A Short Party.

Church—Did you see my sister at the fair?
Gotham—Yes, I did.
"Had her fiance with her, did she not?"
"Well, there was a young man with her."
"A short party?"
"Well, yes; he looked as if he hadn't a dime to his name."—Yonkers Statesman.

A Sordid Nature.

"Don't you want to deserve the gratitude of your fellow citizens?"
"The trouble with gratitude," said Senator Sorghum, "is that it is usually expressed by the words 'thank you,' unaccompanied by cash."—Washington Star.

Not a Plausible Reason.

"Why did Tourem have the motive power of his auto changed from steam to electricity?"
"I dunno, unless it's because currents are cheaper than gasoline."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

May Have Seen Him.

Justice—Have I ever seen you before?
Offender—Can't say, yer honor. Shouldn't wonder, though, I've been in pretty hard company in my life.—Boston Transcript.

Love's Young Dream.

Old Gentleman—What? Marry that young pauper? Why, he can't even afford to buy coal.

Daughter—But he won't have to buy coal, pa. We're going to board.—New York Weekly.

Not a Hopeless Case.

Him—Miss Elderleigh is certainly a very odd girl.
Her—Yes; but leap year is only half gone, so she still has a chance to get even.

To Be Depended Upon.

"One thing I like about our new man," said a member of the firm to his partner, "is that he's reliable. You can always tell what he is going to do next."

"And what is that?"
"Nothing."—Tit-Bits.

More Efficacious.

Customer—Haven't you got in any of Parker's Purple Pellets yet?
Country Druggist—Yes; just came to-day.

Customer—Ah! I've been asking for them every day for a week back.

Country Druggist—For a week back? Better try a porous plaster.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Sure.

The Electric Fan—If her father came down what would you do?
The Electric Light—Light out.

If It Was Good.

"What did Columbus do that pleased the king?" asked the kindergarten teacher.

"He stood an egg on end," replied the smart boy.

"And what did he do then?"
The smart boy thought a moment and then responded: "He ate the egg."

Downtrodden Man.

Rodrick—So the car was full of ladies. Was there much standing?
Van Albert—I should say so. Some of the ladies were standing on their dignity and the rest were standing on my feet.

Only Style She Knew.

"Madge isn't writing poetry any more."
"Why not, dear?"

"Oh, the editor said he didn't like her style, Madge thought he meant her dress, and said she'd never speak to the horrid man again."

Much Cheaper.

The old Kansas farmer rode up to the lawyer's office and dismounted.

"How much do you charge for giving a divorce?" he drawled, shaking the dust from his boots.

"Guess I can fix you out for a hundred," replied the brisk attorney.

"Too much, neighbor. I'm going home."

"What are you going to do about the divorce?"
"Oh, I'll let a cyclone blow Betsy away. It's much cheaper."

THOUGHT SHE WOULD DIE.

Mrs. S. W. Marine, of Colorado Springs, Began to Fear the Worst—Doan's Kidney Pills Saved Her.

Mrs. Sarah Marine, of 428 St. Urain street, Colorado Springs, Colo., writes:

"I suffered for three years with severe backache. The doctors told me my kidneys were affected, and prescribed medicines for me, but I found that it was only a waste of time and money to take them, and began to fear that I would never get well. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. Within a week after I began using them I was so much better that I decided to keep up the treatment, and when I had used a little over two boxes I was entirely well. I have now enjoyed the best of health for more than four months, and words can but poorly express my gratitude."

HER MOTHER'S PROGNOSTICATIONS

He—"Why does your mother insist on your having an elaborate church wedding?"

She—"She says its the last chance I'll ever have to show off in good clothes."

HERIDITY

Binks—Speaking of heridity, do you remember Forrester who bought some wild land and turned it into a farm.

Winks—"Yes; he was the inventor of a very effective stump puller."

Binks—"Just so. Well, his son is a very successful dentist."

Civilization has done something for the heathen after all, for they cook their missionaries now instead of eating them raw.

Gratitude is a debt, but it is only a debt of honor; it ought to be collected by law, the same as commercial debts are.

CAN DRINK TROUBLE

That's One Way to Get It.

Although they won't admit it many people who suffer from sick headaches and other ailments get them straight from the coffee they drink and it is easily proved if they're not afraid to leave it to a test as in the case of a lady in Connellsville.

"I had been a sufferer from sick headaches for twenty-five years and any one who has ever had a bad sick headache knows what I suffered. Sometimes three days in the week I would have to remain in bed, at other times I couldn't lie down the pain would be so great. My life was a torture, and if I went away from home for a day I always came back more dead than alive."

"One day I was telling a woman my troubles and she told me she knew that it was probably coffee caused it. She said she had been cured by stopping coffee and using Postum Food Coffee and urged me to try this food drink."

"That's how I came to send out and get some Postum and from that time I've never been without it, for it suits my taste and has entirely cured all of my old troubles. All I did was to leave off the coffee and tea and drink well made Postum in its place. This change has done me more good than everything else put together."

"Our house was like a drug store, for my husband bought everything he heard of to help me without doing any good, but when I began on the Postum my headaches ceased and the other troubles quickly disappeared. I have a friend who had an experience just like mine and Postum cured her just as it did me."

"Postum not only cured the headaches but my general health has been improved and I am much stronger than before. I now enjoy delicious Postum more than I ever did coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
"There's a reason" and it's worth finding out.

WHAT ROME THINKS

THE POPE'S PHYSICIAN ENDORSES AN AMERICAN REMEDY.

Dr. Lapponi Uses Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in His Practice Because Results Meet His Expectations.

Dr. Lapponi, the famous physician to the Vatican, whose name has recently come so greatly to the front on account of his unremitting attention to His Holiness, the late Pope Leo XIII, and the high esteem and confidence with which he is regarded by the present Pope, His Holiness Pius X, is a man of commanding genius. He is more than a mere man of science; he is a man of original and independent mind. Untrammelled by the "etiquette" of the medical profession and having used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in his practice with good results, he freely avows the facts and endorses the value of this remedy with an authority which no one will venture to question.

Dr. Lapponi's Letter.

"I certify that I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in four cases of the simple anemia of development. After a few weeks of treatment, the result came fully up to my expectations. For that reason I shall not fail in the future to extend the use of this laudable preparation not only in the treatment of other forms of the category of anemia or chlorosis, but also in cases of neurasthenia and the like."
(Signed) GIUSEPPE LAPPONI,
Via dei Gracchi 332, Rome.

The "simple anemia of development," referred to by Dr. Lapponi, is of course, that tired, languid condition of young girls, whose development to womanhood is tardy and whose health, at that period, is so often imperiled. His opinion of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People at that time is of the highest scientific authority, and it confirms the many published cases in which anemia and other diseases of the blood, as well as nervous diseases such as nervous prostration, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis and locomotor ataxia have been cured by these pills. They are commended to the public for their efficiency in making new blood and strengthening weak nerves. After such an endorsement they will be accepted by the medical and scientific world at their full value.

FEMALE GRUMBLERS

* Women who are constantly prating of their trials and troubles imagine that their acquaintances are interested in their tribulations. The reverse is the case for the grumblers soon become nuisances. They never win confidence, for their discontent breeds distrust and doubt, and however clever they may naturally be, an obtrusive self with its train of likings and dislikings, obscures their judgment, and they have false views of people and things. For this reason it is almost a hopeless effort to show them how they have thought about themselves so long and so much that they cannot conceive of any other subject so interesting to the rest of the world.

The letter of Miss Merkle, whose picture is printed above, proves beyond question that thousands of cases of inflammation of the ovaries and womb are annually cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Gradual loss of strength and nerve force told me something was radically wrong with me. I had severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said that I had ovarian trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation. I strongly objected to this and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon found that my judgment was correct, and that all the good things said about this medicine were true, and day by day I felt less pain and increased appetite. The ulceration soon healed, and the other complications disappeared, and in eleven weeks I was once more strong and vigorous and perfectly well."

"My heartiest thanks are sent to you for the great good you have done me."—Sincerely yours, MISS MARGARET MERKLEY, 275 Third St., Milwaukee, Wis.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Wild Grape Jelly.

Strip the fruit from the stem, wash and put in a pan or jar set in a larger vessel of hot water. Cook until the grapes are broken; then strain. Measure the juice, and for every pint allow a pound of sugar in shallow pans in the oven, where it will heat but not turn yellow. Cook the juice twenty minutes, skimming all impurities from it; add the sugar; stir until dissolved, remove the spoon, cook a moment or two longer until the liquid jellies when dropped on a cold plate; pour into jelly glasses and cover when cold.

Corn Soup.

Three cupfuls of finely grated corn, one quart of water, one quart of rich milk, the yolks of two eggs, one teaspoonful each of salt and sugar, one-half teaspoonful of pepper, one table-spoonful each of butter and flour. Boil the cobs in the water one-half hour. Strain and pour over the corn, cook twelve minutes, add the milk, the seasoning and the flour and butter well rubbed together, cook for three minutes longer, watching well that it does not burn. Now remove the saucepan from the stove and add the egg yolk, well beaten.

Loaf Devil's Food.

Half a cup of grated chocolate, a gill of milk, a half cup of brown sugar. Boil these together until as thick as cream and let them cool. Mix well together a cup of brown sugar, a half cup of butter, two beaten eggs, two-thirds of a cup of milk and vanilla flavoring. Into this beat the boiled mixture and add two cups of flour that have been well sifted with a heaping teaspoonful of baking powder. Bake in a loaf tin. Cover with a chocolate icing.

Chocolate Pudding.

This makes another delightful variation. Mix half a cupful of sugar with six ounces of grated chocolate. Pour over this one cupful of boiling water and stir over the boiling teakettle until thick and smooth. Then let it get cold. Flavor with vanilla. Stir this into three cupfuls of cold boiled custard, and chill on ice. Serve with rich stewed strawberries or with whipped cream.

Sweet Potatoes.

After sweet potatoes have been par-boiled and sliced lengthwise they should be sprinkled lightly with white pepper, given a dash of salt and placed in the oven for a few moments. Then they are to have a dressing of egg and bread crumbs poured over them and put below the flame of a gas range, where they can broil. Mince parsley is to be strewn over them just before they are sent to the table.

Beach Butter.

Into three quarts of cider slice enough peeled peaches to thicken it and boil steadily until the fruit is reduced to a pulp. While cooking stir frequently. Take from the fire, set aside until cold, return to the fire and stew for an hour longer or until brown and thick. Pack down in a stone crock.

Baked Bananas.

Add one-half cupful of maple sirup to one cupful of boiling water, also a table-spoonful of cornstarch blended with a little milk. Add the juice of a lemon and boil thick. Butter a baking dish and slice five bananas in it; pour over the sauce, cover the top with buttered bread crumbs and bake until brown. Serve immediately.

Potatoes Baked in Cream.

Boil the potatoes, and when cold cut them in very small pieces. Put them in a sauce pan over the fire, moisten well with cream, add pepper and salt to taste, and when hot turn into a baking dish. Have the dish full, level it off, sprinkle bits of butter and some grated cheese over the top and brown in a hot oven.

Corn Omelet.

Beat four eggs well, add four table-spoonfuls of cream and cook in a buttered frying pan until set. Before folding sprinkle with salt and pepper and spread with grated corn from four boiled ears. The corn should be slightly heated before spreading on the omelet. Fold and serve at once.

Popcorn Pudding.

Pop some corn nicely, then roll it as fine as you can. One pint of the corn to one quart of sweet milk; add a small piece of butter, one teaspoonful of salt, beat two eggs with enough sugar to sweeten the milk; mix all together. Bake twenty minutes.

Whipped Cream Frosting.

Whip a plate of cream very stiff, adding to it enough powdered sugar to sweeten to taste. When stiff enough to stand alone spread quickly and lightly on the cake and serve at once.
