

Open The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GAVE UP SUPPORTER.
"I were a supporter for four years, to keep up my womb," writes Mrs. S. J. Chrisman, of Mansville, N. Y. "My doctor said no medicine would help me. After taking Cardui I gave up my supporter and am now well."

The Nebraska Advertiser.

Auburn now has a ten cent feed yard, where farmers can drive their team in and have them out of the wind and storm at a cost of only ten cents. Of course the farmer must take his own feed. It is a good thing.

The animal that created so much excitement in the vicinity of St. Deroin last winter and that was seen on the sandbar east of Nemaha, has been seen in the neighborhood of Brownville recently. It is thought to be a catamount or an animal of that nature.

Auburn is to have another national bank, with a capital of $25,000. It is to be located at the center, west of the court house. This will give South Auburn two banks. The north side has two banks. The stockholders of the new bank are Peter Berlet, Fred Lampe, Henry Kleckner, O. F. Harlan and J. M. Wright. Mr. Wright will be the cashier.

Money to Loan—$10,000 special fund party desires to get out or contracted for by January 1st, if possible. Will loan three to ten years in sums to suit, on satisfactory real estate. Borrower can pay $100 or any multiple thereof on any interest pay day. If you wish to borrow to invest, pay off an old loan, or get money be sure to call on or write to Henry C. Smith, Falls City, Nebraska.

SEED CORN SPECIAL
The Burlington "seed corn special" will be in Nemaha county on Friday, Dec 29th. It will arrive in Johnson 10:30 a. m., leave 11:10 a. m.; arrive in Auburn at 11:35 a. m., leave at 12:15 p. m.; arrive in Nemaha at 12:45 p. m. leave at 1:25 p. m.; arrive in Brownsville at 1:40 p. m., leave at 1:45 p. m., arrives at Peru 2:05 p. m., leaves 2:45 p. m. Brownville people will be taken to Peru on the special and returned home on No. 111.

Judge S. P. Davidson and L. C. Chapman of Tecumseh were in Nemaha Thursday evening, taking a deposition in a case where Moses Roberts of Tecumseh is suing the C. B. & Q. road. In January, 1904, Mr. Roberts shipped some sheep and part of them were transferred from one car to another while they were lying at Nemaha. When the sheep got to their destination some were missing, and Mr. Roberts is suing for their value. Ed Knapp helped transfer the sheep here, and his deposition was taken.

Ray Clark went to Lincoln Wednesday to attend the meeting of the Nebraska Corn Growers Association. Last spring the state superintendent sent out some corn to boys in different parts of the state who would agree to plant and tend it, and premiums are to be awarded to the boy raising the best crop. Ray was one of the boys who planted the corn and goes to Lincoln to report and to attend a banquet given to the boys. An expert from the agricultural department at Washington will be present and will make an address.

Washington, Dec. 12—In spite of the fact that two or three members of the Nebraska delegation lost the particular committee places they desired, the most of them are very well satisfied with the appointments given them by Speaker Cannon. The committee assignments for Nebraska are as follows: Hinshaw—Indian affairs, merchant marine and fisheries, patents.

Kennedy—Irrigation of arid lands, war claims.

Kincaid—Insular affairs, Pacific railroads.

McCarthy—Public lands, expenditures department of justice.

Norris—Public buildings and grounds, labor, election president, vice president and members of congress.

Pollard—Industrial arts, expenditures, and accounts.

The most disappointed members from Nebraska are Hinshaw and Pollard, the former having put up a fight for a place on the appropriation committee and the latter for a place on the agricultural committee.

Congressman Kennedy got exactly what he wanted in the committee on irrigation of arid lands.

All in all, however, Nebraska fared exceptionally well in appointments on the more important committees.

In the Nebraska Farmer our readers will find a very excellent poultry department, a Horticultural Department, Timely Talks about Gardening and the care of Flowers, a Veterinary Department, a Legal Department, a Home Department, a Children's Department and others too numerous to mention here.

The agricultural and livestock topics treated in the Nebraska Farmer are handled from the Nebraska point of view and in a manner calculated to help Nebraska people. We will be pleased to take subscriptions for the Nebraska Farmer at 50 cents per year at The Advertiser office.

The front cover of the January Designer is extremely effective, showing a pretty woman in coat and furs watching the flight of a coal-black crow across a wintry landscape. Costumes, novel and artistic in design for masquerades are shown in full-page illustration, and aside from these there are eight full-page and numerous smaller fashion pictures. Among the miscellany are Florida Products, by Julia Davis Chandler. Winter Sports, and Women Who Study the Sky's Profoundest Secrets, by W. Manly Vander Wyde. Jiu-Jitsu Training gives further instruction in these exercises, which may be utilized as a means for health or for self-defense, and In the Interest of Bread Winning Bertha Hasbrook advocates The Delicatessen as a money-maker. At the Mercy of the Snow, by Martha McCullough Williams, is a New Year story with a thrill in it, and Grips Gone Wrong, by Caroline Miles, is a brisk comedy in one act. The Story of Vic, by Mrs. G. Mallison, will please the little folks, so, too, will the details of A Holiday House Party, by Mary Dawson. Among the especially practical articles is one on China, by Lora M. Pollard, and another on Cake Making, by T. Celestine Cummings, while Marjory March supplies a hint for entertainment in A Calendar Evening.

NEBRASKA WILL GET THE FEDERAL PRISONERS

The Nebraska state penitentiary is a federal prison. Warden Beemer last night received notice from the United States attorney general that in the future federal prisoners for the district of Nebraska would be incarcerated at Lincoln instead of at Sioux Falls, S. D. The state will receive 55 cents per day for the care of the prisoners, but will not be permitted to lease them to prison contractors. The movement to have the Nebraska prison designated as a federal prison was started some time ago. The credit for its success is due to Senator Burkett and the members of the Nebraska congressional delegation, who, at the request of the prison officials, took the matter up with the attorney general's department.

Recently the prison was examined by Government Inspector La Dow who reported that the institution was one of the model ones of the country and suitable for the detention of federal prisoners. Warden Beemer has received no intimation as to the average number of federal prison sentences per year but anticipates that it will be at least 150. These prisoners will be used to perform the necessary work of keeping up the institution and the state prisoners will be leased to the contractors. At present there are 310 state prisoners. The equipment of the penitentiary consists of 240 new and modern steel cells in the west cell house and a number of commodious cells in the east cell house. All of the cells are large enough to accommodate at least two prisoners. More than 750 could be cared for without increasing present facilities.—Lincoln Star
