

Local News

We are having lots of wind this spring—more than common.

Several phones burned out during the storm Monday afternoon.

Earle Gilbert and the bank have had an awning put in front of their buildings.

Roy Scott, who has been visiting at Auburn, returned home Thursday forenoon.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp visited Brownville relatives from Monday until Thursday.

The class supper that was to have been given tomorrow night has been indefinitely postponed.

T. A. Clark, who has been at Loup City, Neb., for several months, writes that he is again at St. Paul.

Miles W. Knapp has received notice that he has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail between the postoffice and depot, for $95 per year.

Home grown strawberries are now on the market, from Harve Starry's fruit farm, between Nemaha and Brownville. They are nice ones, retailing at 10 cents a box.

A. E. Miller, who has been acting as B. & M. agent here for two or three weeks, went to Elk Creek Thursday, having been relieved by J. M. Pope, the regular agent.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Rev. E. B. Maxcy of Johnson will preach the baccalaureate sermon for the Nemaha high school graduates at the Methodist church next Sunday evening.

J. M. Pope, the new B. & M. agent, arrived at Nemaha Wednesday afternoon, coming here from Daykin, Neb., where he has been agent for some time. Mr. Pope has rented Mrs. Rose Gilbert's house in the south part of town.

Auburn is a dry town yet. The council voted to grant license to two of the applicants, but the opponents have appealed to the district court, so it will be some time likely before the lid will be lifted. It is said if the saloons win in the district court the cases will be appealed to the supreme court, as the temperance forces want to test the Slocum law.

Lew Argabright returned home May 6th, on account of being sick. He expected to return to his duties at the B. & M. depot at Auburn after resting a few days, but got no better, so concluded to quit the railroad business for awhile. He has not been well for some time and recently had hemorrhage of the lungs. He will probably quit the business entirely or go to a different climate.

Funeral services for Morva Shannon, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shannon, of Lincoln, were held at two o'clock this afternoon from the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shannon. The services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Merrill, of the Baptist church. Interment was at Wyuka cemetery.—Neb. City Tribune.

Mr. Shannon was formerly fireman on the Beatrice-Nemaha run.

A Sunday school has been organized at the Cumberland Presbyterian church three miles northwest of Nemaha. Last Sunday there was an attendance of 62, and much interest is manifested. D. E. Zook was elected superintendent, S. Hosterman assistant superintendent, and Allie Penny secretary. The Sunday school meets at 10 a. m.

A Nemaha lady recently attended some of the greatly advertised "special sales" at Auburn and was surprised to find that many of the articles in the special sales were higher than the regular price of identically the same kind of articles in Nemaha stores. People are finding that out in this vicinity and will do their trading at home hereafter.

The disbarment proceedings that were filed against Judge John S. Stull and Fred G. Hawby of Auburn on March 24 were on May 14 dismissed by Judge Raper, on motion of the committee filing the charges, and against the objection and protest of Judge Stull, who demanded a trial. Thus endeth the celebrated proceedings—all except the unpleasant feelings resulting therefrom.

Carl E. Sanders, who has been teaching school for several years, decided some time ago to make a change on account of his health which has been quite poor. Recently he made application for a position as rural route carrier from Nemaha, taking the examination at Auburn April 21. He received the report of his rating by the U. S. civil service commission at Washington a few days ago. His mark was 100. This is the highest mark that can be attained. He has received his appointment as carrier and expects to begin work the first of next month.

As important an office as we have in the county is that of county commissioner. C. E. Ord whose time expires this year, has made as efficient an officer in that capacity as we ever had. His good judgment, business ability, conservative action and knowledge of the needs of the people and the ability of the county financially to meet those needs have rarely been excelled in any particular. While Mr. Ord is not a candidate for reelection, we believe the voters would do well by electing him anyway, and having the benefit of his counsel for another three years.

Human Blood Marks
A tale of horror was told by mark of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by W. W. Keeling, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FRED KAUFFMAN ALIVE
F. L. Woodward returned from Kansas City Saturday afternoon. He says that while there he saw Fred Kauffman, who was thought to have been drowned a couple of weeks ago at the same time that Barney Mason of Brownville met his death at Rulo. There have been rumors of foul play, as it is alleged that Mason's neck was broken and that the body and clothing showed other signs of a struggle. Mr. Woodward saw Fred but just then caught sight of Leslie Woodward and without speaking to Fred went on to where Leslie was. After greeting Leslie he said he wanted to speak to a fellow he had just seen—Fred Kauffman. Leslie says: "There he is," pointing him out. Frank went up to him and shook hands with him, calling him Fred. The fellow seemed nervous and later denied that he was Kauffman, saying he was "Fred Boley" and that he was working in the coal mines at Lawrence, Kas., showing a card from the union in the name of Fred Boley. But Frank says he knows it was Kauffman and Leslie is also positive of it. While he was talking with him he saw an old lady with some bundles trying to get on a street car, and went to help her, and when he got back the fellow had disappeared. A reward of $100 has been offered for the discovery of Fred or his body.

Jeff Colerick says he finds the manufactured ice far ahead of any he has ever used and is only sorry he did not begin using it sooner for it is a money saver. He recently sent a load to Johnson to use in his meat market there, and decided to weigh it at both places to ascertain the amount of shrinkage in hauling it ten miles. He was somewhat surprised to find that the ice weighed 25 pounds more when they reached there than it did when they loaded it here, which is a good increase for such a short time. Jeff has figured that at this rate the increase on the carload he recently received will be sufficient to supply him throughout the summer and he will still have the carload left. Just what he will do with it this winter he does not yet know; but if it begins to accumulate too fast he will save out a small amount for seed and burn the rest.—Talmage Tribune.
