

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Twenty persons from Nemaha went to Lincoln on the excursion Tuesday morning.

Will F. Sanders came in from De Witt Tuesday to attend the wedding of his sister. He will return today.

Mrs. W. H. Barker went to Shubert Wednesday afternoon to see her sister, Mrs. Charles Bacon, who is very sick.

Mrs. Theo. Hill drove down to Shubert Sunday and visited a few hours with her son, M. T. Hill, bringing her grandson, Bertie, back with her.

R. E. Bucher went to Denver Monday to meet his wife and children, who have been visiting in Colorado for several weeks. In some way Bob missed his wife at Denver and she came on home with the children, arriving here Wednesday afternoon.

The Old Settlers' picnic at Nemaha, last Thursday, was an unqualified success. It is estimated that at least 6,000 persons attended. The crowd was royally entertained and Nemaha added fresh laurels to her reputation for hospitality.—Auburn Herald.

Elmer Allen, cashier of the Bank of Nemaha, and Earl Gilbert were in the city Tuesday. They were inspecting various private gasoline lighting plants with a view to installing a system in the new buildings that are being erected in Nemaha.—Auburn Herald.

The politicians of Nebraska were recently interested in the statement that Church Howe, consul general to Belgium and formerly of Nemaha county, Nebraska, had held a conference with King Leopold. This announcement has been met with one that ex-lieutenant Governor Tom Majors, of Nemaha county, has further distinguished himself by raising a forest of corn on his farm, the stalks of which are from fifteen to sixteen feet high and the ears ten feet above the ground. Samples of corn have been cut and shipped by interested collectors to New York city, U. S. A., Holdrege, Neb., and to other places. Mr. Majors is said to have raised the finest and largest corn on the American continent.—Lincoln Journal.

Hunters can now kill prairie chickens in Nebraska without fear of the descent of a game warden and a fine of five dollars or more per chicken, the open season commencing Sept 1.

Under the new law the open season for prairie chickens opens one month earlier than formerly but each hunter is limited to ten chickens a day during September. The open season lasts until November 30th.

For waterfowl, including ducks and geese, and snipe the open season begins on the same date, September 1st, and lasts until April 15 for water fowl while the shooting of snipe is legalized for one month longer, or until May 15th. The quail open season lasts but fifteen days, from November 15th to November 30th, and the killing of doves and plover can be lawfully done only during the months of July and August.

All species of fish may be legally caught from April 1st to November 15th, except bass under eight inches in length on which the open season is shortened fifteen days or until October 30th. Trout may be caught any time from April 1st to October 1st. The new law varies in some degree from the one formerly in force and the game wardens are endeavoring to strictly enforce all of its provisions. Hunters all over the state are busily engaged in becoming familiar with the present laws so as to avoid any violation of it and a probable visit from a warden entailing perhaps enough of a fine to make the hunting trip somewhat expensive.

Dying of Famine
is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearloss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Keeling's drug store, price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

No Secret About It

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at Keeling's drug store.

We will send the Advertiser, the weekly Lincoln State Journal, and the Iowa Homestead, all one year for only $1.50.

Remember that W. W. Sanders writes insurance. He is agent for several first class companies, both mutual and old line. His rates are as low as any. Give him a call.

Huge Task

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitter, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by W. W. Keeling druggist; price 50c."

For the happy termination of the war between Russia and Japan more credit is due President Roosevelt than to anyone else, unless it be that mist-enshrouded individual, the mikado.

The United States several years ago, fatusly following the will-o'-the-wisp of "manifest destiny," embarked upon a career of "world power" by setting out to tax, without representation, and govern, without their consent, a weak and defenceless but bitterly protesting people that made its home in a jungle of islands on the southeast coast of Asia. The outcome of that "world power" venture has been far from a happy one. From it we have gained neither honors, nor satisfaction or dollars, and because of it we have been sent to apologize and gloss over certain of the fundamental precepts to maintain which our nation took its place among the nations of the earth.

President Roosevelt—be his the glory—has shown us as a "world power" in a worthier and truer light. He has shown us as a power making for peace and righteousness in the world. He has won for us the rightful credit, which can never be denied us, for bringing to a just and righteous and happy end, while a million soldiers were facing one another ready for the shock of battle, a momentous and historic war.

It was Roosevelt who wrung from the embattled powers the consent to treat for peace; it was he brought the envoys together; it was in token of trust in him that those envoys met on American soil; it was he who, not once but several times, interposed in person, to prevent, by his splendid audacity, the conference from failing.

Whatever may be the honest differences of opinion regarding Roosevelt's capacity as a statesman, to deal with certain domestic problems, there can be nothing but unanimity in the statement that, by this brilliant exploit in the field of world politics, he has shed luster on the name of the United States.—Omaha World Herald.

In the District Court of Nemaha County, State of Nebraska.
In the matter of the petition of Willard F. Heasley, administrator of the estate of Eli Keithley, deceased, for license to sell real estate.

Willard F. Heasley, administrator, Plaintiff, vs.
Lewis Keithley, David Newton Keithley, Sarah Coldiron, Tabitha Hamilton, John Keithley, Thornton Keithley, Mary Heasley, Augusta Keithley, Viola Venette Wolf, and Lizzie Ward, Defendants.

Order to show cause why license should not be granted to sell real estate.

Now on this 23rd day of August, A. D. 1905, this cause comes on for hearing, upon the petition, under oath, of Willard F. Heasley, administrator of the estate of Eli Keithley, deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate of said Eli Keithley, deceased, to-wit: The west half (w. 1/2) of the southwest quarter (s. w. 1/4) of section twenty-seven (27), township four (4), north of range sixteen (16) east, in Nemaha county, Nebraska, or a sufficient amount thereof to bring the sum of $99.75, with interest thereon from the 13th day of March, A. D. 1905, for the payment of debts allowed against said estate, and all allowances and costs of administration, for the reason that there is not sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said Willard F. Heasley, administrator, belonging to said estate, to pay said debts, allowances and costs.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate by causing the same to be published once each week for four consecutive weeks in the Nebraska Advertiser, a newspaper printed and published in said county of Nebraska.

W. H. KELLIGAR,
Judge of First Judicial District.

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.
