

EX-MAYOR CRUMBO RECOMMENDS PE-RU-NA

My Endorsement of Pe-ru-na is Based On Its Merits."
—Ed. Crumbo.

ED. CRUMBO, Ex-Mayor of New Albany, Ind., writes from 511 E. Oak street:
"My endorsement of Peruna is based on its merits.
"If a man is sick he looks anxiously for something which will cure him, and Peruna will do the work.
"I know that it will cure catarrh of the head or stomach, indigestion, headache and any weary or sick feeling.
"It is bound to help anyone, if used according to directions.
"I also know dozens of men who speak in the highest terms of Peruna and have yet to hear of anyone being disappointed in it."
Mr. Crumbo, in a later letter, dated Aug. 25, 1904, says:
"My health is good, at present, but if I should have to take any more medicine I will fall back on Peruna."

Not long ago the performance in the auditorium of a Seville theater was far more exciting than that on the stage. Two persons continued applauding a player while most of the audience were hissing. Some of the latter attacked the two applauders causing fractured skulls and death.

Gov. Miguel A. Otero of New Mexico, is one of the most extensive sheep breeders in the southwest, his flocks in Guadalupe county alone numbering 65,000 head. He is a native of the territory, a scion of one of the oldest families and speaks Spanish and English with equal fluency. The governor is now nearing the end of his second term and it is considered probable that he will be reappointed.

A LIVING DEATH

Vividly Described by a Citizen of Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Andrew Johnson, 411 West Twelfth St., Sioux Falls, S. D., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life. My doctor, from a careful analysis of the urine and a diagnosis of my case, had told me I could not live six weeks. I was struck down in the street with kidney trouble, and for a whole year could not leave the house. I lost flesh, my eyes failed me, I bloated at times, my back hurt and I suffered a living death. There seemed no hope until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Then I began to improve. The pain left gradually, the swelling subsided, I gained appetite and weight, and to make a long story short, I got well!"

OUR BUDGET OF FUN.

HUMOROUS SAYINGS AND DOINGS HERE AND THERE.

Jokes and Jokelets that Are Supposed to Have Been Recently Born—Sayings and Doings that Are Old, Curious and Laughable—The Week's Humor.

The Obese Lady—The wild man of Borneo will not appear this week.
The Living Skeleton—What's the trouble—is he sick?
The Obese Lady—No; gone to visit his parents in Indiana.

Not a Charity.
Smith—Is Green a charitable man?
Jones—Well, I don't know whether you would call it charity or not, but he is always giving himself away.

Financially Speaking.
Tom—Miss Elderleigh's money is her only attraction.
Jack—Well, that should add interest to her charms.

Thoroughly Aroused.

"Agnes looks dreadfully bad. My how thin she has grown?"
"Doesn't she realize her condition? Hasn't she done anything to save herself?"
"Oh, yes, indeed. She consulted her doctor yesterday and she changed dressmakers a month ago."

Proof Positive.
Askitt—What proof have we that the good die young?
Knollt—The yarns of the "oldest inhabitant."

Another View of It.
Hixon—I admire your wife's wit. She certainly has a ready tongue.
Dixon—It's always ready to go but seldom ready to stop.

Important Epochs.
"There are only two important epochs in a woman's life, at best," remarked the cheerful idiot.
"Name them," suggested the fluffy-haired blonde who typewrites between meals because she needs the money.
"Before and after marriage," replied the c. i. with diabolical grin.

Imposition.
Bifkins—The current number of Blank's magazine is almost wholly a reprint of last month's issue.
Mifkins—You don't say!
Bifkins—Fact. There are but three new advertisements in the whole ninety-six pages.

Feared the Worst.
The sad-faced man was awaiting his trial on the charge of bigamy.
"Keep up your courage," said his attorney. "I'll see that you get justice."
"That," replied the victim of his own foolishness, "is just what I'm afraid of."

Exception.
"What goes up must come down," quoted the man with the proverb habit.
"Oh, I don't know," rejoined the skeptical person. "I once invested some coin in a get-rich-quick enterprise that went up and stayed up."

What He Thought.

Smithson—I want to hire a horse. He must be gentle and quiet, mustn't bite or kick, or—
Livery Stable Keeper—You'll find a toy store in the next block. You want a hobbyhorse.

Cause and Effect.
She—Does the summer make you long for the seashore?
He—Yes; and the seashore makes me short for the following winter.

Often Seems So.
"Man," remarked the moralizer, "ever has the keenest longing for the unattainable."
"Which," remarked the demoralizer, "may account for the fact that a fellow is always so much more anxious to fight when somebody is holding him."

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND — OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or official names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—"Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.

SAVED BABY LYON'S LIFE.

Awful Slight from that Dreadful Complaint, Infantile Eczema—Mother Praises Cuticura Remedies.
"Our baby had that dreadful complaint, Infantile Eczema, which afflicted him for several months, commencing at the top of his head, and at last covering his whole body. His sufferings were untold and constant misery. In fact, there was nothing we would not have done to have given him relief. We finally procured a full set of the Cuticura Remedies, and in about three or four days he began to show a brighter spirit and really laughed, for the first time in a year. In about ninety days he was fully recovered. Praise for the Cuticura Remedies has always been our greatest pleasure, and there is nothing too good that we could say in their favor, for they certainly saved our baby's life, for he was the most awful sight I ever beheld prior to the treatment of the Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. Maebelle Lyon, 1826 Appleton Ave., Parsons, Kan., July 18, 1905."
