WINE OF CARDUI
 616 Wells Street, MARINETTE, WIS., Sept. 25, 1905.
 I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.

AUBURN CHAUTAUQUA

At the present time every prospect points to the facts that the Auburn chautauqua will be one of the most successful in the middle west. The program is so excellent in its features and its make-up it will attract a tremendous crowd during its session July 22 to 30. Several of the fraternal organizations of the city are making preparations to have tents on the grounds for the accommodation of visiting members. The demand for tents for families and individuals is great and unless those who desire sure accommodations make applications early all the best locations will be gone. One of the most interesting features again this year will be the Children's Chautauqua. Already 150 little ones are enrolled and they are looking forward to the joyful anticipation they do for Christmas.

For further particulars, catalogues and tents, apply to A. L. Allen, secretary, Auburn, Nebraska.

MARRIAGE OF MISS CARRIE C. BURG

The following account of the wedding of Miss Carrie C. Burg taken from the De Queen (Ark.) Democrat, will be of interest to the many friends of the bride, who was principal of the Nemaha schools in 1903-4. The Advertiser extends congratulations. Married—Pettit-Burg—At the home of the bride's brother, A. H. Burg, in this city, Sunday, June 18, 1905, Mr. Edwin Pettit of Stuttgart, Ark., to Carrie C. Burg, of Dallas City, Ill., Elder B. J. Matthews officiating.

The groom is one of the leading attorneys of Arkansas, and is a brother to Mrs. A. H. Burg, and enjoys the confidence and esteem of a large circle of friends. He is a gentleman to the manner born, whom it is a pleasure to know, and whose attention to his professional duties has earned for him a large clientele of satisfied litigants.

The bride is an accomplished young lady, a charming conversationalist who numbers her friends by the extent of her acquaintance, and Mr. Pettit has indeed won a rare jewel for his home.

The Democrat extends its congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Pettit and may the sun of life ever shine upon them with never a shadow to intervene. May their lives be long, happy and prosperous.

Mr. and Mrs. Pettit left immediately after the ceremony for their future home at Stuttgart.

THE NEW CIGARETTE LAW

The cigarette "fend" is to become a thing of history in Nebraska. At least this is the stated belief of the Lincoln tobacco merchants and they profess to know.

The slaves of the habit after today will have only four more days to indulge their appetite. Next Friday night at midnight the new anti-cigarette law goes into effect. Though the Nebraska statute is not supposed to be as strict as those in many other states, a close reading will disclose the fact that there is very little difference. This same law takes effect in Illinois and several other states at the same time. The statute is understood to read that cigarettes cannot be made, sold or given away. This includes cigarette papers. If this is the case it will be unlawful for a "fend" to roll cigarettes for his own use. This is the case in Indiana, and has been for some time.

It is heard now on almost every corner that this or that young man has "sworn off" or is about to take the vows against the "coffin nail." Lincoln tobaccoists do not express much grief over the passing of the cigarette, for they say that it is a bad trade to handle both morally and financially. Several have estimated that the profit from Lincoln's cigarette sales will net average more than $2,000 annually. They say that although there is money in keeping many high grade cigarettes, the Lincoln "fends" are not fastidious or liberal enough to buy them.

While the percentage of from 25 to 35 per cent is to be had on cigars, the merchants say they can never realize more than 20 per cent profit on cigarettes, and considering the risks and the quantity of stale brands that are never sold and get worm-eaten, this is small. But it is seldom that even this profit can be made.—Lincoln Star.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION

The special election in the First congressional district to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Congressman Burckett will be held July 18. Governor Mickey has announced that it will be held and that he believes it will be legal. In this he is supported by Attorney General Brown. The governor and no one else has power to prevent the holding of the election, and he is determined that it shall take place. One reason of his determination is the fact that some of the leading candidates urged him before the convention to call a special election. The candidates were insistent on a special election and they were evidently bent on having it called one month earlier than it was called. Some of them desired that it be held on ten day's notice. The governor did not do so, but on the contrary followed the general terms of the Australian ballot law in regard to the length of notice to be given the voters.

If any one desires to contest the election on account of irregularity they have the privilege of doing so. Congress is the judge of its own membership. Those who desire to create a stir in the breasts of democrats have suggested that if Mr. Pollard is elected at the special election, he will be seated by congress, but that as such cannot be said for Mr. Brown, the democratic candidate. Others believe that if a special election is held and one desires to run as a candidate at the fall election he will have a right to do so and if he gets a majority of the votes cast, even though only half a dozen votes are cast, he might contest the seat of the successful candidate chosen at the special election.

The legality of the special election never may be questioned. The right of the governor to issue his proclamation is still before attorneys and all do not agree. The general claim has been made that the federal constitution governs and that it requires the governor to issue a call when a vacancy in congress occurs. The federal constitution says:

"When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies."

The Nebraska statute contains the following:

"When a vacancy occurs in the office of representative in congress or members of the legislature, and the body in which such vacancy exists will convene prior to the next general election, the governor shall order a special election to fill such vacancy at the earliest practical time and ten days' notice of such election shall be given."

Now the lawyers have dug up the following additional section from the federal constitution which they say indicates that the statute of Nebraska governs:

"The times, places and manner of holding elections of senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators"

Attorney General Brown says this section simply proves his contention. The state law says the governor shall call a special election when there is to be a session of congress before the next general election. There is to be no extra session of congress so far as any one knows, so the constitution, which governs, must be complied with. The time and place fixed by the legislature is when a special session of congress is to intervene. In all other cases the federal constitution, which requires a special election, must be enforced.

If the result of this is a special election regardless of the intervention of sessions of congress, it is not Governor Mickey's fault. Another point considered by lawyers is that when Governor Mickey issued his proclamation the biennial election bill had been passed by the legislature and approved. It was to all intents and purposes a law though not designed to go into effect until July 1. As that bill abolished the general election for the year 1905, the indications then were that a special election to fill the vacancy in congress was absolutely necessary. The biennial election law has since been declared unconstitutional.

Some complication may arise over the canvass of the vote. The legislature canvasses the vote for congressmen and the governor issues certificates of election, countersigned by the secretary of state. As the legislature is not in session, the question has been asked, who will canvass the vote cast at the special election? The state canvassing board is not given such power, so far as can be found in the statutes or constitution.—Lincoln News.

No Secret About It
 It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at Keeling's drug store.

Huge Task
 It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitter, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by W. W. Keeling druggist; price 50c."

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.
 Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
