

Local News

Geo. Sanders is on the sick list. See M T Hill for fire insurance.

The early cherry crop is now about ripe.

We had quite a hard rain Tuesday night.

Clyde Hill is visiting relatives at Stella this week.

Now is the time to buy millinery. See Vanderslice's ad.

A fine line of silverware suitable for wedding presents at Keeling's.

One nearly new Deere riding lister for sale. Enquire of E. L. Paris.

W. W. Seid received two car loads of coal for his threshing machines Wednesday.

Thos. H. Jones of near Howe was in Nemaha Tuesday and gave this office a call.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

Hear the twin duetists make the "lions roar" at the opera house next Monday evening.

Dr. F. E. Gaither came down from Omaha Saturday morning to spend a few days at home.

Misses Nora Aynes and May Kerker visited friends in Brownville from Saturday till Monday.

E. E. Rumbaugh has had his barber shop repapered and repainted, which is quite an improvement.

Miss Grace Gipson will sing a solo at the children's day exercises at the Methodist church Sunday night.

W. W. Seid received a new Huber eighteen horse power engine and separator Friday night of last week.

Miss Blanch Williams drove up from Shubert Thursday evening to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Jas. A. Titus.

Be sure and hear Miss Birdie O'Miller, the talented elocutionist and impersonator, next Monday night.

Elmer Brimble came down from Lincoln Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Shiveley came in from DeWitt Thursday.

G. N. Sanders and wife of London precinct visited in Nemaha Sunday.

Miss Clara Laura of Verdon visited the family of O. E. Houtz Monday.

Jimmy Jones of Bedford precinct was visiting Nemaha friends Thursday.

Carl E. Sanders is attending the teachers' meeting at Auburn this week.

J. L. Carson of Auburn was the guest of F. L. Woodward Monday night.

John Knapp was given the third degree of Odd Fellowship Saturday night.

Mrs. D. A. Morton has been very sick for several days but is now some better.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sedoras of Brownville were visiting Nemaha friends Sunday.

Mrs. Seymour Howe went to Auburn Tuesday to visit friends, returning the next day.

Chas. A. Smiley of Shubert visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Smiley, last Sunday.

Miss Florence Minick went to Nebraska City Tuesday to take elocution lessons for a time.

Miss Jessie Steuterville of Brownville made her regular visit to Nemaha Tuesday to give music lessons.

Dr. W. W. Keeling went to St. Louis Monday to attend a medical association and the world's fair.

Miss Helen Hoover, who has been visiting at Lincoln for the past six weeks, returned to Nemaha Monday.

Marshall Webb, who has been working for the Auburn Gold Mining Co. near Mystic, South Dakota, returned to Nemaha Monday evening. Chas. Anderson and Joe Littrell are still at the mines.

Just added a good supply of the celebrated

JAP-A-LAC

This is the new Furniture Rejuvenator and Floor Paint

All Sizes and Colors

AT

Hill's Drug Store

N. B.—Don't forget we write Insurance

Mrs. J. D. Rainey of South Auburn is in Nemaha this week, helping take care of J. B. Hoover.

Miss Mabel Starn will delight you with her beautiful mezzo soprano voice at the opera house next Monday night.

Mid Tidrow of Yates Center, Kas., is visiting his sisters, Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Mrs. George Yackley, this week.

F. L. Woodward started for Denver Thursday to look after some business matters. He expects to be gone about a week.

Mrs. M. C. Scott and Roy started for Belle Plaine, Iowa, Thursday afternoon, where they expect to spend the summer.

John Steuterville, who has been teaching at Belle Fourche, South Dakota, returned to his home at Brownville last week.

John M. Evans, cashier of the Shubert bank, and R. Reasoner, B. & M. agent at Shubert, were Nemaha visitors Sunday.

Walter Owens, who spent the winter with his son-in-law, W. F. Keeling, started for Billings, Mont., Monday morning.

Mrs. Edna M. Allen of Fairbury, Nebr., returned home Monday, after a visit of two or three weeks with Mrs. Earle Gilbert.

W. W. Sanders is agent for several good reliable insurance companies mutual and old line. Call on him for fire insurance.

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin Thursday evening, and the young folks present had a fine time.

The children's day exercises of the M. E. Sunday school will be given next Sunday evening. A good program is being prepared.

Harry Hoover went to Willis, Kas., Monday, where in company with Dick Chambers he bought a lot of cattle and shipped them to Kansas City.

Misses Blanche and Edna Lytle, who have been visiting Nemaha friends for two weeks, went to Shubert Wednesday evening to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kindig of Madera, California, arrived in Nemaha Wednesday and is visiting his son, C. H. Kindig, at the home of V. P. Peabody.

Those desiring lessons in voice culture please call on Mrs. Earle Gilbert for prices, dates, etc.

GRACE GIPSON.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kelso of Boyd county, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha Wednesday and are visiting P. G. Swan and family. Mrs. Kelso is a sister of Mr. Swan.

I have 100 acres of good pasture and will take cattle or horses at $1 per month.

F. L. COLLIN.
3 miles south of Nemaha.

FOR SALE: My residence property in Nemaha. Will sell at a bargain if sold at once.

MRS. THEO. HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hawxby returned from Lincoln Saturday, where they had been attending the commencement exercises of the State University.

Jeff Broady came down from Lincoln a few days ago and will endeavor to create an appetite and strengthen his muscles by hard work on the farm this summer.

Mrs. E. L. Culver and two children of South Omaha arrived in Nemaha Saturday for several weeks' visit with Mrs. Culver's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling.

John M. Evans, the Shubert banker, came up from Shubert on the freight early Thursday morning, and after visiting a few hours took the passenger train for Auburn.

Miss Nellie Sanders gave a party at her home Tuesday in honor of Misses Blanche and Edna Lytle. Twenty-two were present and a delightful evening was spent.

The Quartet Entertainers will appear at Hoover's opera house next Monday evening. This will be a rare treat, out of the ordinary, and you should not fail to hear them.

Mrs. Malvina Skeen of Eskridge, Kas., arrived here a few days ago and is visiting her son and daughter, Ben T. Skeen and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, and old friends in this vicinity.

The Champion Sunday school gave one of their delightful socials at their schoolhouse Saturday night of last week. A large crowd was present. The receipts were about $15.

W. W. Sanders and Walter S. Maxwell went to Lincoln Monday afternoon to attend the meeting of the postmasters' association. They returned home Wednesday night.

Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover, who has been visiting in St. Louis for several weeks, and Miss Marie Hoover, who has been in New York City for several months, returned to Nemaha Friday forenoon.

By order of the old settlers association the log cabin in the park will be sold at public auction at 3 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, June 18. The purchaser must remove building from the park.

M. W. Knapp took an immense load of trunks belonging to a traveling man to Auburn Tuesday night. There were ten of them, the smallest of which was a large trunk. Their total weight was 2200 pounds.

Hon. Norris Brown, one of the best and most eloquent speakers in the state, will be one of the orators at the old settlers picnic August 25. Mr. Brown is deputy attorney general and the republican nominee for attorney general.

Wm. Rossell is the first one we have seen this season with home grown new potatoes. He presented us with a big mess Monday forenoon. They were of good size, considerably larger than a hen egg. Uncle Billy is hard to beat as a gardener.

M. H. Taylor of Shubert, who had been attending the meeting of the postmasters' association at Lincoln, came in on the freight from the west about one o'clock Thursday morning, and tarried with Nemaha friends the remainder of the night.

A Thoughtful Man

M M Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr King's New Life pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Keeling's drug store.

J. B. Hoover was taken sick suddenly last Saturday while in the store alone. He became almost entirely helpless. A customer came in shortly and getting assistance, Mr. Hoover was carried home. He is feeling some better but is very weak and has little use of his limbs. It is hoped he will soon be better.

S. W. Maynard, senior member of Maynard Bros. of the Brock mills, paid this office a pleasant call Tuesday. He reported everything in Brock to be flourishing, especially the mills.

Dr. W. W. Keeling,
Nemaha, Nebraska.
Office in Keeling drug store.

DR. G. M. ANDREWS
Medical and Surgical Diseases of Women
Stella - - - Nebraska

C. O. SNOW
Auctioneer
Fifteen years experience.
Terms and dates at The Advertiser office.

PETER KERKER.
Dealer in MEATS
Highest market price paid for Hides, Lard, Tallow, etc.

KNAPP & SON
Proprietors of the Livery & Feed Stable
NEMAHA, NEBR.
Good Dray in connection with Livery Satisfaction guaranteed.

LEE A. LAWSON
UNDERTAKER

Wind Mills and Pumps
Tin Roofing and Guttering
Your Patronage Solicited
NEMAHA, NEBR.

J. E. Crother
—in the—
PARIS BUILDING
Shoe Repairing!
Harness Repairing

Hand Made Harness a Specialty
WESLEY H. CLARK
Dealer in
Windmills and Pumps,
Tanks, Pipes, etc.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED
Phone calls answered promptly.
Phone No 26
NEMAHA, NEBR.

Grand Special

Sale of

MILLINERY

Desiring to move out all Millinery now on hands before getting in fall stock, we will make prices that will cause persons desiring anything in this line to buy.

The Cost Cuts No Figure

in this sale. We are willing to sacrifice values to sell the goods.

We have about 100 Hats for ladies, misses and children—all good spring and summer styles.

Saturday, June 25

will be special sale day to close out everything on hand at that time. But do not wait for that day. Come in while there is a good selection to choose from.

J. H. VANDERSLICE
