Neal Piersol, a former resident of Nemaha but who has been on the Pacific coast for two or three years, returned to Nemaha last week. Neal looks like the coast agreed with him.

Rural Carrier Rumbaugh got some spareribs as a present from Gus Stafford last week and on Tuesday of this week got a present of some spareribs and sausage from F. A. Hacker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ambrose Howe arrived in Nemaha Tuesday. They have been in Oklahoma for several months, but have found no place like Nemaha, and so have returned to their first love.

A. Camblin has built a small house on one of F. L. Woodward's lots southeast of the Methodist church, in which to store his household goods when he goes to Wyoming. He expects to leave in a short time.

Rev. E. S. Chamberlain preached at the Christain church last Sunday, morning and evening. His many Nemaha friends were glad to hear him again. He preached here for some time several years ago.

F. L. Woodward bought a gramophone or graphophone or phonograph or some other kind of a talking machine but the most valuable musical instrument and the one he prizes the most highly is his daughter, Marie.

Wm. Quackenbush of Beatrice, a brother of Attorney E. B. Quackenbush of Auburn, was accidentally shot by a companion and instantly killed while out hunting near Beatrice last Sunday. The funeral was held Wednesday.

T. L. Fisher and his father-in-law, C. W. Pick, received their household goods the latter part of last week, and have been busy unloading and getting ready for housekeeping and farming. Mr. Pick comes from Gage county.

Two of the men who were appointed deputy assessors by E. J. Maxwell have died suddenly since their appointment—F. H. D. Hunt, who was found dead in the road near his home, and D. H. Clark, who was accidentally killed last week.

O. J. Thorp started for western Colorado Tuesday morning, to look at some of the cheap land that is coming into market. He thinks of trying to get some of the land that will be in the irrigated region when they get the ditches opened.

Mrs. Elmer E. Allen has concluded there must be money in the chicken business, so she has had a coop and yard built and will raise her own chickens and have fresh eggs from her own poultry yards this summer—if chicken cholera doesn't interfere.

W. W. Liebhart recently received a fine white Plymouth Rock cockerel—one that took first premium at the Sarpy county poultry show last December. The cockerel scores 94 ½ points. Mr. Liebhart bought him of Miss Anna McCormick, daughter of the county clerk of Sarpy county. He will mate him with some exceedingly fine pullets and expects to get some show birds as a result. He has some fine stock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Steuteville drove down from Brownville Thursday and visited their son, Earle Steuteville for a short time.

Some of our gardeners have already planted radishes, lettuce, peas, and other early garden stuff. They want to be the first on the market with garden truck.

The Japs and Russians have had another big battle near Mukden, and as usual the Russians are in retreat. The loss of life was great. It is probable that Mukden will be evacuated.

Strawberries are on sale in the Omaha market at only 90 cents a quart. We are not very fond of strawberries anyway—especially at that price. We are willing to wait a little while longer and get them for nothing out of our own garden.

Mrs. Ware of Robinson, Kansas, and Mrs. Hubbard of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Nemaha last Saturday called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Weddel. Mrs. Ware returned home Monday but Mrs. Hubbard expects to remain for awhile.

John B. Stotts has been appointed deputy assessor for St. Deroin precinct and his appointment has been confirmed by the board of county commissioners. The appointment of C. P. Barker as deputy assessor for Nemaha precinct has also been confirmed by the commissioners.

One thing that does not worry Nemaha much at the elections each spring is the saloon question. We have not had a saloon here for over fifteen years, and very few people want one. The majority against the saloon in Nemaha is overwhelming. Even men who take a drink occasionally do not want a saloon in town.

John Lambert is having the roof of the house on the old Nicholls farm raised, making it a full story and a half, and is also having an addition built. This is the house where D. G. Keister lived. The Collin family, who have the place rented, are living in the Devors house until the other house is completed.

Dr. H. S. Gaither has been appointed county physician for Nemaha county, his bid being considered the lowest and best by the board of county commissioners. He has also been appointed a member of the county board of health being the physician for that body. His duties as county physician cover the whole county.

The Auburn Herald took up the greater part of the editorial page last week in telling how foolish it was for the Republican to devote so much space in finding fault with the Herald. Both papers had better let up on personalities and devote the space to telling of the good qualities of the citizens and in giving the news.

At the meeting of the village board of trustees, held Wednesday night arrangements were made for the village election, which will be held on Tuesday, April 4, at the Advertiser office. N. B. Scrivener, I. N. Cooper and J. M. Burns were appointed judges and W. W. Sanders and Wm. G. Maxwell clerks of election.

The Nemaha County Holiness association will hold their next session in Nemaha next Tuesday night and Wednesday, March 14 and 15. We have not seen the program but understand an interesting one has been prepared. Everybody is invited to attend. Rev. J. E. Houlgate of Peru, Rev. G. M. Jones of Brock, Rev. C. L. Meyers of Auburn, and Rev. Eugene B. Maxcy of Johnson will be present, in addition to Rev. G. W. Ayers of Brownville and Nemaha. The first service will be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. On Wednesday services will be held at 10 a. m. and 2 and 7:30 p. m. The Nemaha county association is a branch of the state association. The meetings will be held at the Methodist church.

We will send the Advertiser, the weekly Lincoln State Journal, the Iowa Homestead, the Farm Gazette and the Homemaker, all one year for only $1.50. The regular price of these papers is $3.25.

BOARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends and to Victory lodge No. 195, I. O. O. F. who so kindly assisted us during the death and burial of our beloved husband, son and brother, D. H. Clark. Also to the choir for the beautiful hymns and to Rebekah lodge for the beautiful floral design. May you, one and all find such friends in time of trouble.

MAUD E. CLARK.
MARY E. CLARK AND FAMILY.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

Whereas, God in his divine providence has seen fit to remove from among us our brother, D. H. Clark, therefore be it

Resolved: That we, members of Victory lodge, No. 195, I. O. O. F., do extend our heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing wife and children in their hour of bereavement.

Resolved: That the lodge room be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be tendered the mourning family, that a copy be furnished The Advertiser for publication, and that a copy be spread on the minutes of this lodge.
