E. E. Moore has sold his 53 acre farm northwest of town to James Penney for $80 per acre.

Miss Emma Burns was taken to the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha Tuesday. Dr. Gaither went with her.

Mark shipped a car of cattle to St. Joe Monday evening. Wm. Snelling went through with them.

Misses May Kerker and Nellie Sanders were the guests of Miss Maggie Hacker Saturday night and Sunday.

W. W. Sanders went to Auburn Saturday to attend the county Sunday school convention, returning Monday.

John W. Thomas, agent for the Tinsley Rescue Christian Home of Omaha, was calling on our citizens Wednesday.

Mrs. Chilton, the monologist, is one of the finest entertainers on the platform to day. Her readings are inspiring.

W. L. Vanderslice, who has been visiting his brother, J. H. Vanderslice, went to Watson, Mo., Tuesday to visit relatives.

Mrs. R. I. Brown on Saturday brought in a basket of fine Virginia Beauty apples—one of the very best eating apples grown.

The farmers have commenced their donations to our rural carriers again. T. J. Rumbaugh was presented with a mess of spare ribs Wednesday.

For Sale.—Five hundred good burr oak posts. Also stove wood by the rick.

F. L. WOODWARD.

Prof. Hendricks read a fine paper at the Sunday school convention at Auburn last Sunday, on the "Qualifications of a Sunday School Superintendent."

We have some of the abstracts of the official vote of this county, printed on cardboard, that our subscribers can have by calling at the postoffice or printing office.

Clifford N. Catlin is now assistant chemist for the Pittsburg Reducing Co. at St. Louis, Mo. This is a large firm engaged in the reducing of aluminum and other products.

Mrs. A. F. Walsh and Miss Helen Hoover went to Lincoln Wednesday, where they expect to spend most of the winter. Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover expects to follow in a few days.

C. P. Scovill came up from Hiawatha, Kansas, two or three weeks ago and is gathering corn for Jim Shiveley. He expects to return to Hiawatha as soon as corn gathering is over.

J. M. Burns got a bad fall Thursday, while doing carpenter work for Earle Gilbert. He struck on his side and is very lame its effects.

T. J. Majors is spoken of as candidate for congress to succeed E. J. Burkett when the latter is elected United States senator. Mr. Majors would make an excellent congressman.

Rev. D. M. Sayles of Bethany, Nebr., is holding a protracted meeting at the Christian church. He is assisted by Rev. J. W. Sapp. The audiences are large and are steadily growing.

Prof. Hendricks, Carl E. Sanders, Miss Stella Washburn, Miss Grace Paris and several other teachers from this vicinity attended the teacher's convention at Johnson last Saturday.

The Sunday school convention at Auburn Saturday and Sunday was very interesting and helpful to all Sunday school workers, and those who could not be present missed a rare treat.

THANKSGIVING DAY RATES
One and a half fare for the round trip Nov. 23 and 24th, limited Nov. 28th, 1904.
W. E. WISELTON, Agent.

Thanksgiving this year comes on November 24—next Thursday—and arrangements have been made for union services at the Christian church. Rev. D. M. Sayles will preach at 11 o'clock.

In order to accommodate persons who want to attend church services and also the entertainment at the opera house next Tuesday night, services at the Christian church will begin that night at 7 o'clock.

A. E. Camblin will take a vacation for two weeks, and the business of the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. will be looked after by Earle Steuterville of Brownville. Earle came down from Brownville Thursday evening.

Pure Buff Orpington chickens, old and young, for sale at right prices. Stock scored by Hawes, Pedrick and Green and nothing below 92 points. Write the Gazette Spickard, Mo

Some of the fusion papers are considerably alarmed apparently for fear Burkett will not be elected United States senator. They need not worry. He will be elected on the first ballot. The people are for him and will see that he is elected.

Prof. Hendricks is a strenuous worker. He went to Johnson Saturday, attended a teacher's meeting, then to Brock and visited friends over night went to Auburn the next day and took part in a Sunday school convention, and then walked to Nemaha.

The next legislature should be a business session. Orators should vent their oratory in some other way and get down to business. Expenses should be reduced wherever possible. We hope the republicans will make a record for economy in this session.

M. T. Hill has moved in the house his mother recently bought, south of the Edwards & Bradford lumber yard. An addition has been built on, the house repainted inside and out, newly papered, cave and barn built, and is now one of the neatest homes in town.

Rev. D. M. Saylor, who is now holding a protracted meeting in Nemaha, has been preaching at Shubert for the past year. One of the subjects he has announced to preach at Nemaha during the meetings is called "Seven Miles to Perdition." Rather rough on the Shubertites, but probably Rev. Saylor knows what he is talking about.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Some of the opponents of the new revenue law made the assertion during the campaign that farm land had decreased in value from $10 to $25 per acre on account of that law. It doesn't look like it by recent sales here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bennett, Carl and Elma of Belle Plaine, Iowa, arrived in Nemaha last Friday on a visit to old friends. Dan is now foreman of a pile driving gang and is doing well. This is his first visit to Nemaha for eight years and he finds the town greatly improved.

The first number of the lecture course will be given next Tuesday night, when Mrs. William Calvin Chilton, monologist, will give an entertainment at the opera house. Mrs. Chilton is a talented reader and we are sure all who attend will be well entertained. Admission, 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

Mrs. H. A. Lambert of Auburn died in Falls City Tuesday. Mrs. Lambert has been suffering from consumption for some time. During the summer she took an overland trip in the western part of the state in hopes of benefitting her health, and for some time has been at Falls City under the care of a specialist, but without avail. She leaves a husband and three small children to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother.

The boys of Nemaha are a good hearted set of fellows. They are full of fun, but have big hearts that respond when touched in the right way. This week some of the boys found out that Mrs. Weddel had a load of wood that needed sawing, so they got their saws and axes and went to work by moonlight, and in two nights without neglecting others duties, they sawed and split the whole load of wood. We admire the spirit of helpfulness and willingness shown by the boys.

While at Auburn Saturday, Sunday and Monday we had the pleasure of visiting the homes of E. D. Rogers, Wm. H. McIninch, C. Shuck and John Bath. Mr. Shuck, who has been very sick for some time, is some better and is able to be up part of the time. Mr. McIninch has been living in his beautiful home in the western part of Auburn for a year. Mr. Bath, who bought property of A. H. Gilmore, has been to considerable expense in fitting it up to suit him. He has put in a furnace, water works, etc. He has a fine home, but says he would prefer to be on the farm where he has spent so many years.

We received the following letter from John Dorrham, Tuesday:
NECK, MO., Nov. 13, 1904.
Hello, Bill.
Hurrah for Missouri!
Hurrah for Missouri!
Hurrah for Missouri!!
Taint no lie.
Say, Bill, I would tell you what a democrat looked like down here but I can't find one since election, so you will have to guess at it. Republicans all feel as fine as a big bass fiddle. We made them dance to the tune of 2 1/2 to 1 in Hells Neck. We captured every thing in Jasper county.
JOHN DORRHAM.
Hurrah for Teddy.

On the 6th day of November, 1904, Mr. Verne R. Taylor and Miss Gussie Henderson, both of Shubert, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the Rev. P. B. Ruch officiating.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Taylor, a young business man of promise. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Henderson, and a most charming young woman. Still in the bloom of early manhood and womanhood, they have vowed to share the joys and sorrows of life together in the closest relationship ever instituted by the word of God or civilized society. We, with a host of friends wish for them all the unalloyed bliss possible in their new relations.—Shubert Citizen.

A LETTER FROM LEON SHUBERT

By permission of Mrs. H. W. Shubert we are permitted to publish the following fine descriptive letter written by Leon Shubert on his trip to California, with his bride, on their honeymoon.

Nov. 4, 1904.

Dear Father, Mother and folks at home:

For several days I have been looking for a few minutes time to write when the spirit was moving me. At present the train not only moves me but also moves my pencil so please excuse flourishes. We are about three hours ride from Grand Junction, on the main line of D. R. G. having come into that place on the narrow gauge from Salda over, "Marshall pass" being 10,820 feet altitude or over 72 miles down through the Black Canon. The latter place is a marvel of nature's handwork, you remember the "Royal Gorge" and the "Canon of the Eagle River" and after passing through these the "Royal gorge" twice, the last time with a very instructive and attentive porter.

I will say that the Black Canon appeared to me more than any bit of scenery I have had the pleasure of seeing. Even so with "The Garden of the Gods," "The Cave of the Winds" "Niagara Falls" or the caverns of the same name near Manitou. For about fifteen miles the narrow gauge (track being 36 in. between rails) squirms its way from sides to center of the "Black Canyon," like a worm afflicted with cramps trying to find its way out of a crowded theater.

More significant in this temple of grandeur is the "Gunnison River" with its deepest of sea green color, matchless in this comparison and changeable as—as a woman. At times smiling and deep and as quiet as a perfect summer day, breathing sunshine. Then note the change, a slight ruffle passes over the surface. The sunshine has disappeared behind a frowning cliff. The tiny ruffles become angry wrinkles, then comes the "scene" that leaves an impression even upon a stone. Gloom prevails and bewilderment predominates. There is no escape on either side. The rocky points of nature are now quite visible. The spray, or tears whichever the case may be forms the rainbow through which we at last see the smiling surface below basking again in sunshine and contentment. And yet by far the greatest comparison.

After seeing and understanding, both the river and women, I am certain that the impressions they leave on earth in beauty and sublimity is without other comparison.

"Excuse me while I shed a tear," I feel queer.

As ever, L. W. SHUBERT
After this burst of enthusiasm Leon has fainted and the train physician says he must not write any more.
M. M. B. SHUBERT, Private Sec.

Night was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me, and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Keeling's drug store.

Subscribe for your papers at this office.

Next Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 20 and 21, will be held the first quarterly meeting of the Methodist churches at Nemaha and Brownville. It will be held at Brownville. Rev. Geo. I. Wright, presiding elder, is expected to be present.

J. H. Bunker, sr., went to Auburn Monday and had a slight surgical operation performed. For some time a small tumor has been troubling him in the lower lid of the right eye. Dr. Dillon cut it out and also took out a small ca-arract that was forming.

Col. Bryan made a "whirlwind" campaign in Indiana and "brought the Bryan democrats into line for Parker." And yet Indiana went 60,000 for Roosevelt. Col. Bryan put forth special efforts in Nebraska in behalf of the legislative ticket and the fusionists elected only ten out of 133.

No Pity Show.

"For years fate was after me continually," writes F. A. Gullledge, Verbena, Ala. "I had a terrible case of Piles, causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. Equally good for burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at Keeling's drug store.

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by Keeling's drug store.
