NEMAHA, NEBR.

On account of the hot weather, the school board has decided to have school begin the second Monday in September, instead of the first as has been the custom until last year.

Mrs. G. W. Shiveley and Mrs.
W. E. Smiley returned home Saturday morning after a visit at Lee's Summit and other places in Missouri. Mrs. Mark Robinson, a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Shiveley, came home with them.

The school board decided that on account of the extremely hot weather it was advisable not to begin school until Sept 10, and then it turned cool.

Miss Mary E. Humphreys of Lincoln is visiting Wm. Hawxby and family. Fred and John boarded with the parents of Miss Humphrey when they attended the state university.

Next Monday is Labor Day, and consequently is a holiday.
The rural carriers will not go over their routes on that day, and the postoffice will be closed except at mail time.

Mrs. A. V. Farson, sr., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Vice, near St Deroin, was taken very sick. She was well enough to be brought home Friday but is quite sick yet.

Joe Bunger moved to Peru this week. He has a good job superintending the building of additional rooms of the dormitory and moves there so he will be at home. The work will keep him occupied all winter.

Did you see those dollar watches at Keeling's? They're all right.

Last week it was so hot that people could stand little outdoor exercise. Monday morning the thermometer was only 45 degrees above zero.

Mrs. Frank Scott and Mrs.
Andrew Scott, who have been visiting R. I. Brown and wife returned to their home in Pawnee county Monday.

James A. Shiveley brought us in a basket of magnificent Elberta peaches Tuesday that tasted just as good as they looked. Jim is shipping lots of peaches this year.

Dr. W. W. Keeling and wife started for Springfield, South Dakota, Tuesday, to visit their son, Dr. C. M. Keeling. We trust they will have a pleasant visit and return feeling refreshed and better in every way.

Nemaha chapter No. 76, Order of Eastern Star, initiated Mrs.
John Evans and Mrs. J. F. Shubert of Shubert into the order last Saturday night. Mrs. Dr.
Shook and Mrs. Imler, who are members of the order, came up with them. After lodge ice cream and cake were served.

Next Sunday Rev. G. W. Ayers will hold his last services before going to conference, which meets at Hastings Wednesday. It is probable he will be returned.

Tommy O'Harra, who has been visiting at Nemaha for some time, returned to his home at Brooklyn, Iowa, the first of the week. Sam Littrell went with him.

R. E. Bucher is going to handle coal this fall and winter. If competition will lower the price we ought to get coal cheaper, as there will be three dealers—Edwards & Bradford, J. H. Vender-slice and R. E. Bucher.

Some of our farmer readers have said that the editor felt so proud over being grandpa that he seemed to think he was the only grandpa, but if he had heard Rufus Rowen when he thought no one was near saying "Grandpa—grandson—grandpa—grandson"—just to see how it would sound, he would have thought Rufe was to be classed in the grandpa group also and Grandma Rowen was feeling pretty proud also, thank you.
