The newspapers in Auburn are not living in that peace and harmony that should prevail among the "moulders of public opinion." The Granger and Herald, that have for years been laboring together in the interest of "reform," are now talking very unpretty about each other. A few years ago the editor of the Herald supported the editor of the Granger for state senator, and in return the Granger man legged for the Herald man and got him a good fat job. Since then they have fallen out and now tell how mean each always knew the other fellow was. And the people evidently believe both now. Then the Republican and the Herald are scrapping with each other. On the whole, brotherly love seems to have been switched off a little. Better kiss and make up, brethren. Let peace and harmony prevail.

AUBURN, Neb., Oct. 31st, 1904.

During the past three years that I have held the office of Clerk of the District Court Charles O. French has been in active practice at the bar of this court. I have always found him prompt and attentive to business; his pleading and papers filed are models of neatness, excellently worded, terse and to the point without unnecessary words, erasures and interlineations, and showing deliberation and thought in his cases filed, I regard him as one of the brightest law students that the law department of the State University ever sent to this county. He is making a mark at the bar which will in a short time put him in the front rank of the profession.

It is with pleasure and confidence that I recommend him to the voters of the county who take a natural pride in cheering the young men of Nemaha county to success knowing as I do that if he is elected to the office he will not disappoint those who put him there, and that he will make as good a prosecuting attorney as the county ever had.

SCHOOL NOTES

"What shall it profit a child if he gain the whole world of knowledge and lose his own health, or what shall he give in exchange for health?"—Hall.

The use of alcohol is not the only course of intemperance in our land to day. Consider tobacco, candy and chewing gum. Is not the use of these in excess, intemperance? Yes and how many are intemperate in sleep, in eating and are undermining their health by so doing. The word has a broader meaning than is commonly given to it.

The Reading Circle convened last Saturday evening at the school house. The evening was spent in discussing current topics. The topic receiving especial attention was Parties and Party Platforms. Taken all in all it was one of the most interesting meetings we have had.

Another month is gone. Can we look back upon it and feel that it has been well spent? Of course we are not entirely satisfied. We look forward to the month to come as holding within it opportunities for greater improvement than has yet been made. Let us upward and onward.

The total number enrolled to date is 149. The average daily attendance in the primary department for Oct. was 49 out of an enrollment of 54, in the intermediate department, 34 out of an enrollment of 41 and in the high school 43 out of an enrollment of 47. The total number of tardy marks was 49. There were twenty-one pupils in the high school that were neither tardy nor absent.

The Reading Circle will meet at Dr. Gaither's Friday evening Nov. 11. Chapters six, seven and eight of Sabin's Common Sense Didactics will be reviewed by Miss Paris and chapters nine, ten and eleven by Clifford Hendricks. Besides the above a review of the first ten pages in Crabtree's Word Book will be made also discussions of topics of interest to teachers present. Each teacher will be expected to give two quotations from the lists given in Sabin's book.

Nemaha is to have a lecture course. Does it mean anything to you? Does it mean anything to be able to listen to some of the best talent of our land? We hear the cry going up about the boys and girls leaving home and going to the city. Why do they go? Almost invariably because they are tired of the dull dry life of the farm and the small town. Why not give them the entertainment which they seek in the cities, at home and keep them with you away from the snares of the city? You can do it by supporting something like this lecture course and continuing to support it at every opportunity. Do you think it will be worth your while?

Now is the time political prophets get in their work. In Mondays dailies is a statement from the secretary of the democratic national central committee, in which he predicts the overwhelming election of Judge Parker. He says: "All the doubtful states, so-called, will be in the democratic column and many of the states called purely republican are now in the doubtful column. We will carry New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Maryland, West Virginia, Idaho, Colorado, Utah and Nevada. Illinois is doubtful. Ohio is even doubtful."

On the same day the dailies contained the result of a non-partisan poll made by the New York Herald, which supports Parker. This poll gives Roosevelt 257 votes sure; probably republican 57. Surely democratic, 159 (the solid south); probably democratic 3—Nevada. New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Idaho and Utah are placed in the sure republican column. The probable republican states are Colorado, Delaware, Montana, New York and West Virginia. Thus do prophets differ.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney Troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Keeling, druggist.

Robbed the Grave

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to take Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed at Keeling's drug store.

PARKER'S FAVORITE POEM

(Alton B. Parker is very fond of the poetry of James Whitcomb Riley.—Current Note.)

Uncle David Bennett Hill's at Parker's house to stay,
To help him fix his fences an' to tell him what to say;
David says: "Be keeful, now you are a candidate,
Or else they'll git the best of you—that's jest as sure as fate;
Now don't send any telegrams, creatin' further doubt,
Or Roosevelt 'll beat you,
if you don't watch out!

"Wunst they was a candidate 'at thought he had a chance,
If he'd tell the people what he knew about finance;
Went about th' country with a holler an' a whoop—
When the votes were counted he was underneath the soup,
Stick to what I tell you, or you'll amble up the spout,
Fer Roosevelt 'll beat you,
if you don't watch out!

"Wunst I wore a feather plume; 'I am a Democrat,'
Till a cyclone from th' west jest blew away my hat—
When they ast me what I was, I answered cool an' ca'm,
With another feather plume which read: 'I Guess I Am.'
Bet your life that David knows jest what he is about—
An' Roosevelt 'll beat you,
if you don't watch out!

"Best be putty keeful how you talk about th' trusts—
If you want to roast one, better wait until it busts.
An' th' money question—don't have very much to say
As to plutocrats—remember Henry Gasse!
Stick right to a whisper, don't you never are to shout,
Or Roosevelt 'll beat you,
if you don't watch out!

"Have your picture taken—but be keeful what you wear—
Put on all th' overalls an' look like 'country fair';
Take your little plunge into the Hudson every day,
Keep below the water when you've anything to say,
Mind your Uncle David—his suggestions never flout—
Fer Roosevelt 'll beat you,
if you DON'T WATCH OUT!"

THE REAL QUESTION

On the day of the issue of President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance—the day of the Maine election, by the way—the press reports noted a long visit to Judge Parker by David Bennett Hill.

It is probable, if not certain, that the two friends who "have drunk from the same canteen" throughout more than one campaign, discussed, thoroughly, one immortal saying of their well-beloved Thomas Jefferson, namely:

"IF A DUE PARTICIPATION OF OFFICE IS A MATTER OR RIGHT, HOW ARE VACANCIES TO BE FILLED? THOSE BY DEATH OR FEW; BY RESIGNATION, NONE!"
This is, indeed, for the Democrats, "a hard saying."

Imperialism of Steel.

When the great iron and steel industry of the United States thrives, other American industries thrive. The Democratic party could not legislate to destroy the protection to the iron and steel industry without legislating to destroy the prosperity of the United States. The millions of additional profit and wages that have come to the iron and steel industry under Republican rule would have been earned, if at all, by foreign nations, had Democratic policies prevailed during the last eight years. The gigantic rise of this industry during the last eight years added enormously to the wealth of the United States, and every branch of American industry and agriculture has been stimulated by it. "Prosperity at home and prestige abroad" has indeed been intimately connected with the increasing imperialism of steel, which once was Pauper but now is King.

The auspicious and momentous fact is that never before in the history of the world has comfort been enjoyed, education acquired and independence secured by so large a proportion of the total population of the world in the United States of America that has occurred under protection.

Here is a veritable Roosevelt family: E. R. Conley, a farmer who lives at Westfield, Ill., has six sons, six grandsons and three sons-in-law. All, including Mr. Conley himself, will vote for Roosevelt in November.

TAKE WINE OF CARDUI AT HOME

Are you a sufferer? Has your doctor been unsuccessful? Wouldn't you prefer to treat yourself—AT HOME?

Nearly 1,500,000 women have bought Wine of Cardui from their druggists and have cured themselves at home, of such troubles as periodical, bearing down and ovarian pains, leucorrhoea, barrenness, nervousness, dizziness, nausea and despondency, caused by female weakness. These are not easy cases. Wine of Cardui cures when the doctor can't.

Wine of Cardui does not irritate the organs. There is no pain in the treatment. It is a soothing tonic of healing herbs, free from strong and drastic drugs. It is successful because it cures in a natural way.

Wine of Cardui can be bought from your druggist at $1.00 a bottle and you can begin this treatment today. Will you try it?

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
