Dr Bourne fits glasses. So, Auburn.

Dr. J. W. Bourne of Auburn was a Nemaha visitor Monday.

Harry Hoover shipped two car loads of hogs to Nebraska City Monday night.

W. H. Lemon, the owner of the St. Deroin cable ferry has again taken charge of the ferry and will again cross the public without danger or delay.

J. H. Seid sold a number of fat hogs to Harry Hoover, delivering them Monday, and two big fellows died from the heat. It is quite a loss now as hogs are a good price.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call in and settle within the next week and oblige
Very respectfully,
E. L. PARIS.

The Beatrice Creamery Co. will pay 25 cents per pound of butter fat for hand separator cream, delivered in Nemaha. Separators sold on easy terms
R. E. BUCHER, Agent.

G. N. Titus has been in Glen Rock precinct for ten or twelve days assisting in spraying the 80-acre orchard which Nat planted a few years ago and which is now in good bearing condition and loaded with bloom. A government expert is superintending the work of spraying. It is hoped the spraying will result in a big crop this year of fine apples.

About all of our farmers have their corn planted.

Wm. G. Maxwell started for Norton, Kansas, Tuesday.

There was a Sunday school institute at Howe last Sunday.

Mrs. John Davies of Brownville visited Nemaha friends Saturday.

Jimmy O'Harra is now bell boy at the Markle hotel, Beatrice. He writes that he is doing well.

Miss Elsie Copeland is now assisting in the millinery department of J. H. Vanderslice's store.

Our merchants continue to pay about one cent a dozen more for eggs than merchants of surrounding towns.

John I. Dressler is having a kitchen 10x14 and a porch 4x14 built on his house. Joe Bunker is doing the work.

John R. Maddox was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Friday evening. He drove in with his wife from Auburn, returning the same evening. He is now soliciting and collecting for the Auburn Herald.

We had a fine shower Monday afternoon, wetting the ground in good shape. It was just what was needed.

Miss Rose Seabury went to Roca, Nebr., last Friday with the family of Geo. W. Chapman, and expects to remain there.

We are glad to receive an interesting batch of Brownville items this week, and hope to receive them every week hereafter.

Miss Minnie Owens of Wymore arrived in Nemaha Friday on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Maxwell. She went to Auburn Tuesday.

Rev. G. W. Ayers will preach at the Champion school house next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everybody is invited to be present.

Hill Bros. have a good stock of drugs, and drug sundries, and such articles as usually go with a drug stock. Our people should patronize them.

The Advertiser will be fifty years old the first of June. The first issue was on June 7th, 1856, at Brownville, with the late ex-Gov. Furnas as editor.

Miss Nora Aynes is now being treated for spinal affection by Dr. Stevenson, the Auburn osteopath. She goes to Auburn three times a week for treatment. It is hoped she will be permanently cured.

Lee Stiers, who has been visiting his uncle, John B. Stiers, for the past month, returned to his home in Memphis, Nebr., Wednesday. The young man is a son of Dr. A. L. Stiers, who is now located at Memphis.

Noah Colerick and family, who have been visiting in Nemaha and vicinity for two or three weeks, went to Johnson Monday to see some relatives, and expected to start for their home at Alliance, Nebr., this week.

H. H. Vonfeldon, a former well-known citizen of Nemaha, surprised us Friday by calling in the office. He now lives with his son, John, near Bancroft, Nebr. He is looking well and feeling well, getting around lively although he is 71 years old.

Elmer Elliott, representing the Auburn Music Co., was in Nemaha Thursday night and Friday, in the interest of the company. Harry Parker was with him to render assistance in case of need. Elmer made another visit Tuesday evening and Wednesday.

Ora J. Thorpe is suffering from the foot that he cut last December. He got a bad wound then that laid him up for some time, but it had apparently fully healed. After plowing a few days this spring his foot got sore and kept getting worse until now he can hardly get around on it.

Cecil Wolfe, a would-be-actor, who was with the Harry Kimmel troupe a few days during the winter, and who was in Nemaha a week or two, tried to kill himself at Shubert a few days ago, or at least made belief that he was going to commit suicide, all on account of a girl.

Brownville now has saloons, license having been granted by the council Monday night.

Keep watch of your chickens, as chicken thieves are again raiding coops. Saturday night about twenty little chickens were taken from W. W. Seid.

Mrs. John Watson got a hard fall a few days ago. She was standing on a chair fixing a lace curtain, when the chair tipped and threw her down. As she fell one side struck against one of the posts extending above the chair seat, badly bruising her side, so she could hardly get around for some time, but she is getting better now.

The prospects for fruit was seldom better, except that in some cases part of the strawberries and grapes have been killed. But there are enough left for a good crop.

The school board recently decided to charge admission for the commencement exercises. There are at least two objects in this—one to assist in paying expenses and one to limit the crowd somewhat, keeping out those who do not care for the exercises but simply go because it doesn't cost anything. When there is such a jam as is usually the case it is almost impossible to keep good order.
