Mrs. George Lewis died at her home in Brownville Sunday night, from application of diseases. The funeral services were held Wednesday at 11 o'clock. The deceased was the mother of John B. Lewis, B & M agent at Brownville. She was also sister-in-law of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Minick of Nemaha.

Eugene Kerst started for Washington last Saturday, with his car load of goods. His family will not go until he gets located and ready for them. He is going to locate near Mold, in the same neighborhood that David Brimble is living. Mrs. Kerst and the children are stopping with Mrs. Kerst's father, Marshall Webb.

Some of the old soldiers of Brownville have been getting into trouble on account of the prevailing system of graft. They were persuaded by the cattle barons to take homesteads under the Kincaid act and agree to sell to the cattle men, getting $150 and expense for their trouble. But Uncle Sam caught on and now there is great perturbation of spirit among the guilty ones.

A number of years ago frequent efforts were made to raise money for a school library, but without success. Recently, however, without much fuss or blow, a good library of about 75 books has been put in the school. Care is taken in the selection of the books, and the library is a valuable addition to the school. We would suggest that those having spare books of the right kind would be doing a good deed by donating them to the school library.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottles Free at Keeling's Drug Store.

On Friday last Caldwell & Caldwell, husband and wife, and business partners in the dry goods and millinery business made an assignment of their entire stock to their creditors, who at once took possession. This firm had a good trade but overreached in buying and had heavy expenses to meet while in the field with close competition.—Granger.

Mr. Grube, a German farmer living west of Johnson in school district No. 24, who by hard work and good management has become one of the most prosperous farmers in Nemaha county, has just completed what is probably the largest barn in the state of Nebraska. The dimensions of this barn are 85x85 and 60 feet high. It holds 3,000 bushels of grain; 284 tons of hay; 2,000 bushels of ear corn; 150 head of cattle and hogs and 20 head of horses.—Nemaha Co. Teacher.

Mrs. James W. Blankenship of Peru died Jan 5, of pneumonia. She was one of the earliest settlers of this part of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship lived in Nemaha in 1881 and 1882 and have many friends here among the old settlers. The deceased leaves a husband and six children—Mrs. Dr. Lorraine of Auburn, Mrs. Eugene Combs of Tecumseh, Mrs. Dr. Clark of Ashland, Prof. Lloyd Blankenship, instructor in the deaf and dumb institute at Omaha, and John and Howard Blankenship of Peru.

Four years ago the Odd Fellows built a new hall at an expense of $3,200. In addition to this, they had to buy a lot of the foundation. They had about $1,700 to begin on, including the insurance they got when the old building burned and cash on hand at that time. They borrowed $1,500 at 7 per cent interest, due in five years. Wednesday they made the final payment, paying in full in four years, and have some money on hand. They now own a two story brick building 24x60 feet, with a warehouse addition, and the hall nicely furnished, all paid for. They expect to celebrate soon with a big banquet.

G. N. Titus has brought suit for damages for slander against Ed E. Moore, on account of assertions reported to have been made by Mr. Moore regarding the fires at the nursery last summer. Mr. Titus has engaged Messrs. Neal & Quackenbush and Ed Ferneau as his attorneys. There are three counts in the charge and damages are asked for $5,000 on each count, making $15,000 in all. Mr. Titus has been reluctant to do anything but clear his good name. His loss in the fire, with incidental losses attached thereto, were great enough without slanderous reports being circulated relative to the same.

Bena lodge No. 166, Order of Rebekahs, installed the following officers Wednesday night:

After lodge adjourned an oyster supper was served. There was a good attendance and a fine time was enjoyed.

WONDERFUL NERVE

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at W. W. Keeling's, Druggist.

Rev. E. B. Maxcy of Johnson, who has been assisting in the meetings at the Methodist church, went home last Saturday forenoon to fill his Sunday appointments. About 2 o'clock the family of W. B. Norval, living on the old Hawke farm two miles north of Nemaha, phoned to Mr. Maxcy saying Mr. Norval, who is very sick, would like to see him. Mr. Maxcy, while pastor at Glen Rock several years ago was well acquainted with the sick man, and had called on him in company with Rev. G. W. Ayers the day before. Mr. Maxcy came in on the afternoon train, called on Mr. Norval, and after praying and talking with him, baptized him and received him in the church. That evening Mr. Maxcy preached. The next morning he started for Johnson before 7 o'clock, in order to fill his appointments. He returned here Monday, driving in through the snow storm.

Domestic Troubles

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you but cure. 25c. at Keeling's drug store.

IF YOU WANT

Good Bread

TRY A SACK OF

Golden Rod Flour

High patent. Every sack guaranteed to give full satisfaction in every respect or money refunded. Always the same. No better flour made.

If you want a cheaper flour you cannot do better than to buy the a straight grade flour. It has no superior in a grade flour. Many prefer it to a high patent.

Red Seal

For a still cheaper flour try the

Gold Leaf

It is a good flour of that grade.

These grades are manufactured by Jameson & Son, Stella, Nebr., and are on sale at the store of

J. H. Vanderslice

NEMAHA, NEBR.

If you buy a sack of either of these grades and it is not just as represented, take it back and your money will be returned.
