After being out a short time Wednesday a jury composed of six of the most reputable citizens of the county declared Peter Berlet not guilty of the charge of illegal voting.

Hon. Peter Berlet has been a prominent factor in the politics of this county for years. Various people have gone after his scalp in different ways but he still retains that valuable portion of his anatomy.

Last December, shortly after the general election a warrant was sworn out against Mr. Berlet on the charge of illegal voting. He maintains for his family a beautiful home in Auburn, but so far as he himself is concerned, he prefers to make his home on the old farm in Lafayette precinct, where he spent the years of his young manhood in wresting a fortune from the soil.

Some of his neighbors thought he ought to vote in Auburn and challenged his vote at the polls. He went ahead and voted.

In the trial that occurred Wednesday he frankly told the truth of the situation and maintained that it was his intention to live and die on the farm in Lafayette precinct, that it was his true home and there he wanted to vote.

The case was a hotly contested one. The verdict of the jury has been the cause of much favorable comment. Mr. Berlet has been a good and useful citizen of the county and had no criminal intent in voting either at Auburn three years ago, or at Brock ever since.—Auburn Herald.

Fraud Exposed
A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to be aware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E.
