Nemaha, : : Nebraska

We had another rain Monday night.

Bicycle supplies at Keeling's. Bicycles repaired.

Elmer E. Allen got a new rubber tired road wagon a few days ago.

Geo. S. Christy of Johnson was a Nemaha visitor Monday evening.

Rev. J. W. Sapp preaches at Shubert next Sunday, morning and evening.

Elmer E. Rumbaugh is crippled with rheumatism in his foot and ankle

Delph Farmer of Lincoln visited his cousin, Miss Nera Aynes, from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. H. M. Sherwood and Miss Ethel went to Shubert Monday evening to visit friends for a few days.

The hardest rain this season fell Friday afternoon of last week. It wet up the ground in good shape.

Miss Stella Washburn was sick one day this week and her sister, Miss Bessie Washburn, taught in her place.

Noah Colerick and family, who have been living at Alliance, Nebr., for several years, returned to Nemaha Monday.

Perry Rowen came down from Lincoln Monday. He returned to Lincoln Thursday and will probably start for Wyoming today.

Mrs. W. W. Keeling went to Omaha Monday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Culver, and attend the grand lodge of the Eastern Star.

John M. Clark shipped a car load of posts to his brother, James H. Clark, at Smith Center, Kansas, this week. Most of them were hedge posts.

A number of our farmers have been getting $1.50 to $2.50 per day for eggs this spring. It pays to raise chickens at the present high prices for eggs.

High bred barred Plymouth Rock eggs. 50c per 15 or $1.50 for 50 eggs. Finest stock in state.

W. W. LIEBHART.

Hill Bros., druggists, are getting in their new stock of drugs and sundries and it will be but a short time now until Nemaha will again have a first class drug store.

Myra Minick, daughter of Oscar L. Minick, came to Nemaha Sunday to attend school the remainder of the year. She is staying at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Elmer E. Allen.

Von Farson went to Shubert last Sunday and started in to catch in a ball game but soon caught a ball on his right thumb that bursted it in one place, so he is laying off from work for a few days until it gets to feeling better.

Fred Hoover thinks he is afflicted worse than Job. He has a carbuncle on the back of his neck, an abscess on one hip, the toothache, and a few days ago he cut the end off of one of his forefingers. He is wondering what will strike him next.

Notice

The Hoover pastures are now ready for stock. Parties in town having cows they desire pastured will please call at the bank, pay for pasturage, and then turn cows in.

F. L. WOODWARD.

Next Sunday is the third quarterly meeting of the Methodist church. Services will be held at Brownville in the forenoon. Dr. Geo. I. Wright, presiding elder, will be present and preach. Quarterly conference will be held at Brownville at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, who have been visiting in California for several months, returned home Monday. It is said that Uncle John was so glad to get home that he kissed every woman on the depot platform. And the women were so glad to see him that not one of them objected.

Miss Minnie May's health has been poor for some time and thought recently she would have to quit the millinery business. But on Monday Miss Ora Morgan of Watson, Mo., came to Nemaha and will assist in the work, and Miss May now thinks she can go ahead with the business. Miss Morgan is a niece of J. H. Vanderslice. She will probably remain here for a month.

Did you see those dollar watches at Keeling's? They're all right.

The village trustees have had a large number of trees cut out of the park. They were entirely too thick, as they are getting quite large, and on that account are killing the grass.

Judge McCarty has appointed F. L. Woodward administrator of the estate of Mrs. S. C. Cummings, deceased. This action was taken at the request of Mrs. Israel Landis, Mrs. Cummings' daughter, who lives in Silver Lake, Ind.

Charley Burns came in from Beatrice Monday afternoon and the next day went to the fruit farm near Shubert which he has rented with his father. His father, J. M. Burns, drove up after him. They have an eighty-acre farm over half of which is an apple orchard. There is a fine prospect for a big crop this year.
