

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME L

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1906

NUMBER 47

SUNFLOWER SHOES

The Kind that Make Your Feet Glad

A fine line of

Men's Hats, Shirts and Ties

DAINTY RIBBONS, LACES and TURNOVERS

Note the qualities and prices

Cash Register Checks given with every purchase. Save them—they are good for fine premiums. Look over the list.

A fine line of Heinz's Pickles, Olives and Salad Dressing, in bulk and bottled, just received

EARLE GILBERT

PHONE 42

NEMAHA, NEB

Local News

Victor flour at Gilbert's.

Dr Bourne fits glasses. So, Auburn.

See Seid for the best talking machine made.

Call at the postoffice book store for bibles.

Charley Smiley of Shubert visited his parents Sunday.

Vest pocket dictionaries at the postoffice book store.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr. at Criley's. So, Auburn.

H. T. Minick went to Dunbar Saturday to visit his son, John Minick.

Eli M. Knapp, living near Stella, was a Nemaha visitor Wednesday.

We had a heavy frost Sunday morning, and standing water had ice on it.

See R. E. Bucher for the Queen incubator and brooder. The prices are right.

Miss Grace Peabody is helping in Earle Gilbert's store Saturday afternoons.

A. G. Warren moved in Mrs. Theo Hill's house, south of the lumber yard, Thursday.

Ned Crother, who has been at Alma, Nebr., the past winter, returned home Saturday.

A good stock of records on hand at all times. See W. E. Seid, at Edwards & Bradford.

Our merchants paid 13 cents for eggs Saturday while neighboring towns paid only 11 and 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Morris came in from Auburn Saturday and visited friends over Sunday.

Mrs. Theo. Hill is now keeping house in the back rooms of her millinery establishment.

Miss Blanch Williams came up from Shubert Tuesday to visit her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Titus.

James M. Burns moved to Richards, son county Wednesday, on the Will Willing farm near Shubert.

Cyrus Minick went to Syracuse last Friday morning to visit relatives returning Wednesday evening.

Leslie W. Woodward came up from Kansas City Thursday and visited his parents and friends until Saturday.

With every 5 cent box of carpet tacks, a beautiful picture is given free at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Hard coal and soft coal—several grades—various prices—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Ned Maxwell started for Mystic, South Dakota, Wednesday, to go to work for the Auburn Gold Mining Co.

It now looks like there would be a big crop of all kinds of fruit and the prospect for all kinds of crops is good.

Mrs. Frank Gillespie of Trenton, Mo., arrived in Nemaha last week on a visit to Mrs. John Hawxby and other friends.

Our merchants have been paying 13 cents per dozen for eggs all this week. In Auburn and other towns they pay only 12 cents.

The show cases and other fixtures for the new drug store are arriving but it will be several days before the store is ready for business.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. John Watson will leave California for Nemaha next week. Mrs. Sina Morris will remain in California.

Elmer E. Allen went to Kansas City Monday night with a shipment of cattle and hogs sent by his father, F. E. Allen, from Bracken.

Delbert Webb, who has been attending the Lincoln business college, has been sick with measles for several days, but is getting better.

The road supervisor got a crowd of men Monday and had enough work done on the St. Deroin narrows to make the road passable again.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens came in from Johnson Saturday and visited Mr. and Mrs. John E. Crother and other relatives until Monday.

Alva Maxwell started for the Uncompahgre valley in Colorado Tuesday to look at the land. He will possibly locate there if he likes the country.

Mr. Murphy of Humboldt returned home Monday after a few day's visit with his daughters, Mrs. W. E. Seid and Miss Mildred Murphy and friends.

Stoves—hard coal stoves—soft coal stoves—wood stoves—heating stoves—cook stoves—ranges—all kind of stoves—for sale by the Edward & Bradford Lumber Co.

Walter S. Maxwell started for western Kansas Monday to see some parties about some Colorado land which he is talking of buying. He returned Thursday afternoon.

We have a big assortment of furniture that we are selling at reasonable prices. Special prices made for housekeeping outfits. Try us.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

The famous Victor talking machine for sale by W. E. Seid, at Edwards & Bradford.

Just received a complete stock of harness goods.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

W. H. Lemon, the owner of the St. Deroin cable ferry has again taken charge of the ferry and will again cross the public without danger or delay.

Call at the postoffice and see the Herald county map. The map and the Auburn Herald one year for $2. Subscriptions received at the postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Sanders went to Peru Friday afternoon to attend the meeting of the teacher's association Saturday. They returned home Saturday evening.

A. E. Miller, another relief agent, is now in charge of the B. & M. station at Nemaha. He relieved John B. McNew Tuesday evening. Mr. McNew desired a lay-off.

The examination for carriers on the Nemaha rural free delivery routes will be held at Auburn tomorrow before Postmaster Freeman. There are three or four applicants.

R. E. Bucher was quite sick for several days with inflammation of the bowels but is now feeling almost well again, though yet weak from the effects of the sickness.

The Beatrice Creamery Co. will pay 25 cents per pound of butter fat for hand separator cream, delivered in Nemaha. Separators sold on easy terms. R. E. BUCHER, Agent.

John Shadley of Auburn died Wednesday after several months' suffering from dropsy of the heart. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. W. T. Russell and a brother-in-law of Joe Bunger.

A. L. P. Thompson and family, who were quarantined for three weeks on account of their little grandson having smallpox at their house, were released last Sunday, and feel like they had got out of jail.

Dort Stokes came in from Beatrice last Friday, stopping at Howe and visiting his parents until the next afternoon when he came to Nemaha to see his friends. He went back to Beatrice Monday.

H. C. M. Burgess of Lincoln, formerly chairman of the republican state central committee, was a pleasant caller Saturday. He was in Nemaha in the interest of the National fire insurance company of Omaha.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that horses and cattle must not be lariatied on the streets of Nemaha. Parties doing this will be prosecuted.

By order of the board of trustees.

Our merchants pay the highest price possible for butter, eggs and produce of all kinds, and sell goods at lowest prices. They have good stocks of new goods and are all doing a good business. They deserve the patronage of the farmers and are getting it.

Harry Kimmel came back to Nemaha Wednesday evening. He was taken sick in Kansas and had to quit the troupe he was with. He then went to Shenandoah, Iowa, and put on a home talent show and then came to Nemaha. He is not well yet but is some better.

Picture Frames

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have received a good line of picture moulding and are now prepared to make picture frames of any size. Take your pictures there and have them framed.

T. J. Cummings of Crab Orchard was shaking hands with his many friends in Nemaha Wednesday afternoon and Thursday forenoon. Jeff came in to get some trees and shrubbery from the Titus Nursery. He says he has turned his farm over to his son and now lives in town and is taking his ease.

JUST RECEIVED

a full line of

SLIPPERS

For Ladies and Children in the latest styles of Leather and Canvas

White Canvas Slippers will be in demand for Summer Wear. See our line.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

Handmade harness in stock at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

If you want a good fountain pen buy the Eagle Flash self filling pen at the postoffice—only $1.50—guaranteed.

If in need of furniture do not fail to get prices at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

C. L. Eaton, superintendent of the McCook division of the Burlington railroad, arrived in Lincoln yesterday. While here he tendered his private secretaryship to A. F. Walsh. The appointment was accepted by Mr. Walsh and he will report for duty today at Superintendent Eaton's headquarters at McCook—State Journal, Apr. 9.

A petition is being circulated and generally signed asking our village trustees to pass an ordinance requiring owners of chickens in Nemaha to keep them shut up from April 1st to October 1st. The man that makes garden doesn't want to have it all dug up by his neighbors' chickens. The ordinance will probably be passed at the next meeting of the board.

Resignations seem to be the order of the day on the mail carrying business in Nemaha. First Walter S. Maxwell resigned as carrier on rural route No. 2. Then Thos. J. Rumbaugh resigned as carrier on route No. one. On Wednesday Eli M. Kuapp, who has had the contract for several years of carrying the mail from the post-office to the depot, sent in his resignation.

C. F. Zook is getting to be an expert in putting in the high priced gasoline lighting systems. He put in Earle Gilbert's and this week has put in the same kind for Hill's drug store. There is a big saving in price by getting the work done at home and it is done just as well as if an expert came here from the city.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call in and settle within the next week and oblige Very respectfully, E. L. PARIS.

A. G. WARREN
Painter, Paper Hanger
Decorator

I have all the latest designs in Wall Paper, and can furnish you any style or quantity you want. Prices from 10c per roll up. Work guaranteed.

Phone me at central office or write
A. G. WARREN
NEMAHA - - NEBRASKA

BROWN'S
BUSINESS COLLEGE

5000 students graduated in eighteen years

Students enroll any time

Write for catalogue D

Geo. W. Brown, Jr., Prop.
1519 O street Lincoln, Nebr.