home in Avery, Iowa, Tuesday. Mrs. Deros is a daughter of Grandpa Prall and a sister of Mrs. W. W. Seid.

Another car load of flour from the Aurora mills just unloaded at the Paris building—the flour that pleases everybody in quality and price. Bran, shorts, chop feed, Graham and corn meal always on hand. Crother, the harness man, will wait on you.
E. L. PARIS

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His d.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed.—For sale by W. W. Keeling.

R. I. Brown has been awarded the contract as manager of the poor farm. He is to receive $550 and the use of the farm. There were several bids but the commissioners considered Mr. Brown's offer the lowest and best.

Mrs. C. B. Colerick of Friend, Neb., arrived in Nemaha Saturday and will visit awhile with her mother-in-law Mrs. D. M. Colerick, and other relatives. Her health is quite poor and it is hoped her visit here will benefit her.

The Odd Fellows are making arrangements for a supper and a big time at their hall Saturday night of the week, and have invited the Rebekahs to be present and see how they do things.

W. S. Maxwell, carrier on free delivery route No. 2, only made a third of the trip Tuesday. One horse got sick after he got started on his round and he had to stop at N. B. Catlin's and doctor it. He got back to Nemaha after 4 o'clock.

Henry Keeger, living near St. Deroin, a few days ago brought to Nemaha a large golden eagle that had been killed in that section. The bird measured 7 feet 3 inches from tip to tip of his wings and was a fine specimen. It was sent to Peru to be mounted.

H. M. Tollinger, manager of the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co., will leave Nemaha on January 19, 1904, and he requests all parties in debt to call and fix their accounts before he leaves.
Yours truly,
H. M. TOLLINGER.

ESTRAY NOTICE

Came to my place Sunday, January 10, 1904, a red heifer calf with white spot in forehead, weighing about 400 pounds. Owner can have same by paying charges for keeping and advertising the same.
W. W. SEID.

T. J. Rumbaugh, mail carrier on route No. 1, has been on the sick list for over two weeks, with grip. Sam Littrell, the substitute, has been carrying the mail. Mr. Rumbaugh is getting better and thinks he will be all right in a few days.

J. J. Alexander was in the country south of town Tuesday, going on foot, and coming back his feet got so heavily laden with gumbo that he had to stop and unload. He was a little fearful that the pile of dirt left would frighten horses, but could not do any better.

Mrs. John W. Hawxby, who has been critically ill for two or three weeks, is some better. A trained nurse from Lincoln took care of her for awhile, but Mrs. Hawxby was feeling well enough a few days ago to dispense with the nurse's care. It is hoped she will continue to improve.

Roy Brown died Wednesday night, Jan. 13, 1904, at the home of Mrs. Susan I. Shively, in Nemaha, Neb., aged 17 years, 1 month and 20 days. Roy has been a great sufferer for a long time from consumption. He has made his home for several years with his great aunt, Mrs. Shively, his parents being dead. The funeral services were held at the Christian church at 10 o'clock a. m. Friday, Rev. J. W. Sapp preaching the sermon. The body was taken to Prairie Union for burial.

A Lesson in Health

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system.—M T Hill.
