NEBRASKA NOTES

H. A. Preston has sold his 120-acre farm, two miles north of Oakland to C. M. Hulbert for $85 per acre.

While chopping wood George Watges of Beatrice, struck his left foot with the ax, severing his big toe.

Carpenters are at work on the new depot to replace the building burned some time ago at Bartley. The new structure is to be a great improvement over the old one.

A change has occurred in the management of the Paddock hotel of Beatrice, Jackson & Biles, the former from Wichita, Kan., and the latter from Hastings, succeeding Poole & Turner.

Ernest Whittemore, a young farmer living near Beatrice, had his right hand crushed by getting it caught in a cornsheller. The member may have to be amputated.

Fred Ruh, a boy 14 years of age and a resident of Beatrice has been sentenced to the industrial school at Kearney by Judge Bourne on the charge of incorrigibility.

John W. Bash, a local blacksmith and woodworker of Humboldt has suffered the loss of the two smaller fingers of his right hand by accidentally throwing the members in the track of a rapidly moving planing machine.

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ross of Chadron, formerly of Norfolk, have succumbed to scarlet fever within two days. Two died within an hour of each other. They were the entire family of Mr. and Mrs. Ross. Mr. Ross is a locomotive engineer on the Northwestern.

The Bicknell hotel at Table Rock has been sold to R. P. Jennings. Mr. Bicknell, the former proprietor, disappeared several days ago and has not been located since. He is said to have taken all the available cash in the hostelry and it was announced that he had gone to purchase a stock of holiday goods for his cafe.

Joseph Stanfield has brought suit in the district court at Fremont against the Standard Beet Sugar company for $20,000. He alleges in his petition that he was employed as a fireman at the factory of the company at Leavitt and that while working at his employment a carpenter dropped a piece of board from a scaffolding above him, breaking his arm and permanently injuring it, so that it is of little use.

While A. Lemfenex, a machinist in the Burlington shops, at Havelock, was at work repairing a bumper on one of the big tanks the big yard crane bumped into him, breaking his collar bone, two ribs and crushing his shoulderblade badly. He was put on a stretcher and taken to his hotel, where Dr. Ballard is attending him, and has hopes of saving his life if he is not hurt internally.

Edward Hart, who was struck by an engine on the B. & M. last spring and had his leg broken, broke it again by making a misstep. After the accident on the B. & M. he was confined to the hospital for three months and came out with a badly set limb and recently brought suit against Dr. W. T. Neal, the attending surgeon for $10,000 damages. This is the same limb broken this time.

Joe Wilson, his son and J. M. Gregory, who all reside in the northeast part of Falls City, had a fight in which Wilson and his son were cut up considerably by Gregory. The trouble started over the fact that Gregory had blocked the alley with his wagon and buggy until it was impossible for young Wilson to get through and get a cow he was leading to the stable. He asked Gregory to move one of the vehicles so he could get through and Gregory refused. They had a wordy battle, which terminated in the fight.

The 15-year old son of Otto Guenther of Syracuse has met with a peculiar accident near his home which may result in his death. The boy jumped on a Burlington hand-car that was being propelled by section men. He fell to the floor and his head extended over the edge of a tool chest which contained several sharp axes. As the handles of the car came down they caught his head, forcing it onto the sharp edge of an ax. The boy's face was terribly cut. One side of his face is entirely cut away, and one eye was gouged out. He was taken to Omaha and placed in a hospital.
