It Didn't Hurt a Bit!

Is the verdict of the people for whom Dr. Matthews has been doing dental work.

On account of a rushing business he will continue his stay in Nemaha until Oct. 20.

Take Vitalized Air, the safest and easiest way to have your Teeth extracted. You feel no pain whatever.

Rev. G. W. Ayers expects to begin a protracted meeting at Brownville next Sunday evening. The pulpit at Nemaha will be filled by a deaconess from Omaha.

W. S. Argabright takes advantage of our special offer and will receive the Advertiser, Iowa Homestead and Lincoln Weekly State Journal all one year for only $1.50.

Mrs. L. G. Walker, of Pueblo, Colo. who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fick, for the past month, took the passenger train for her home Tuesday forenoon.

Jess Cranmer, who has been working for John C. Stokes for several months, is moving back to Brock. Walter Farris is moving in where Cranmer lived and will work for Mr. Stokes.

The price of chickens which has been very high, is now going down. Last week buyers paid 8 cents per pound. This week only 7 cents is paid, and next week the price will probably be down to 6 cents.

Mark Robinson of Lee Summit, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Monday afternoon on a visit to his mother, Mrs. G. W. Shiveley, and to see his half-brother, James A. Shiveley, who has been so very low with appendicitis.

The Junior League sociable last Saturday night was not as successful as it should have been, on account of the storm, but the Juniors made a little above expenses. They desire us to thank those who patronized them.

The condition of James A. Shiveley, who was operated upon for appendicitis Thursday afternoon of last week, is quite critical yet, although he is improving some. It is feared another operation will have to be performed.

M. S. McIninch, republican candidate for county judge, was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday. Mr. McIninch is making an active campaign and is confident of election. He is a good lawyer, a student, and well qualified for the position of county judge.

Full of Tragic Meaning are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me. Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At W. W. Keeling's, druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

James M. Burns resigned his position as street commissioner Monday night and the board of village trustees elected Wm. G. Maxwell to fill the office.

Do not overlook the advertisement of the big dispersion sale of Wm. Ernst & Sons, published elsewhere in this paper. This sale will be one of the best ever held in the state and will occupy two days.

Geo. E. Burson, father of E. F. Burson of Aspinwall precinct, was a Nemaha visitor Friday. The old gentleman, who makes his home with his son, is 95 years old but gets around very lively for an old man.

Fred Robrs has made an efficient deputy sheriff. He neglects no item of business connected with his office, is always ready to go when called upon, is courageous, energetic and faithful. He will make a good sheriff.

J. L. Speece has sold his orchard as it stands, to Messrs. Riffes & Secret of Craig, Missouri, for $2.50 per barrel, picking will commence soon. It is estimated that his orchard will yield about one thousand barrels.—Shubert Citizen.

A Missouri paper says the juice of sugar beets will cause hair to grow on bald heads. Now if some one will bring the editor a few—a wagon load or so—we will experiment, and if successful will send a glowing testimonial to the aforesaid Missouri paper.

Benj. Sears visited his brother-in-law H. T. Minick, and other relatives in Nemaha and vicinity this week. Mr. Sears was on his way from California, where he has been making his home for the most of the time for the past two years, to his old home at Bucyrus, Ohio.

Dan Lambert received a fine present last week, Robert Keister his brother-in-law, sending him a fine Duroc Jersey hog weighing about 200 pounds. The hog is a beauty, finely proportioned and speaks well for the herd of Mr. Keister who now lives at Tonganoxie, Kansas. Dan is very proud of his present.

Dr. Matthews, the dentist, has been kept busy since he came to Nemaha. The doctor is giving the best of satisfaction in his work. We have not heard a single complaint, either in Nemaha or in Brownville, where he has been making trips for the past 16 years. If you need any dental work give him a trial.

A fellow who had been to Brownville the night before and loaded up with bad whiskey made a nuisance of himself at the Methodist church Sunday and had to be called down by the minister. If this occurs again the officers of the law will be called upon to deal with the offender. Law abiding church going people do not propose to be annoyed by such actions.

We only voice the sentiment of the great majority of the best people of the county, especially those who have taken an active interest in school matters, when we say that we believe Geo. D. Carrington, jr., has made the best county superintendent Nemaha county ever had. He is a hard worker, has studied the conditions and needs of our public schools, takes an active interest in every school and every teacher in the county and tries to help in every instance. No one doubts his election by an overwhelming majority.

C. O. SEOW, Auctioneer
E. L. PARIS, Clerk

J. M. CLARK,
B. F. JONES,
DAVID JONES.

Also 50 cords of good dry wood for sale by J. M. Clark, at private sale, for cash or good note.

Ellis Young caught a blue channel cat fish Monday morning that weighed 67 pounds. He had three No. 9 hooks broken, so other big ones must have been there. He is fishing in the Missouri river about half way between Nemaha and Brownville, where the channel is narrow and the water very deep and swift.

The directors of Maple Grove school—Dist. 37—have been doing some good work on the school house. They have put in a new door, new seats, oiled the floor, and in general made it more comfortable for the pupils and teacher, and improved the looks as well. G. Edwin Sanders is teaching his second term in this district and is getting along well.

The southeast corner of town is getting to be almost deserted. N. B. Catlin has moved away, Mrs. Rose Gilbert is in Michigan, Mrs. Ellen Howe is visiting in Stella, Dr. and Mrs. Keeling are visiting in Indiana, Mrs. G. W. Chapman, who lives just outside the incorporation, is visiting in Kansas City, and now Mr. and Mrs. McCandless are talking of going to Omaha on a visit.

J. M. Wright is one of the most accommodating officials that was ever in the court house. Hundreds of men will vote for him on this account, regardless of politics. He knows the business of the clerk's office thoroughly and takes a pride in keeping the work up to the highest standard. He knows more about the business of the county than any other person. He will be elected because he is the best man for the office.

E. F. Burson and J. L. Speece have bought several hundred acres of land near Ord, Nebr., belonging to John W. and Frank K. Skeen and Llewellyn Williams. They expect to make a sheep ranch of it but will live in town. They will go into the sheep business on a large scale. It is probable John and Frank Skeen and perhaps Llewellyn Williams will move back here. We would certainly be glad to have them become Nemaha citizens again.

We will send The Advertiser and The Nebraska Farmer both one year for only $1.35. The Farmer is one of the best farming papers published. Leave your subscription at this office.

Don't Borrow Trouble
It is a bad habit to borrow anything but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At Keeling's drug store. Price 50 cents. Guaranteed.

Carl E. Sanders has been suffering from an attack of grip for some time. Wednesday afternoon he got so sick he had to go home at recess. Miss Stella Washburn took charge of the high room, and Miss Bessie Washburn took her place in the intermediate department for the remainder of the day. Mr. Sanders is feeling some better now and it is thought will get along all right.

Old paper for sale cheap at The Advertiser office.

We will send the Advertiser, the weekly Lincoln State Journal, and the Iowa Homestead, all one year for only $1.50.
