An Appeal

We have been to considerable expense lately and need money very much. If each of our delinquent subscribers would pay up it would put us on easy street. We ask each one who is owing on subscription to consider that this means him or her, and trust the response will be immediate. Help us out.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed. Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottles Free at Keeling's Drug Store.

VALENTINES

At the Postoffice

We learn that John Baptist, an Armenian, will give three lectures in the Christian church, on the 18th, 19th and 20th of this month. The lecturer is a native Armentian and will tell of the persecutions endured by his people in their country. His lectures are said to be intensely interesting.

Thirteen persons were baptized by sprinkling at the Methodist church Sunday night. Two joined on probation and one was taken in full membership. There have been seventeen additions to the church as a result of the protracted meetings, and it is probable others will join later.

Ed Parriott of Peru, deputy for the A. O. U. W., was in Nemaha a few days this week in the interests of the order. Ed is an enthusiastic Workman and the report of the auditing committee for the past quarter showed that he had got more members than either of the other four deputies. The Workmen here are always glad to have Ed come around and liven them up.

Parties wishing to take up the systematic study of the Bible will please inform Mrs. Elmer E. Allen or the postmaster of their desires, as a class will be started as soon as the meetings close at the Christian church if arrangements can be completed by that time. The text book will cost 55 cents each. For further particulars inquire at the postoffice or of Mrs. Allen.

E. L. Paris has commenced work on the shelving and other work necessary to fit up his building for J. W. Ritchey. Mr. Ritchey will move his stock of general merchandise down from Brownville as soon as the building is ready, and work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The room will have to be repainted and repapered, shelved and counters put in and other work done.

Yesterday morning as John Shook was hitching up a team of bronchos, they got the better of that worthy gentleman and trampled him until he was unconscious. When a physician arrived he found it necessary to take thirteen stitches to close the wound in his head. He received other injuries but it is not thought they are serious. Mr. Shook's many friends are hoping for his speedy recovery.—Granger.

On Tuesday afternoon James A. G. Band of Everest, Kansas, and Miss Lizzie O'Hara of Nemaha, were united in marriage by County Judge McCarty, in the latter's office. The bride seemed very youthful, so much so, in fact, that the judge was compelled to ask her to qualify as to her age. This she did and then the couple were made happy by being made one. They will make their home in western Kansas.—Auburn Herald.

T. H. Jones writes to this paper that he has established his home at Longmot, Colo., for the present. The town has a population of 3,500. After leaving Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Jones went to Lincoln, where they remained nearly a week, visiting his mother and sister. They then went to Fremont, where they stayed four days the guest of a sister, and then went to Denver where they spent some time visiting and sightseeing. Before settling in their new home they were the guests of their son Alfred, at his home at Minot, Colo., where there is a considerable Nemaha county colony. They report that the weather is good in that section and that the climate is just simply fine. Mrs. Jones' health seems to be improving in that fine climate.—Herald.

Tuesday night Richard Knapp and Dan Lambert had an exciting experience that they do not care to go through with again. They had been out west of town to a pond, skating, driving out in a buggy, having with them Misses Eliza Farson and Minnie Owens. Two teams that were racing came up behind the boys, scaring their horse, and it ran the buggy over the side of the bridge, the buggy landing in the ditch several feet below, on its side, with the boys, girls and horse. The horse started to run but was in the ditch and was promptly stopped. Richard got a black eye and a bumped up nose and Miss Eliza had one lip a little bruised, but otherwise the young people were not hurt. The top of the buggy was smashed to pieces. The horse was scratched up some but not bad. In the excitement Harry Rowen's horse ran into the barb wire and was considerably scratched up. All concerned feel thankful the injuries were no worse.

Fresh and Cove Oysters, delicious Home Made Candy, Valentines, etc., at the Junion League Social at the Minick hall tomorrow night.

The remains of Russell E. Chatfield, who died of heart failure at his home in Joplin, Mo., Sunday night, were brought here Wednesday for burial beside the body of his wife in Walnut Grove.

Deceased was a former old resident of Brownville, having made his home here from 1873 to 1889. He was 78 years of age at the time of his demise.

His remains were accompanied here by his son, Chas S of Minneapolis, Minn., and his daughter, Miss Mamie Chatfield, of Joplin, and also by a friend of the family, Mr. Dimmick. The funeral was held directly from the train and was quite largely attended by our older residents who knew the deceased well when he made this city his home. | Brownville Letter.

IF YOU WANT

Good Bread

TRY A SACK OF

Golden Rod Flour

High patent. Every sack guaranteed to give full satisfaction in every respect or money refunded. Always the same. No better flour made.

If you want a cheaper flour you cannot do better than to buy the a straight grade flour. It has no superior in a grade flour. Many prefer it to a high patent.

For a still cheaper flour try the

Gold Leaf

It is a good flour of that grade.

These grades are manufactured by Jamason & Son, Stella, Nebr., and are on sale at the store of

J. H. Vanderslice
NEMAHA, NEBR.

If you buy a sack of either of these grades and it is not just as represented, take it back and your money will be returned.
