to Lincoln Monday to attend the state board of equalization.

Miss Maud Burns went to Syracuse Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Burgess.

Rev. G. W. Ayers will hold services at Champion school house next Sunday afternoon.

Cyrus Minick, who has been attending the Des Moines business college, returned home Monday evening.

The corn crop is in fine shape.
In some fields the stand is a little thin, but the corn is clean and has made a fine growth.

We had a heavy rain and some hard wind Monday evening. The rainfall was 1.68 inches and most of it fell in about twenty minutes.

Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn, who are attending the summer normal at Peru, came down Friday evening, returning Saturday.

A. L. P. Thompson had a good steer killed by lightning a few days ago. Of course it was the best and largest one in the bunch, coming two years old.

Two fishermen from Missouri, J. F. Allen & Nealis, brought a big catfish to town Monday morning, selling it to Peter Ker-ker, who in turn sold it to Adamson & Fox of South Auburn. It weighed 64 pounds.

San Francisco show at the opera house tonight.

Mrs. W. H. Barker went to Shubert Tuesday evening to attend the carnival.

Old settlers picnic—positively the biggest and best—at Nemaha Thursday, August 2.

W. V. Steuteville came down from Brownville and visited in a good town a few hours Tuesday.

Jim Knight had a sick horse in town Tuesday. The horse had spasmodic colic, but got better toward night.

J. W. Ritchey and Ralph are now finding out a little about housework, as they are baching while Mrs. Ritchey is away.

County Commissioner Ord threshed a field of wheat last week that yielded forty-five bushels per acre.—Granger.

The editor still has a few genitan apples of last year's crop that are good and sound yet, with no extra care taken of them.

Messrs. Hoag and Pageler, representing the Bell Telephone Co., have been in Nemaha several days in the interest of that company.

Mrs. Steve Colerick has almost recovered from the sickness caused by fright when the house caught fire last week, but cannot yet speak above a whisper.

Mrs. A. F. Walsh arrived in Nemaha Tuesday evening and will probably spend the remainder of the summer with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Hoover.

Steve Colerick asks us to return thanks to the neighbors for their assistance in putting out the fire in his house, and for the assistance rendered during the sickness of his wife.

Mrs. J. W. Ritchey started for Yuma, Colorado, Tuesday evening to visit her son, Frank Ritchey. Mrs. Hayes of Brownville, mother of Mrs. Frank Ritchey, also went. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

Miss Barbara Parli of Pawnee City, who has been attending the summer school at Peru, visited Mrs. R. I. Brown from Tuesday until Thursday of last week.

Abe Lawrence, who has been talked of as a candidate for the legislature, has decided not to make the race. Abe would make an active and useful member of the legislature.

Carl E. Sanders, carrier on rural route No. 1, has recently been presented with apples by Miss Hettie Seid and W. T. Russell, and with peaches by J. C.
Penny.

Ed Knapp, carrier on route No 2, has been presented with honey by E. H. Laukemper and blackberries by Dan Harger.

Jake Handley brought in a bushel or two of fine peaches Monday morning and set them out on the sidewalk for everyone to help themselves. He feels sorry for the poor people that have to live in town and don't get half enough to eat. John Flack stayed right with the peaches until all were gone, and sure got his share.

Myrtle South, the adopted daughter of S. S. South, who has been causing so much trouble and talk recently by her baseless charges against South, was taken to the industrial school for girls at Geneva the first of the week, having been sent there for a year. She was apparently willing to go. She is yet very bitter in her talk against South.

Nemaha precinct will present Hon. V. P. Peabody before the republican county convention for renomination as a member of the legislature. The honorable gentleman made a good record at the last session of the legislature.
He is a worker and his votes were right. He is not an active candidate, as he believes the people should do the choosing.
Few men are more worthy representatives.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Methodist parsonage Rev. G. W. Ayers was elected chairman, A. R. McCandless secretary, and Mrs. Lillian Allen treasurer. A. R.
McCandless and James A.
Stephenson were appointed a committee to draft plans, get prices of material, see about workmen, etc. About $750 in cash has been promised, besides about $50 in work, and the paint has been donated.

One of the toughest looking outfits we have seen lately—and we don't think they were better than their looks—was the street fair and carnival "attraction" that was on the way to Shubert and stopped in Nemaha a few hours Monday afternoon. They came in on the afternoon passenger train and left on the south freight. It was about the same outfit, we understand, as that showing in Auburn last week. We are glad Nemaha doesn't have the "enterprise" to get such a lot of bums, gamblers and toughs to our town. We prefer a little quieter and more civilized living. Such affairs are an outrage on any community.

Miss Ashby, daughter of Rev.
Ashby of Howe, is holding a series of meetings at Shubert.
They certainly need something to purify the moral atmosphere after a visitation of the carnival and street fair fakes.

Everybody who will work and can work is kept busy these days, and then almost everybody is crowded by their work. Farmers are wanting hands, town people want work done, and all want it done at once.

Miss Gladys Taylor of this city will be one of the contestants in the Gold Medal contest to be held eleventh, nineteen hundred and six, at eight o'clock. At home of Decatur county, Kansas.

The bride and groom have our congratulations and best wishes.

Stillwater, Oklahoma, are visiting relatives and friends in this county. They formerly lived here and have many friends.
Walter gave us a pleasant call Wednesday.

Earle Steuteville has bought the 3-year-old iron gray horse of Dr. Frazier. He got a new set of harness and then went to Brownville Tuesday evening and brought back a buggy. He is now fixed in good style for buggy rides.

Wm LaHue and wife of Atchison county, Mo., were guests of Mrs. Jane I. May Tuesday after-erly neighbors of the Mays.
