Judging from the number of young chickens being raised, there will be no chicken famine in this community for awhile.

Mrs. Ingham, mother of Mrs. James L. Knight, died at her home in South Auburn, last Saturday and was buried Monday.

Mrs. O. E. Houtz and Mrs. Sherwood drove over to Stella Monday. Mrs. Houtz came back the same day but her mother will visit for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bridge, formerly well known citizens of Peru, celebrated their golden wedding June 18 at their home near Gresham, Oregon.

Mrs. Elmer E. Allen and her mother, Mrs. E. A. Minick, went to Syracuse, Nebr., Tuesday, to visit their sister and daughter, Mrs. A. R. Titus.

We have been having cool nights—satisfactory to those who like a good night's rest, but not so pleasing to corn growers, who want warm nights to push the corn along.

Walter S. Maxwell, who has been landlord of the Park hotel for two or three years, has gone out of business and has moved into the Wheeldon house. The hotel will be closed indefinitely.

A surprise party was given last Friday night, by the young people of the neighborhood, to Miss Frances Hoover, daughter of F. E. Hoover, on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday. They had a pleasant time.

Born—To the household of Will Hacker and wife, Saturday, June 9, 1906, a son of the regulation weight, and Will says of more than the usual good looks—"looks just like pa." As this is the first boy, Will is feeling pretty proud.

The Sunday school at the Cumberland Presbyterian brick church northwest of Nemaha is proving a success. The people in the neighborhood are taking great interest in it. The older people are attending and there is a large bible class and class of young people. Elmer Zook is superintendent.

The patrons of the Nemaha cemetery are certainly pleased with the present management. For two weeks a notice was published that on last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock a meeting would be held at the bank to which all were invited. After waiting until 3:30, only four were present—Elmer E. Allen, J. I. Dressler, F. L. Woodward and W. W. Sanders—all members of the board of directors. Little business was transacted.

The angels of this office want it distinctly understood that they are not responsible for the small size of The Advertiser last week. If the ready prints had come the paper would have been the regular size and would have been out on time, even if the editor was away.

Telephone Notice

The stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants telephone exchange are requested to meet in Nemaha, Saturday, June 16th, at 2:30 p. m. to perfect organization and elect officers and directors for the ensuing year. All persons interested will please come.

Mrs. Stephen Cooper received a telegram Saturday that her mother, Mrs. Catherine Hinds of Custer City, Oklahoma, was not expected to live. She started that night to see her. Steve went with her as far as Kansas City. They drove over to Stella and took the M. P. train.

An Alarming Situation

frequently results from neglect of clogged bowels and torpid liver, until constipation becomes chronic. This condition is unknown to those who use Dr. King's New Life Pills; the best and gentlest regulators of Stomach and Bowels. Guaranteed by Hill Bros. druggists. Price 25.

A party was given Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, in honor of their son, Clyde Roberts, who was home from Kansas City on a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts thoroughly understand the art of entertaining, and were helped by Ole and Clyde and Misses Pearl and Lockie, so of course all present spent a delightful evening.

The children's day exercises at the Methodist church Sunday night were the best ever given in Nemaha. The sentiment of the selections, especially those of the regular program, were fine. The title of the program was "Comrades of the Cross." Every one taking part had their part to perfection. The singing and the marching on and off the stage by the little ones was excellent. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. McCandless who had charge of the exercises and trained the children, received great praise for the result of their efforts.

The Omaha Commercial Club excursion which will be here next Friday will be accompanied by a band for music and cowbells for noise. The party has its own train, with Pullmans for sleeping and a baggage car for the 'commissary,' whatever that means.
