

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME L

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1906

NUMBER 46

I wish to thank the people of Nemaha and vicinity for their liberal patronage since the opening.

I shall continue to put on sale some

Special Bargains

FOR SATURDAY ONLY

will continue the following:

200 yards Gingham, 5 cents
200 yards Percale, 7 cents

Also

35 pairs best quality Fedora Kid Gloves for ladies, all sizes, new colors and black, 90 cents per pair

For Saturday Only!

EARLE GILBERT

PHONE 42

NEMAHA, NEB.

Local News

See Seid for the best talking machine made.

Call at the postoffice book store for bibles.

Hill Bros. is the name of the new drug firm.

Louie Kerker is now clerk in Earle Gilbert's store.

Ladies' picnic panama hats 25 cents at Earle Gilbert's.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr. at Criley's. So. Auburn.

E. E. Bumbaugh has again taken charge of his barber shop.

See Earle Gilbert's fine line of shoes for men, women, boys, girls and babies.

J. W. Ritchey went to St Joe Wednesday evening to buy more spring and summer goods.

With every 5 cent box of carpet tacks, a beautiful picture is given free at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Mrs. Theo. Hill moved into her new brick building Wednesday.

See R. E. Bucher for the Queen incubator and brooder. The prices are right.

A good stock of records on hand at all times. See W. E. Seid, at Edwards & Bradford.

People who believe in signs and superstitions are hoping it won't rain next Sunday.

Remember that we now print three pages. See the fourth page for interesting matter

Our merchants find that it pays to advertise. It costs a little but it brings the customers.

Mr and Mrs. A. F. Walsh returned to Lincoln Saturday. Mrs. A. Matthews went with them.

T. J. Rumbaugh has sent his resignation to the postal department as carrier on rural route No. 1.

Hard coal and soft coal—several grades—various prices—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Remember the social and bazaar at the Minick ball Saturday night.

Rev. G. W. Ayers preached a missionary sermon at Vesta last Sunday.

The famous Victor talking machine for sale by W. E. Seid, at Edwards & Bradford.

Frank Harford and his mother went to Randall Kansas, Monday, to visit friends and attend a wedding.

It rained Saturday, Sunday and Sunday night. We certainly have been having plenty of moisture.

Just received a complete stock of harness goods. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Cyrus Minick, who has been attending school at Des Moines, Iowa, for several months, returned home Saturday.

J. B. McNew, a relief agent, has been in charge of the B. & M. station at this point since the first of last week.

Examination for rural mail carriers will be held Saturday of next week. Both the Nemaha carriers have resigned.

We made a mistake last week in the officers of the Junior League. Mary Buel is treasurer instead of secretary and Essie White is secretary.

C. O. Snow drove in from Auburn Saturday and cried W. E. Wheelon's sale, even if it was raining, and got good prices for the stuff sold.

W. H. Lemon, the owner of the St. Deroin cable ferry has again taken charge of the ferry and will again cross the public without danger or delay.

W. H. Smithers who had Elmer Rumbaugh's barber shop leased for the past four months, moved to Peru the first of the week, where he will run a shop.

Call at the postoffice and see the Herald county map. The map and the Auburn Herald one year for $2 Subscriptions received at the postoffice.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders went to Auburn Saturday and attended the dedication services of the Avenue Methodist church on Sunday, returning home the next day.

Stoves—hard coal stoves—soft coal stoves—wood stoves—heating stoves—cook stoves—ranges—all kind of stoves—for sale by the Edward & Bradford Lumber Co.

Frank Shadley, an old Brownville boy but who is now living at Reynolds, Nebr., gave us a pleasant call Tuesday, in company with his brother-in-law, W. T. Russell.

E. E. Hill and wife, of Lincoln, arrived in Nemaha Monday and have commenced housekeeping in Mrs. Alice A. Minick's house. Mr. Hill expects to get his new drug stock in next week.

W. E. Wheelon started for Wayne, Kansas, Tuesday, but stopped at Alma to look at the stock of groceries for which he is talking of trading. Mrs. Wheelon went to Auburn last Saturday to visit Ed's mother for a few days

James Burns of Nemaha, and his son Charley have rented the Willing farm, about five miles south-east of Shubert, and have already taken possession. The elder Burns is well known in Shufert, where he has many friends.—Shubert Citizen.

The Christian ladies aid society will give an Easter social and bazaar at the Minick ball Saturday night, April 14. Sandwiches, boiled eggs, ice cream and cake will be served. In the bazaar will be found many useful and ornamental articles. Homemade candies will also be sold. Everybody invited.

Picture Frames

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have received a good line of picture moulding and are now prepared to make picture frames of any size. Take your pictures there and have them framed.

SEASONABLE : GOODS

We have a fine line of goods for consisting of Lawns, India Linens, Persian Lawns, Toile-Lu-Nord Gingham, Batiste, Paris Chiffon, heavy White Goods, Waist Patterns, Laces, Embroideries, Ribbons, etc.

SUMMER WEAR

Ladies' Fancy White and Colored Hose

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Nemaha, Nebr.

Just received, a complete line of window shades at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

The Methodist ladies aid society had a carpet rag tacking at the home of Mrs. Seymour Howe Tuesday night. Twenty ladies were present and a whole lot of work was accomplished.

Mrs. Earle Gilbert is helping in the store now, and is mighty good help too. Earle, Mrs. Earle, and Louie Kerker are kept busy sometimes and they call on Mrs. Rose Gilbert and Frank Titus to help out quite often.

Mrs. Florence Jarvis took a photograph of Mr and Mrs Earl Thompson's three month's old baby while it was broken out with smallpox. Mrs. Jarvis was outside the house and took the photograph through the window glass. It shows the marks of the disease very plainly.

Rev. E. B. Maxcy preached the missionary sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night in place of Rev. Kerber, who went to Elk Creek. The discourse was a good one, being mainly what he had heard at the great missionary conference held at Omaha last week.

Earle Gilbert had a big trade Wednesday afternoon at his opening. Although the farmers are very busy just now, the store was crowded all the afternoon, the ladies being the main portion of the crowd. Part of the time Earle had to call in two extra men just to count eggs that were brought in. Earle has an excellent and carefully selected stock, everything new, latest styles and patterns, and has one of the best storerooms in the county.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call in and settle within the next week and oblige
Very respectfully,
E. L. PARIS.

BROWN'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

5000 students graduated in eighteen years

Students enroll any time
Write for catalogue D
Geo. W. Brown, Jr., Prop.
1519 O street Lincoln, Nebr.

MRS. THEO. HILL

Has moved in her new brick building and will be ready for business on

MONDAY, APRIL 16

The ladies of Nemaha and vicinity are invited to call.
The Very Latest Styles Millinery

Special for Saturday, April 14

Men's and Boys'

DRESS SHIRTS

A good assortment to select from.

And don't forget the

Millinery Department

Hats from 5 cents up

Be sure and call and see for yourself

J. H. VANDERSLICE