

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME L

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1906

NUMBER 42

10
DAY
SALE

SECOND ANNIVERSARY SALE

10
DAY
SALE

Begins Saturday, March 17th.

Closes Wednesday, March 28th

We have made great preparations, with Bargains in every department.
Send for price list.

Railroad Fare Free

For the next 30 Days, to induce early buyers from outside of Auburn, we will pay all railroad fare to and from Auburn from all points within 30 miles. One fare with a $10.00 purchase; round trip with a $20.00 purchase. Present your round trip ticket at our store and we will refund your fare in cash.

FREE BUSS RIDE to and from depot to The Big Store. Just take any transfer line and have them bring you to the store. We will give you tickets for both ways whether you buy or not. Ask for tickets

Cilmore-Armstrong

West of Court House

Auburn, ; ; Nebraska

Reception Friday Evening

We invite you and your friends to attend our reception Friday evening, March 16—doors open at 7 p. m. A great treat, good music, and a Grand Display of New Goods. Come if you possibly can.

CUT PRICE SALE

I have removed my stock of Millinery, etc., to my home and am selling all Millinery, Notions, Ribbons, etc.,

AT AND BELOW COST

Come soon for Bargains

Mrs. Theodore Hill

Local News

Ed Seid is now one of the clerks in J. H. Vanderslice's store.

Best photos in southeastern Nebraska at Criley's. So, Auburn.

Harry Hoover is at Johnson this week, buying and shipping stock.

Handmade harness in stock at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

See R. E. Bucher for the Queen incubator and brooder. The prices are right.

Ted Scovell, who has been at Kearney for some time, returned to Nemaha Monday.

Miss Nora Ayres went to Auburn Thursday of last week, returning Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Sanders are now keeping house in their home northwest of the school house.

Opal Seabury, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Paris, near Howe, returned home Monday.

Hard coal and soft coal—several grades—various prices—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Just received, a complete line of window shades at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

H. C. Cathcart, son-in-law of P. G. Swan, is now in western Idaho, where he is working with a surveying gang.

Mrs. H. E. Williams came up from Shubert Friday morning and visited friends and relatives until Monday evening.

The fellows that predicted plenty of winter weather this month are now saying "I told you so," and the rest of us can't say a word.

Frank Titus has been looking after the grain buying business while Earle Gilbert is away. This adds another to his long list of businesses.

Dr. James Kay has been awarded the contract for furnishing medical aid to the poor in the eastern part of the county, including the poor farm.

Mrs. Theo. Hill has quite a reputation as a milliner, as an Omaha lady sent down here for her wedding hat. Mrs. Hill made it and sent it up by express this week.

Do not forget the cooking exhibition at the Edward & Bradford hardware store next week.

J. W. Wolfe presented C. P. Barker, who is now carrying the mail on rural route No. 2, with some spare ribs and tenderloin Thursday of last week.

J. W. Ritchey opened his store to the public last Saturday and is having a good trade already—much better than he anticipated to start out with.

W. W. Sanders has been reappointed notary public for another six years, his commission expiring March 6, 1912. He has been notary public now for twelve years.

Miss Bessie Hillier came in from Johnson Tuesday afternoon to attend the meeting of the Nemaha county holiness association, returning Thursday forenoon.

Preaching at the Christian church Sunday, March 18, by the pastor. Subject, at 11 a. m., The virtue in a commandment; at 7:30 p. m., The individual Saviour.

Rev. J. W. Sapp returned from Exeter Monday and says he is home to stay now, and is ready to perform the marriage ceremony for all applicants with the legal papers.

The Granger has started a piano contest, and the following persons from Nemaha and vicinity have been nominated as candidates: Misses May Kerker, Avis Carse, Frankie Hoover and Maggie Hacker.

Mrs. John I. Dressler went to Auburn Tuesday to visit a few hours with her sister, Mrs. Reese Williams, who was in from Ord and was going to return home. Mrs. Dressler came back in the afternoon.

The many friends of Mrs. Ann Maxwell will regret to learn that she has been very sick with pneumonia, but will be glad to learn that she is now out of danger. She is visiting relatives at Sterling, Ill.

The first volume of Morton's History of Nebraska was delivered to subscribers here last week. It is a very valuable addition to the literature of the state. Great care has been taken in the preparation of this work, and no expense has been spared to make it accurate as to dates and facts. It will be invaluable in future years.

Miss Rose M. Seabury who has been with the Harry Kimmel Co. for the past month returned home Friday. She says wild cat shows don't suit her and that she will make Nemaha her home in the future.

Saturday night and Sunday morning we had the heaviest snow fall of the winter. The snow was light and drifted considerably, as the wind was blowing pretty hard. Monday night we had about two inches more snow.

Nemaha will have three or four new stores open the first of April—Earle Gilbert, general merchandise, F. L. Woodward, drugs, W. W. Keeling, a racket and feed store, and Mrs. Hill will open her millinery and notion store by that time.

Louis Edwards and Miss Alta Renfrow will be married at Omaha Wednesday of next week, so we are informed. Miss Alta's many Nemaha friends will rejoice with her in her happiness and trust she will be blessed in her wedded life.

Mrs. J. W. Sapp is visiting in the western part of the state and Rev. Sapp is trying to cook and keep house. He says it takes all his time to wash dishes and sweep, when he does either but he doesn't think it is necessary to either wash dishes or sweep every day.

C. P. Barker thinks the people on rural route No. 2 are the best people anywhere. They have been feeding him on cake and hot coffee and other good things during the storm. His wife says he is getting so stuck up he hardly looks at common grub any more.

Notice of Village Election

Notice is hereby given that a general election will be held in the village of Nemaha, Nebraska, on Tuesday, April 3, 1906, for the election of two (2) members of the village board of trustees for the term of two (2) years. The polls will be opened at 9 o'clock a. m. and will remain open until 7 o'clock p. m. Election will be held at the Advertiser office.

By order of the board of trustees.
M. W. KNAPP, Chairman.
ELMER E. ALLEN, Clerk.

BROWN'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

5000 students graduated in eighteen years

Students enroll any time
Write for catalogue D

Geo. W. Brown, Jr., Prop.
1519 O street Lincoln, Nebr.

Stoves—hard coal stoves—soft coal stoves—wood stoves—heating stoves—cook stoves—ranges—all kind of stoves—for sale by the Edward & Bradford Lumber Co.

The Beatrice Creamery Co. will pay 25 cents per pound of butter fat for hand separator cream, delivered in Nemaha. Separators sold on easy terms. R. E. BUCHER, Agent.

To the people of Nemaha and Vicinity:

Our store is open and we are ready for business.

We have a well assorted stock of

General Merchandise

Come in and see us. Our prices are as low as any, quality considered.

Special for Saturday Afternoon

A big assortment of Glassware—your choice 10 cents. None will be sold before noon

Butter and eggs accepted same as cash

JNO. W. RITCHEY
Nemaha, Nebr.