And it rained.

Paris has just unloaded a car of flour.

Dr Bourne fits glasses. So Auburn.

Paris has flour that makes real bread.

Rev. J. W. Sapp went to Versailles, Mo., Monday.

L. A. Lawhon moved to Auburn a few days ago.

Flour that can't be beat in quality and price at Paris's.

The wet weather is interfering with the building operations.

Rufus Rowen moved to Nemaha the latter part of last week.

Rock and barrel salt at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

To Paris and return and a sack of flour thrown in for $1.30, $1.40, $1.45.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hodlock returned from Humboldt Monday evening.

Rev. G. W. Ayers went to Falls City Tuesday to attend the annual Methodist conference.

Cyrus Minick came down from Syracuse Monday evening to spend a few days at home.

The railroad track east of Bracken was covered with water almost knee deep Monday afternoon.

See Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co. for the best line of furniture, Stock complete and prices right.

W. H. Rider is having an addition built to his house on his farm four and one-half miles southwest of Nemaha.

House with four rooms, two lots and cistern, for sale. Apply to WALTER HADLOCK, Nemaha, Neb.

Jacob West has sold his 40 acre farm where he is living to John M. Clark. He has not yet decided where he will move.

P. G. Swan had the misfortune to break two ribs Thursday of last week. He slipped and fell with the above result.

Mrs. R. S. Scofield, who has been visiting at Hickman, Auburn and other places, returned to Nemaha Thursday of last week.

John H. Argabright started for Indian Territory Tuesday to visit his brother, James W. Argabright, and other relatives.

The telephone men were kept busy for several days getting the phones in shape after the storm of Friday night of last week.

Mrs. Sarah Perry of Little Rock, Ark. visited several days last week with her niece, Mrs. Wilber Whitten, in Aspinwall precinct.

The Methodist church at Glen Rock was struck by lightning during the storm Friday night of last week and considerably damaged.

A Mr. Knicely of Hastings is buying apples in this vicinity. He is getting a good many apples but the quality is not up to the usual standard.

All persons owing me are requested to call at once and settle, as I need the money.

W. H. BARKER.

For sale—a fine registered shorthorn bull—scotch top Crinkshank—coming two years old. Will sell at low price. Inquire of R. I. Brown at poor farm.

G. J. Thorp has decided not to move to Colorado for another year. He had sold his crop of corn to August Quiller but has bought it back, so he will have his crop to gather.

Ernest L. and Fred Argabright, who have been visiting relatives for the past two weeks, started for their Oklahoma home Tuesday.

There will be no services at the Methodist church next Sunday night as Rev. G. W. Ayers is at Falls City attending the annual conference.

F. L. Woodward returned from Chicago Monday. He says the wet weather prevails all the way to Chicago and much corn is being ruined.

Charley Hacker is not making a very active campaign for surveyor, but he will be elected just the same. Every body knows Charley is a good surveyor.

Will trade two well improved farms in southwestern Minnesota for a stock of merchandise. Land at a low cash price. Address Box 2, Lakefield, Minn.

There was a big mail Monday, as there had not been any mail since Friday evening, and some of the mail due on that day did not get here until Monday.

M. S. McIninch is well qualified for the office of county judge. He is a good lawyer, a student, and will take pride in being the very best official possible.

D. J. A. Dirks has made so good a treasurer that there is very little criticism and all parties unite in saying he will be reelected by a handsome majority.

It rained Wednesday.

It rained Thursday.

It rained Friday.

It rained Saturday.

It rained Monday.

Billy Jones of Auburn, candidate for the democratic nomination for sheriff was in Nemaha Wednesday, shaking hands with the dear people. He is a good fellow all right but will stand no show of an election.

Joe Littrell caught a catfish Saturday morning that weighed 54 pounds. He intended shipping it to Auburn but as the train did not run that day he dressed the fish and sold it out to our citizens at 15 cents a pound.

The "river rats" should all vote for Dr. Smith of Brownville, candidate for coroner. He is the only candidate in the eastern part of the county, and is located right for a coroner. Besides, he is well qualified for the position.

Lewis Fisher will have a good house built on his farm south of the McCandless Siding this fall. The house will be 28 feet square, full two stories high. Joe Bunker has the contract for building it. Charley Edwards is living on the farm.

Lewis Fisher, who now makes his home mostly in California, gave us a short call Tuesday. Mr. Fisher was visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Kinton, and looking after his farms in this vicinity. He expects to be in this vicinity for a month or so.

Friday night of last week there was a cloud burst between Crab Orchard and Vesta, from 14 to 20 inches of water falling in a short time. About a mile of the B. & M. track was washed out. As it continued raining it was hard to do anything with the track, and it was not replaced until Monday afternoon.

GOOD FARMS AND LANDS CHEAP

There is absolutely better farm lands for the money, and more money to be made on increase in land, in South Dakota, than any other section of the United States for the next few years, as has been the case in the past few years. We have made a specialty of these lands for several years. Write for our descriptive booklet, which you will find valuable. Cheap excursion rates any day.

RIKER AND CHAMBERS,
General Land and Immigration Agents,
406 Bee Building, Omaha, Nebr.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hawxby, Sunday morning Sept. 16, 1905, a fine twelve pound son. Papa Hawxby is the proudest man in seven states, and seems to think the boy is the only baby.

James B. O'Hara of Brooklyn, Iowa arrived in Nemaha last Sunday, called here by the sickness of his father-in-law, N. B. Scrivener. On account of the washouts on the railroads he came down to Phelps, Mo., and walked to the river, crossing over and then walking the rest of the way to Nemaha.

Fred Rohrs has made a fine record as a deputy sheriff. As one man said: "When Fred goes after a criminal the fellow might as well do like Davy Crockett's coon, surrender at once, as Fred is sure to get him." And the democrats had just as well give up at once and let Fred have the office and thus avoid the expense of a campaign.

The Epworth League had a business meeting Tuesday night and elected the following officers:

President—Mrs. Lillian M. Allen.
First Vice Pres—May Kerker.
Second Vice Pres—Opal Seabury.
Third Vice Pres—Pearl Seid.
Fourth Vice Pres—Geneva We.t.
Secretary—Wm. Yates.
Treasurer—Eddie Yackley.

Wilber Whitten received a box of fine pears Wednesday from his niece, Miss Pearl Wasson of The Dallas, Oregon. Miss Wasson writes that she has packed 300 boxes just like the one she sent Mr. Whitten. They are fine fruit. Mr. Whitten presented the editor with a half dozen of them, Miss Wasson has been working in a large millinery establishment in Portland, but was at home during the hot weather.

We had no trains here last Saturday. The track was washed out in places between Peru and Nebraska City. The freight from the south did not get through Friday morning. The west bound passenger did not get farther than Crab Orchard, on account of the washout there, returning to Nebraska City, getting to Nemaha on the return trip at six o'clock—two hours late Monday the train from the north arrived at Nemaha at 12:25, and from the west at 7:50.

During the storm Friday night of last week the Prairie Union Baptist church about eight miles southwest of Nemaha was struck by lightning and burned. This was a large church and was in good repair. It is probable it will be rebuilt. One thousand dollars' insurance was carried on the building in the Richardson County Mutual and $200 on the contents, most of which was carried out to safety. The church was one of the oldest buildings in the neighborhood having been erected thirty-two years ago.

The only complaint we have heard even democrats make of J. M. Wright is that he used to be a democrat and hasn't been a republican long enough to show that it is a genuine reform. Well, we admit that the charge that a man has been a democrat is a pretty serious one, but we do not believe in bringing up a man's past mistakes when he has repented, and we believe Mack's conversion is genuine. All admit that he is peculiarly well adapted for the position of clerk, that he is the best posted man we ever had in the clerk's office, and that he will undoubtedly make a superior officer. Then why not elect him by acclamation?

How's this?

Noah Colerick recently sent some samples of wheat, oats, rye and other grain to his brother, Ben Colerick, that was raised on his son-in-law's farm near Alliance. The hail apparently ruined the crops early in the season and Noah's son-in-law left the farm turning the crop over to Noah. Of course the crop is not very good but shows up well under the circumstances.

Died—At the home of his grand daughter, Mrs. W. E. Tice, at Alliance on Sept. 2, 1905, Mr. Peter Muntz, aged 74 years, 10 months and 18 days. He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife and eight children, four sons and four daughters, who were all at his bedside except one daughter, Mrs. Annie Snodgrass, living at Doniphan, Kas. Mr. Muntz was the father of Mrs. U. O. Colerick and Mrs. H. W. Druery also of Alliance.

Gottlieb Mable died at his home in Brownville on Friday, Sept. 15, 1905, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis suffered about a week previous.

Mr. Mable was born in Germany, Dec. 11, 1836. He came to America when 16 years of age, and to Nebraska in 1860. He enlisted in Second Nebraska infantry and later was in the Nebraska First serving much of the time on the frontier. He was married to Elizabeth Vogel of Indiana in 1869, his wife surviving him.

For many years he farmed in London precinct, moving to Brownville about twelve years ago.

The funeral services conducted by Rev. G. W. Ayers, were held Sunday forenoon.

Died—At his home in Nemaha, Monday, Sept. 18, 1905, at 6:10 a. m., Mr. Nicholas B. Scrivener, aged 75 years, 3 months and 6 days.

Mr. Scrivener had been confined to his bed for five or six weeks with kidney trouble and a complication of diseases, which with his advanced age, caused his death. He realized that there was little hope of his recovery and made his final preparations to that end. He had full trust in a loving father. He belonged to the Catholic church, but had great charity and respect for all organizations calculated to help mankind. He was highly respected in Nemaha and will be greatly missed. His aged wife is left to mourn the loss of a loving companion. The grandchildren who have made their home with him for many years will greatly miss him.

The body was taken to Auburn Tuesday and buried in the Catholic cemetery three miles south of Auburn.

The heavy rains the past week have flooded the low lands and washed out many small bridges. The Nemaha river has been out of its banks and it has been impossible to cross any of the bridges except the one south of town since last Saturday, until Thursday of this week. When the water had fallen so some of the bridges could be crossed. The bottom land was flooded and hundreds of tons of hay were destroyed. Corn on the Nemaha bottoms has also been badly damaged—how bad it is impossible to tell at present. The water was almost knee deep on the railroad east of Bracken at one time, but the trains crossed all right. There were several washouts on the road between Peru and Nebraska City, but they were repaired Sunday, so the trains got through Monday. The Missouri Pacific track was covered with water in places, but all trains were running with the exception of a day or two.
