

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME L

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1906

NUMBER 45

GRAND OPENING

ON WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11

My new store will be opened to the public. Everybody is invited to call and inspect the stock. It is very complete, including

Dry Goods, Gents' Furnishings Shoes and Groceries

all new and up to date—not an old article in the stock.

Specials for Wednesday:

Good Apron Gingham, 5 cents per yard
Reliable Percales, double width, 7 cents per yard

See my line of 10c. China and Glassware

Every lady attending the Opening will be given a pretty thimble as a souvenir.

EARLE GILBERT

Local News

Ned Maxwell came down from Lincoln Tuesday.

The bank had signs painted on the windows this week.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward returned from Kansas City Wednesday.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr. at Criley's. So, Auburn.

If you want a talking machine—a good one—see W. E. Seid.

We had a rain Tuesday night and another one Wednesday night.

New designs in silks and mercerized novelties for waists at Earl Gilbert's.

Misses Lizzie and Wavie Thorn visited Auburn friends Friday and Saturday.

Earle Gilbert went to Nebraska City Thursday morning to buy his stock of groceries.

With every 5 cent box of carpet tacks, a beautiful picture is given free at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Earl Gilbert has a fine line of men's hats, including the John B. Stetson.

See R. E. Bucher for the Queen incubator and brooder. The prices are right.

Mrs. S. Howe went to Stella Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Wm Moore.

Mrs. C. F. Zook went to Auburn Saturday and visited friends until Monday.

The new telephone directories for the Nemaha exchange will be issued this week.

J. M. Burns went to Beatrice Saturday and came back this week with a team Charley had bought.

Rev. Kerber of Vesta will preach a missionary sermon at the Methodist church next Sunday evening.

It is thought that E. E. Hill, the new druggist, will be here Saturday to begin fitting up his drug store.

Hard coal and soft coal—several grades—various prices—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Mrs. Theo. Hill expects to get into her new building the first of next week.

Ed Knapp and Eddie Yackley run a drag over our streets Friday afternoon improving them wonderfully.

Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh and Mrs. E. E. Rumbaugh went to Omaha Friday to visit relatives for a few days.

Just received a complete stock of harness goods.
Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Geo. L. Kennedy, one of the substantial farmers of north London precinct, was a Nemaha visitor Friday.

R. M. Gillan's many Nemaha friends are pleased to have him elected mayor of Auburn. He will make a good official.

Dan Shadley, now living in the western part of the state, visited his sister, Mrs. W. T. Russell, over Sunday.

Emery Howe started for Yuma, Colorado, Tuesday. He works at the carpenter trade and looks after his homestead.

We will print three pages of local matter hereafter, so our readers after this week will find home matter on one of the inside pages.

Alva Maxwell came down from Lincoln Saturday and will probably remain at home for awhile—he does not know how long.

A. R. Young and daughter, Miss Ida, who have been staying with Rufus Rowen since last October, moved back to Auburn this week.

W. H. Barker can now furnish the people with never-slip horseshoes—something that has never before been handled here. Try them.

Go to the Edwards & Bradford hardware store and see and hear the Victor talking machine now on exhibition there. W. E. Seid is agent.

Miss Grace Sanders of London precinct, who has been attending school at Nemaha this year, went home Friday to help with the spring work.

On account of delays in finishing the building, the opening of Earl Gilbert's store will not be held until Wednesday of next week. See the advertisement.

Call at the postoffice and see the Herald county map. The map and the Auburn Herald one year for $2. Subscriptions received at the postoffice.

Harry Kimmel has joined the Shaw-Gallagher Comedy Co. and is now in Kansas. He joined the company at Fairbury the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Curtright, who have been in Otoe county for several months, returned to Nemaha last week and will now remain at home for awhile.

Stoves—hard coal stoves—soft coal stoves—wood stoves—heating stoves—cook stoves—ranges—all kind of stoves—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

The evening services at the Methodist church, including prayer meeting and Epworth League, will begin at 8 o'clock instead of at 7:30, until further notice.

Ladies, have you seen the style book with samples of cloth of skirts, suits, jackets, coats and raincoats made to order, at Earl Gilbert's? Satisfaction guaranteed.

Elijah Stanley has recently had his pension increased from $10 to $12 per month. This is the second increase he has got in less than a year, the other one being granted May 18, 1905, and the last one Jan. 18, 1906.

Picture Frames

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have received a good line of picture moulding and are now prepared to make picture frames of any size. Take your pictures there and have them framed.

EMBROIDERY SALE

For Saturday, April 7th. Only.

We will offer 450 yards of Embroidery at the very low Special Price of

5 CTS. PER YARD

These Embroideries usually sell for from 7½ to 12½ cents per yard, but owing to a fortunate purchase we are enabled to offer them at this price.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Nemaha, Nebr.

Just received, a complete line of window shades at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Contrary to the old saying, March came in lamblike and went out lamblike—but the lion got in his fine work between times.

Ira B. Farrier, B. & M. agent at Bracken, has been transferred to Angus, leaving last Saturday. He is succeeded by F. W. Black who comes from Rockford.

Mrs. J. F. Bennett and Miss Mabel who have been visiting Mrs. John Lambert and other friends for several weeks, returned to their home in Auburn Saturday.

The election Tuesday was exceedingly quiet as there was but one ticket. Only 27 votes were cast. Elmer E. Allen received 22 votes and W. H. Barker 21. The rest were scattering.

W. E. Wheelon has decided to leave Nemaha and go west—just where he has not yet decided, but is on a trade for a business establishment in Franklin, Nebr. He will leave the first of next week. He has a public sale Saturday. See notice elsewhere.

The Christian ladies aid society will give an Easter social and bazaar at the Minick hall Saturday night, April 14. Sandwiches, boiled eggs, ice cream and cake will be served. In the bazaar will be found many useful and ornamental articles. Homemade candies will also be sold. Everybody invited.

Mrs. W. T. Russell was in Auburn Friday and Saturday helping take care of her brother, John Shadley, who has been very sick all winter with dropsy of the heart. Friday it was thought he could not live more than 48 hours, but Saturday morning was better. However, there is no hope of his permanent recovery.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call in and settle within the next week and oblige
Very respectfully,
E. F. PARIS.

A. G. WARREN
Painter, Paper Hanger
Decorator

I have all the latest designs in Wall Paper, and can furnish you any style or quantity you want. Prices from 10c per roll up. Work guaranteed.

Phone me at central office or write
A. G. WARREN
NEMAHA - - - NEBRASKA

BROWN'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

5000 students graduated in eighteen years

Students enroll any time
Write for catalogue D

Geo. W. Brown, Jr., Prop.
1519 O street Lincoln, Nebr.

Special for Saturday, April 7

We will offer special for Saturday, April 7th

MEN'S AND BOYS' HATS

And don't overlook the

Millinery Department

as we will have a good assortment to select from at that time at very prices.

WATCH THE PAPER

We will have something Special for Saturday, April 14th.

We will pay the Highest Market Price for all Produce.

J. H. VANDERSLICE