

State Best Society

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME L

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1906

NUMBER 41

10
DAY
SALE

SECOND ANNIVERSARY SALE

10
DAY
SALE

Begins Saturday, March 17th.

Closes Wednesday, March 28th

We have made great preparations, with Bargains in every department.
Send for price list.

Railroad Fare Free

For the next 30 Days, to induce early buyers from outside of Auburn, we will pay all railroad fare to and from Auburn from all points within 30 miles. One fare with a $10.00 purchase; round trip with a $20.00 purchase. Present your round trip ticket at our store and we will refund your fare in cash.

FREE BUSS RIDE to and from depot to The Big Store. Just take any transfer line and have them bring you to the store. We will give you tickets for both ways whether you buy or not. Ask for tickets

Cilmore-Armstrong Co.

West of Court House

Auburn, ; ; Nebraska

Reception Friday Evening

We invite you and your friends to attend our reception Friday evening, March 16—doors open at 7 p. m. A great treat, good music, and a Grand Display of New Goods. Come if you possibly can.

CUT PRICE SALE

I have removed my stock of Millinery, etc., to my home and am selling all Millinery, Notions, Ribbons, etc.,

AT AND BELOW COST

Come soon for Bargains

Mrs. Theodore Hill

Local News

Dr Bourne fits glasses. So, Auburn.
D. D. Davis sent us $2 recently on subscription.
Ned Maxwell returned from Lincoln last Saturday.
W. F. Gillespie has moved on the Jacob West farm.
Miss Minnie May returned from Lincoln last Friday.
Marion Minick has moved on the old Davidson Plasters farm.
Best photos in southeastern Nebr. at Criley's. So, Auburn.
C. W. Thomas has moved on Willard Shubert's farm, near Shubert.
Duck hunters have been industrious lately with fairly good results.
Norman Mead has moved on I. N. Cooper's farm south of Nemaha.
E. A. Howe this week moved on his mother's farm northeast of town.
You can get a great big pile of old papers for a nickel at the postoffice.
There has been more changes of farm renters this spring than usual.
Handmade harness in stock at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
See R. E. Bucher for the Queen incubator and brooder. The prices are right.
Harry Harford was given the third degree in Odd Fellowship Saturday night.
R. F. Steuteville of Brownville visited his son, Earle Steuteville, Monday.
For Sale—A forty-acre farm, 2½ miles from Brownville. Inquire at this office.
Hard coal and soft coal—several grades—various prices—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Table Rock came to Nemaha Monday. George is a brother of Mrs. Hadlock and formerly lived here.

We had quite a snow Monday night and Tuesday. About five inches of snow fell.
Misses Lulu Cooper and Maud Burns came down from Peru Friday, returning Monday.
Geo. Rowen has moved from Auburn on the John C. Stokes farm, now owned by J. W. Webber.
Do not fail to attend the cooking exhibition, given on the celebrated Monarch steel range.
R. E. Bucher took the place of the regular fireman on the Beatrice freight Thursday and Friday.
Geo. R. Lindsey has moved on the Seeley farm where Charley Thomas has lived for several years.
Mrs. Chet Sedoras came down from Brownville Monday to visit her mother, Mrs. J. W. Sapp.
It is said there are more wild ducks about the ponds and rivers now than there have been for years.
Harry Kimmel went to Shenandoah, Iowa, Monday, where he will get up a home talent entertainment.
Steva Cooper, who has been living on his father's farm for several years, has moved on his own farm.
Mrs. O. L. Minick of Bracken returned home last Friday after a visit of almost a month in Missouri.
Just received a complete stock of harness goods.
Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Brown, who have been visiting at Pawnee City and vicinity, returned home last Friday.
Just received, a complete line of window shades at
Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
With every 5 cent box of carpet tacks, a beautiful picture is given free at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
All parties owing me are urgently requested to call and settle at once as I need all due me.
MRS. THEO. HILL.
A lot of new books just received at the postoffice.

Mrs. C. P. Barker has been sick for the past two weeks with heart trouble, and does not improve as fast as her friends would like.
John W. White has returned to Nemaha, after an absence of two or three years in Auburn. He has rented W. F. Gillespie's place.
Emery Howe went to Johnson Monday to go to work at his trade as a carpenter, but on account of the storm came back the next day.
W. H. Barker can now furnish the people with never-slip horsehoes—something that has never before been handled here. Try them.
Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Mrs. Geo. Yackley went to Auburn Wednesday to attend the prohibition convention. They returned Thursday.
Wm. Waddle has rented Mrs. Seymour Howe's farm—the home place. Alex Thompson, who had it rented, decided not to take it.
Claud Maxwell, who has been attending the Beatrice business college for some time, returned home Wednesday, having completed the course.
F. L. Woodward was in Auburn Tuesday and Wednesday as a witness in the case of the state vs. Dr. Gandy for attempting to bribe a witness.
We learn that Marshall Pryor is rejoicing over the birth of a fine girl recently, and his brother-in-law, D. C. Holmes, is just as proud of a new boy.
L. W. Cowel, who has been living on Mrs. Howe's farm northeast of town, has moved on Frank Moore's farm, just south of B. H. Moore's home.
Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Shellenbarger, living near Humboldt, came to Nemaha last Saturday to visit Mrs. Shellenbarger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Knapp.
The patrons of the Nemaha postoffice have been getting garden seeds for the past week, sent by the government, by orders of Congressman Pollard.
New books recently received at the postoffice book store: Quincy Adams Sawyer, Sweeter Still than This, Oliver Optic's Works, Horatio Alger's Works, In His Steps, Thelma, and many others.
We received a few days ago a letter from our old friend, J. J. Alexander, of Frankton, Ind., renewing his subscription to The Advertiser. Mr. Alexander is in good health. He desired to be remembered to his many friends in Nemaha.

If in need of furniture do not fail to get prices at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
Stoves—hard coal stoves—soft coal stoves—wood stoves—heating stoves—cook stoves—ranges—all kind of stoves—for sale by the Edward & Bradford Lumber Co.
A surprise party was given Eddie Yackley Friday night, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Yackley. About forty were present and spent a very pleasant evening.
We have been having some winter weather for the past week and it is claimed that the ground hog is getting in his work just to show the Advertiser editor what he can do if he tries.
The Beatrice Creamery Co. will pay 25 cents per pound of butter fat for hand separator cream, delivered in Nemaha. Separators sold on easy terms.
R. E. BUCHER, Agent.
A terrible blizzard visited South Dakota and the northwestern part of Nebraska last Friday. There was some loss of life and considerable stock perished. All trains were delayed.
We have a big assortment of furniture that we are selling at reasonable prices. Special prices made for housekeeping outfits. Try us
Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
O. J. Thorp received a letter Monday from western Colorado, in the Uncompahgre valley where he owns some land. This letter says farmers are plowing and sowing spring wheat now.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Maxwell and Walter S. Maxwell started for western Colorado Tuesday to look at the irrigated land with a view of investing. They go to the same locality where Ora Thorp bought.
Carl E. Sanders has bought Walter S. Maxwell's property in Nemaha, the west half of block 72, with two houses. He will go to housekeeping at once in the new house. R. E. Bucher is living in the old one.
WANTED—District Managers to post signs, advertise and distribute samples. Salary $18.00 weekly, $3.00 per day for expenses. State age and present employment. Ideal Shear Co. 39 Randolph St., Chicago.
A Lively Tussle
with that old enemy of the race, Constipation, often ends in Appendicitis. To avoid all serious trouble with Stomach, Liver and Bowels, take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They perfectly regulate these organs, without pain or discomfort. 25c at W. W. Keeling's druggist.

Walter S. Maxwell has resigned as carrier on rural route No. 2. The patrons of the route have petitioned the postal department for the appointment of C. P. Barker, who has been substitute carrier for several months.
The Advertiser was a little ahead of time last week in announcing the wedding of Glen Harger and Miss Wavie Thorn, as they were not married. Glen will not say just how soon the ceremony will be performed.
Picture Frames
The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have received a good line of picture moulding and are now prepared to make picture frames of any size. Take your pictures there and have them framed.
John W. Minick, who now lives in Otoe county, is feeling as proud as the highest dignitary of the land, all on account of the birth of a fine boy on the first day of March. John has four girls, and the advent of the first boy causes him to rejoice with exceeding great joy. And Grandpa H. T. Minick is stepping pretty high also.
Ed Knapp says there is plenty of moisture in the ground to his certain knowledge. He recently got a man to dig a cistern and when he got down fourteen feet they had to begin drawing out water, and have drawn out several buckets of water daily since then. He is undecided whether to finish it up for a cistern or a well.
We have received several pleasant reminders from Mr. and Mrs. John Watson since they have been in California, the last being a sketch of the city and valley of Santa Barbara, illustrated with a number of fine views. They have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Fisher at Santa Barbara but this week went to San Diego to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bailey. They are in good health and having a fine time. They expect to return home in about a month.
The Nemaha County Holiness Association will meet at the Methodist church in Nemaha next Tuesday night and Wednesday. The following is the program:
Tuesday evening—7:30, Praise service led by Rev. E. D. Gideon; 7:30, Sermon by Rev. Myers.
Wednesday—10:00 a. m., Prayer and Praise led by Rev. G. W. Ayers; 10:30 a. m., Sermon by Rev. E. D. Gideon; 2:00 p. m., Praise Service led by Mrs. Ashby; 2:30 p. m., Sermon by Rev. T. F. Ashby; 4:00 p. m., Business Session; 7:00 p. m., Song and Praise led by Beattie Hillier; 7:30 p. m., Sermon by Rev. Tyler.
Magazines on sale at the postoffice.