An Appeal

We have been to considerable expense lately and need money very much. If each of our delinquent subscribers would pay up it would put us on easy street. We ask each one who is owing on subscription to consider that this means him or her, and trust the response will be immediate. Help us out.

Mrs. Chas. M. Woodward of Kansas City arrived in Nemaha Thursday afternoon of last week on a visit to her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodward.

Jacob West moved to Brownville the latter part of last week. We regret to lose this estimable family and cordially recommend them to the good people of Brownville.

The Kimmel Comedy Co., after an existence of only about three weeks, dissolved and disbanded last week, and on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Kimmel returned to Nemaha.

For over seven weeks meetings were in progress in Nemaha, counting the lectures by John Baptist, closing Friday night. The church going people now feel lonesome.

W. W. Keeling will put in a good line of so-called racket goods as soon as F. L. Woodward takes the stock of drugs off his hands. He will also carry a stock of feed of all kinds.

We have a big assortment of furniture that we are selling at reasonable prices. Special prices made for housekeeping outfits. Try us. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

The Beatrice Creamery Co. will pay 25 cents per pound of butter fat for hand separator cream, delivered in Nemaha. Separators sold on easy terms. R. E. BUCHER, Agent.

Two or three of our young men have rented farms for the coming year, and are inquiring prices on household goods so we expect some weddings soon. A farmer without a housekeeper is in bad shape.

A span of mules owned by a farmer living near Julian was bought a few days ago by the negro horse buyer for $500. That is probably the largest amount ever paid in Nemaha county for a span of mules.

Capt. R. V. Black of Brock, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of that community, died Tuesday of last week. Capt. Black was sheriff of this county for two terms about thirty years ago.

We had another cold snap this week, beginning Sunday night with a rain, ending in a snow Monday morning. There was a hard wind and indications of a blizzard, but Tuesday was warm and the snow was about all gone by night.

Brock now has an epidemic of smallpox in the tight form similar to that prevailing in Nemaha a few years ago. All parties having the disease have been quarantined and it is thought the spread of the disease will be checked.

John W. Ritchey moved his household goods down from Brownville the latter part of last week and is now at home in the Theo. Hill property in the south part of town. We are very glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey and Ralph with us.

A few years ago it was predicted that the bicycles, automobiles, street railways, motor lines, etc., would soon do away with horses, and that prices would steadily decline. It doesn't look much like it now, as prices are steadily increasing.

Picture Frames

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have received a good line of picture moulding and are now prepared to make picture frames of any size. Take your pictures there and have them framed.

A Lively Tussle

with that old enemy of the race, Constipation, often ends in Appendicitis. To avoid all serious trouble with Stomach, Liver and Bowels, take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They perfectly regulate these organs, without pain or discomfort. 25c at W. W. Keeling's druglist.

COLCLAZIER & SON Landolt's Old Stand Shubert, Nebraska

Miss Minnie May went to Lincoln Thursday of last week and will probably be gone about two weeks. She will be in a large millinery establishment while away, and will buy a big stock of spring millinery. What other business she goes on we are not informed.

Jasper Maddox of Atchison county, Mo., and Miss Mabel Bolejack of Aspinwall precinct, in Nemaha county were united in the bonds of holy matrimony, at the court house in Auburn on Monday, Feb. 26, 1906. Judge McCarty performed the ceremony. The young couple will make their home near Rockport, Mo., on a farm. May prosperity and happiness attend them.

John Baptist, the Armenian lecturer went to Beatrice Saturday, where he gave three lectures this week. Over $42 was taken in at the opera house Thursday night of last week, at 20, 15 and 10 cents. Friday night he preached at the Christian church from the topic: "Not the Man in the Basket but the Other Men." It was an excellent discourse. He made many friends while here, as he is an able man.

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have had forty feet of the front part of the partition taken out between the hardware and furniture rooms, throwing the two rooms into one. This will make the front part of the building, 44 feet wide, all together, and will be much more convenient for salesmen and customers. The furniture room is being finished up the same as the hardware department. Joe Bunger is doing the work.

There was a double wedding of young people of this vicinity at Auburn Wednesday. Bert Thorn and Miss Pearl Gillespie and Glenn Harger and Miss Wavie Thorn were united in marriage at the county judge's office, by Judge McCarty. Mr. and Mrs. Thorn will go to housekeeping at once on the farm where Jess Kennedy now lives, south of Nemaha, Bert having rented this farm for this year. We have not learned where Mr. and Mrs. Harger will live. May these young people find happiness and prosperity in their new relations.

John W. Ritchey has made arrangements to move his stock of general merchandise from Brownville to Nemaha the first of next week. He is now in St. Joe buying a good stock of new and seasonable goods, and will have a big stock of just such goods as the people want. Mr. Ritchey is a merchant in whom the people have full confidence, and he will endeavor to merit the continued favor of his customers. He invites the patronage of the people of Nemaha and vicinity.

IF YOU WANT Good Bread TRY A SACK OF Golden Rod Flour

High patent. Every sack guaranteed to give full satisfaction in every respect or money refunded. Always the same. No better flour made. If you want a cheaper flour you cannot do better than to buy the a straight grade flour. It has no superior in a grade flour. Many prefer it to a high patent. For a still cheaper flour try the

Gold Leaf

It is a good flour of that grade. These grades are manufactured by Jamieson & Son, Stella, Nebr., and are on sale at the store of

J. H. Vanderslice NEMAHA, NEBR.

If you buy a sack of either of these grades and it is not just as represented, take it back and your money will be returned.
