The free-for-all row at a dance at Brownville as given in last week's Letter bears out what we said last week about dances. reflows raised a disturbance, the marshall was called in, he deputized another man to assist him, there was a general row in which one man was put out of the hall. He returned, another cound-up was on, in which the marshall's club was taken away from nim, and the owner of the hall fell or was thrown down stairs, and was badly hurt. No arrests. Pleasant for ladies, wasn't it.

Year by year the people are outgrowing their superstitions. Many o the older people still believe in signand omens, but the yourger ones are skeptical on all such subjects. The old ground-hog day sign is no longer believed, but all of us pay more or less attention to ground-hog de y and every year we see much in the papers, fron the largest city daily to the smalless weekly, about ground-hog day. This year if the ground-hog ventured out of his hole on the second of February. and there was no reason why he shouldn't come out if he wanted to, as i was nice and warm, he certainly saw his snadow As the weather turned cold in a day or so, we hear repeatedly that "the ground-hog is getting in hi work." So it goes.

A statistician has estimated that if one good grain were added to each ear of corn grown in one of the states of the corn belt, it would add $200 000 to he yearly product of the state I. ostead of one grain, a dozen were added, or if a whole ear were added to each hill, the grain would be correspondingly greater, running into the millions in the latter case. Not only in corn, but in +1 the products of the arm, including live stock, improve pent is the watchword of the times A single county like Nemaba would be largely enriched by adopting the best methods in any agricultural or live tock line of work, as many of our farmers are already doing. A good agricultural paper like The Homestead, of Des Moines, Iowa, setting forth each week the best methods of increasing size and value of the farmer's output, is a boon to any community. The Advertiser has completed clubbing trrangements with this excellent farm fournal and will be glad to forward your subscription for it.
