Rev. G. W. Ayers will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. There will be no services in the evening.
Last Friday evening quite a little snow fell here. It looked a little odd to see snow and green leaves on the trees at the same time. But in 1903 we had a snowstorm on April 29.
The Masons have started a move toward putting up a good two-story brick building on the corner north of Vanderalice's store. A committee has been appointed, the members are taking hold with enthusiasm, and it has all the appearance of being a success.
We must earnestly request of all who are indebted to us to make arrangements to settle their accounts, as we need the money to settle up our business. Our business relations with all of our patrons have been very pleasant and we trust we may be able to do more in the future.
Respectfully,
GILBERT & McCANDLESS.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sperry of Aspinwall precinct on Tuesday evening, April 18, 1905, a fine ten pound boy.

Auditor Ballentyne of the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co., came to Nemaha Tuesday evening and is doing some work in the store.

Remember, we will take your subscription for any newspaper published anywhere in the United States and can usually save you money.

We learn that there is prospect of a wedding of two of our young people in the near future. Hope we will get an invitation to the wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Andrews drove over from Stella Sunday and visited friends for a few hours. Mrs. B. Bell-Andrews returned with them.

J. W. Beard of Falls City, Nebr., was in Nemaha Wednesday and Thursday in the interest of the Ross P. Curtice Music Co. of Lincoln.

It has been very cold for the past week, ice freezing on standing water almost every night. It is feared early fruit has been injured by the cold.

Peter Kerker informs us that he expects to build a brick building for a meat market some time in the not distant future. Why not build at once?

Miss May Kerker is now deputy postmaster. She is also one of the angels in the Advertiser office, so has enough to look after to keep her out of mischief.

Remember that W. W. Sanders writes insurance. He is agent for several first class companies, both mutual and old line. His rates are as low as any. Give him a call.

Remember there will be preaching at the Methodist church Sunday morning but none in the evening. There will be Easter services at the Christian church Sunday evening.

Ed Littrell made arrangements this week to go to Nebraska City to work in a barber shop, but has changed his mind and will remain in Nemaha. See his advertisement in this paper.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Miss Ethel Morrison went to Auburn last Saturday and visited friends until Monday. They attended the dedication services of the new Methodist church.

The wind storm Thursday forenoon blew over a chicken house, hog shed and other things of that nature for Will Swan, on the Fisher farm north of Nemaha. No serious damage was inflicted that we have heard of.

Miss Lizzie Lewark, who has been visiting in Illinois for several months returned home Wednesday. Her sister, Mrs. Libbie Paul, came home with her and will visit their sister, Mrs. S. T. Argabright, for awhile.

C. M. Chamberlain, who has been wanted at Tecumseh for some time on account of the wrecking of the Chamberlain bank, has given himself up and is now in the custody of the sheriff at Tecumseh. He says he got tired of wandering around.

The stock of merchandise of Edw. E. Lowman at Brownville is now in the hands of a receiver. Mr. Lowman has turned the stock over to his creditors and will permanently retire from the business, so he says. He is now postmaster at Brownville.

Mrs. J. L. Curtright went to Syracuse Wednesday. Mr. Curtright has been there for some little time, or near there, doing some work on foundations. They will live with Walter Curtright this summer, and Burl Curtright will live in their house in Nemaha.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney prop.

Dr. H. S. Gaither went to Omaha Thursday to consult a physician and see Fay. His health is not improving. He expects to go to Colorado about the first of next month and remain some time in hopes the change of climate will help him.

We are requested by the children of the late Williams Burns to return thanks to the friends and neighbors for their kindness and care in helping care for their aged father in his last sickness, and for the many expressions of sympathy. Their kindness will be remembered with grateful hearts.

The Nebraska Farmer is one of the very best farm papers published and has the advantage for our readers of being published right here at home. It has been greatly improved recently and the improvements will continue right along. Special rates of 50 cents a year are now offered. We take subscriptions.

T. H. Gillan and Geo. E. Dye have opened up a music store in South Auburn. It ought to be a success as both members of the firm are not only good musicians but good fellows in general, and will deal justly with their customers. George's host of friends in this neighborhood will be pleased to have him succeed beyond his expectations.

We had the pleasure of attending services at the new Methodist church at Auburn last Sunday morning. The church is a fine one, costing $12,500, including lights, piano, etc. They raised near $3,000 Sunday and dedicated the church out of debt. The Methodists and the people of Auburn in general have reason for being proud of this handsome edifice.

A bazaar and social will be given Saturday night in Hoover's store building, first door south of Keeling's drug store, by the ladies of the Christian church, to which all are invited to attend. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served to which all donations will be thankfully received either for refreshments or bazaar. Don't forget the place and date.

A number of years ago W. G. Maxwell promised his two sons that he would get them a good watch when they were twenty-one if they would not use tobacco in any form until they arrived at that age. Both boys have kept their promise so far. Alva will be of age May 9, and Mr. Maxwell concluded he would not wait until that time, so got him a good gold watch and sent it to him by Mrs. Maxwell today. He considers the investment a good one, and so do we.

The Christian Sunday school will give a short Easter program Sunday night, consisting of the following:

Chorus—Ring Merry Easter Bells.
Prayer.
Reading—Nora Aynes.
Vocal Solo—Lela Gaither.
Reading—Ella Shiveley.
Recitation—Wilda Grate.
Chorus—Little Stars.
Recitation—Bert Dressler.
Recitation—Glady's Peabody.
Vocal Solo—Clifford Hendricks.
Recitation—Daisy Clark.
Recitation—Ruth Knapp.
Chorus—O Glorious Easter Day.
All are invited to be present.

L. D. Wheelon, formerly of the firm of Dundas & Wheelon, telegraphed from Baltimore, Md., on Sunday, that he had undergone two operations for his hearing which has been becoming deficient for the past year and that he is recovering from the effects of the operations.—Granger.

The Mr. Wheelon referred to in the above item is a brother of W. E. Wheelon, the B. & M. agent. A number of years ago he suddenly lost his hearing entirely. Eventually he recovered his hearing in one ear, but had an attack of grip last fall and his hearing got worse again. It is hoped he will regain it again.

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. John Hawxby gave her a surprise party last Sunday on the occasion of her birthday. We are told that she is sixty years old, but think they made a mistake and got it about ten years too old. About 75 of her friends were present and many more would have been there including the editor, if it had not been for the dedication of the new church at Auburn. But they remembered us and sent us a box of cake, but that made us regret all the more that we were not able to be there. All present had a delightful time and left wishing that Mrs. Hawxby might live to celebrate at least twice as many more birthdays. She received a number of nice presents, including a bouquet of roses and carnations from her nephew, F. G. Hawxby.

Shubert was the scene of a tragedy Monday. A man named Geo. Quigle shot his wife four or five times and then shot himself. The woman is alive but the man died. The couple had had some trouble, the woman being charged with being too intimate with another man, and had separated. Mrs. Quigle was at the home of a neighbor hanging out the washing, when Quigle went up to her and attacked her, striking her over the head with a revolver and then shooting her. The woman caught hold of his arm and tried to keep him from firing off the revolver, and did keep him from shooting her through the heart, as he tried to do. He shot her two or three times through the hand and once in the arm, but the wounds are not dangerous. He then went to his home, about a block and a half from the scene of the murder, and fired one shot in his left temple, inflicting a wound from the effects of which he died in about an hour and a half.

Fraud Exposed
A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & Co., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.
